(a) An applicant must provide a statement of benefits to the designating body. If the designating body requires information from the applicant for economic revitalization area status for use in making its decision about whether to designate an economic revitalization area, the applicant shall provide the completed statement of benefits form to the designating body before the hearing required by section 2.5(c) of this chapter. Otherwise, the statement of benefits form must be submitted to the designating body before the initiation of the redevelopment or rehabilitation for which the person desires to claim a deduction under this chapter. The department of local government finance shall prescribe a form for the statement of benefits. The statement of benefits must include the following information:

- (1) A description of the proposed redevelopment or rehabilitation.
- (2) An estimate of the number of individuals who will be employed or whose employment will be retained by the person as a result of the redevelopment or rehabilitation and an estimate of the annual salaries of these individuals.

With the approval of the designating body, the statement of benefits may be incorporated in a designation application. Notwithstanding any other law, a statement of benefits is a public record that may be inspected and copied under IC 5-14-3-3.

(b) The designating body must review the statement of benefits required under subsection (a). The designating body shall determine whether an area should be designated an economic revitalization area or whether a deduction should be allowed, based on (and after it has made) the following findings:

- (1) Whether the estimate of the value of the redevelopment or rehabilitation is reasonable for projects of that nature.
- (2) Whether the estimate of the number of individuals who will be employed or whose employment will be retained can be reasonably expected to result from the proposed described redevelopment or rehabilitation.

(3) Whether the estimate of the annual salaries of those individuals who will be employed or whose employment will be retained can be reasonably expected to result from the proposed described redevelopment or rehabilitation.

(4) Whether any other benefits about which information was requested are benefits that can be reasonably expected to result from the proposed described redevelopment or rehabilitation.

(5) Whether the totality of benefits is sufficient to justify the deduction.

A designating body may not designate an area an economic revitalization area or approve a deduction unless the findings required by this subsection are made in the affirmative.

(c) Except as provided in subsections (a) through (b), the owner of property which is located in an economic revitalization area is entitled to a deduction from the assessed value of the property. In addition, property owners who are entitled to a deduction under this chapter pursuant to an application filed after December 31, 1978, and before January 1, 1986, are entitled to a deduction for a ten (10) year period.

(d) For an area designated as an economic revitalization area after

- (2) by resolution adopted within sixty (60) days after receiving a copy of a property owner's certified deduction application from the county auditor. A certified copy of the resolution shall be sent to the county auditor who shall make the deduction as provided in section 5 of this chapter.

A determination about the number of years the deduction is allowed that is made under subdivision (1) is final and may not be changed by following the procedure under subdivision (2).

(e) Except for deductions related to redevelopment or rehabilitation of real property in a county containing a consolidated city or a deduction related to redevelopment or rehabilitation of real property initiated before December 31, 1987, in areas designated as economic revitalization areas before that date, a deduction for the redevelopment or rehabilitation of real property may not be approved for the following facilities:

(9) The offer or sale of securities of an issuer:

(i) to a person who is:

(A) a director, an executive officer, a general partner, an administrator, or a person who performs similar functions for or who is similarly situated with respect to the issuer;

(B) a director, an executive officer, or a general partner of a general partner of the issuer; or

(C) any other natural person employed on a full-time basis by the issuer as an attorney or accountant if the person has been acting in this capacity for at least one (1) year immediately prior to the offer or sale;

(ii) to an entity affiliated with the issuer;

(iii) if the issuer is a corporation, to a person who is the owner of shares of the corporation or of an affiliated corporation representing and possessing ten percent (10%) or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock (of the corporation or affiliated corporation) issued and outstanding and who is entitled to vote; or

(iv) if the issuer is a limited liability company, to a person who is the owner of an interest in the limited liability company representing and possessing at least ten percent (10%) of the total combined voting power of all classes of such interests (of the limited liability company or affiliated limited liability company) issued and outstanding.

(10) The offer or sale of a security by the issuer of the security if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(A) The issuer reasonably believes that either:

(i) there are no more than thirty-five (35) purchasers of the securities from the issuer in an offering pursuant to this subsection, including purchasers outside Indiana; or

(ii) there are no more than twenty (20) purchasers in Indiana.

In either case, there shall be excluded in determining the number of purchasers a purchaser whom the issuer reasonably believes to be an accredited investor or who purchases the securities after they are registered under this chapter.

(B) The issuer does not offer or sell the securities by means of a form of general advertisement or general solicitation.

(C) The issuer reasonably believes that each purchaser of the securities is acquiring the securities for the purchaser's own investment and is aware of any restrictions imposed on transferability and resale of the securities. The basis for reasonable belief may include:

(i) obtaining a written representation signed by the purchaser that the purchaser is acquiring the securities for the purchaser's own investment and is aware of any restrictions imposed on the transferability and resale of the securities; and

(ii) placement of a legend on the certificate or other document that evidences the securities stating that the securities have not been registered under section 3 of this chapter, and setting forth or referring to the restrictions on transferability and sale of the securities.

(D) The issuer:

(i) files with the commissioner and provides to each purchaser in this state an offering statement that sets forth all material facts with respect to the securities; and

(ii) reasonably believes immediately before making a sale that each purchaser who is not an accredited investor either alone or with a purchaser representative has knowledge and experience in financial and business matters to the extent that the purchaser is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of the prospective investment.

(E) If the aggregate offering price of the securities in an offering pursuant to this subdivision (including securities sold outside of Indiana) does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), the issuer is not required to comply with clause (D) if the issuer files with the commissioner and provides to each purchaser in Indiana the following information and materials:

- (i) copies of all written materials, if any, concerning the securities that have been provided by the issuer to any purchaser; and
- (ii) unless clearly presented in all written materials, a written notification setting forth the name, address, and form of organization of the issuer and any affiliate, the nature of the principal businesses of the issuer and any affiliate, and the information required in section 5(b)(1)(B), 5(b)(1)(C), 5(b)(1)(D), 5(b)(1)(E), 5(b)(1)(H), and 5(b)(1)(I) of this chapter.

(F) The commissioner does not disallow the exemption provided by this subdivision within ten (10) full business days after receipt of the filing required by clause (D) or (E). The issuer may make offers (but not sales) before and during the ten (10) day period, if:

- (i) each prospective purchaser is advised in writing that the offer is preliminary and subject to material change; and
- (ii) no enforceable offer to purchase the securities may be made by a prospective purchaser, and no consideration in any form may be accepted or received (directly or indirectly) from a prospective purchaser, before the expiration of the ten (10) day period and the vacation of an order disallowing the exemption.

(G) The issuer need not comply with clause (D), (E), or (F) if:

- (i) each purchaser has access to all the material facts with respect to the securities by reason of the purchaser's active involvement in the organization or management of the issuer or the purchaser's family relationship with a person actively involved in the organization or management of the issuer;
- (ii) there are not more than fifteen (15) purchasers in Indiana and each Indiana purchaser is an accredited investor or is a purchaser described in item (i); or
- (iii) the aggregate offering price of the securities, including securities sold outside Indiana, does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), the total number of purchasers, including purchasers outside of Indiana, does not exceed twenty-five (25) and each purchaser either receives all of the material facts with respect to the security or is an accredited investor or a purchaser described in item (i).

(H) If the issuer makes or is required to make a filing with the commissioner under clause (D) or (E), the issuer must also file with the commissioner at the time of the filing the consent to service of process required by section 16 of this chapter. The issuer shall also file with the commissioner, at the times and in the forms as the commissioner may prescribe, notices of sales made in reliance upon this subdivision.

(I) The commissioner may by rule deny exemption provided in this subdivision to a particular class of issuers, or may make the exemption available to the issuers upon compliance with additional conditions and requirements, if appropriate in furtherance of the intent of this chapter.

(11) An offer or sale of securities to existing security holders of the issuer, including persons who at the time of the transaction are holders of convertible securities, nontransferable warrants, or transferable warrants exercisable within not more than ninety (90) days of their issuance if no commission or other remuneration (other than a standby commission) is paid or given for soliciting a security holder in this state.

(12) An offer (but not a sale) of a security for which registration statements or applications have been filed under this chapter and the Securities Act of 1933 (15 U.S.C. 77a-77aa), if no stop order or refusal order is in effect and no public proceeding or examination looking toward an order is pending under either law.

(13) The deposit of shares under a voting-trust agreement and the issue of voting-trust certificates for the deposit.

(14) The offer or sale of a commodity futures contract.

(15) The offer or sale of securities to or for the benefit of security holders incident to a vote by the security holders pursuant to the articles of incorporation or applicable instrument, on a merger or share exchange under IC 23-1-40 or the laws of another state, reclassification of securities, exchange of securities under IC 28-1-7.5, or sale of assets of the issuer in consideration of the issuance of securities of the same or another issuer.

(16) A limited offering transactional exemption, which may be created by rule adopted by the commissioner. The exemption must further the objectives of compatibility with federal exemptions and uniformity among the states.

(c) The commissioner may consider and determine if a proposed sale, transaction, issue, or security is entitled to an exemption accorded by this section. The commissioner may decline to exercise the commissioner's authority as to a proposed sale, transaction, issue, or security. An interested party desiring the commissioner to exercise the commissioner's authority must submit to the commissioner a verified statement of all material facts relating to the proposed sale, transaction, issue, or security, which must be accompanied by a request for a ruling as to the particular exemption claimed, together with a filing fee of one hundred dollars ($100). After notice to the interested parties as the commissioner determines is proper and after a hearing, if any, the commissioner may enter an order finding the proposed sale, transaction, issue, or security entitled or not entitled to the exemption claimed. An order entered, unless an appeal is taken from it in the manner prescribed in section 20 of this chapter, is binding upon the commissioner and upon all interested parties, provided that the proposed sale, transaction, issue, or security when consummated or issued conforms in every relevant and material particular with the facts as set forth in the verified statement submitted.

(d) The commissioner may by order deny or revoke an exemption specified in subsection (a)(6), (a)(7), or (b) with respect to a specific security or transaction, if the commissioner finds that the securities to which the exemption applies would not qualify for registration under sections 4 and 5 of this chapter. No order may be entered without appropriate prior notice to all interested parties, opportunity for hearing, and written findings of fact and conclusions of law, except that the commissioner may by order summarily deny or revoke any of the specific exemptions pending final determination of a proceeding under this subsection. Upon the entry of a summary order, the commissioner shall promptly notify all interested parties that it has been entered, of the reasons for the order, and that within fifteen (15) days of the receipt of a written request the matter will be set down for hearing. If no hearing is requested and none is ordered by the commissioner, the order will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the commissioner. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the commissioner, after notice of and opportunity for hearing to all interested persons, may modify or vacate the order or extend it until final determination. No order under this subsection may operate retroactively. No person may be considered to have violated section 3 of this chapter by reason of an offer or sale effected after the entry of an order under this subsection if the person sustains the burden of proof that the person did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the order.

(e) If, with respect to an offering of securities, any notices or written statements are required to be filed with the commissioner under subsection (b)(10), the first filing made with respect to the offering must be accompanied by a filing fee of one hundred dollars ($100).

(f) A condition, stipulation, or provision requiring a person acquiring a security to waive compliance with this chapter or a rule or order under this chapter is void.

SECTION 6. IC 23-2-1-6 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004]: Sec. 6. (a) An application for registration may be filed by:

- (1) the issuer;
- (2) any other person on whose behalf the offering is to be made;
- or
- (3) a registered broker-dealer.

(b) A person filing an application for registration shall pay a filing fee of one-twentieth of one percent (0.05%) of the maximum aggregate offering price at which the registered securities are to be offered in Indiana, but the fee may not be less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250) and may not be more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(c) When an application for registration under subsection (b) is withdrawn before the effective date or a preeffective stop order is entered under section 7 of this chapter, the commissioner shall retain two hundred fifty dollars ($250) of the fee.

(d) A person filing an amendment to an effective registration which requires an order of the commissioner shall pay a twenty-five dollar ($25) filing fee.

(e) An application for registration shall specify:

- (1) the amount of securities to be offered in this state;
- (2) the states in which a registration statement or similar document in connection with the offering has been or is to be filed; and

(3) an adverse order, judgment, or decree entered in connection with the offering by the regulatory authorities in each state or by a court or the Securities and Exchange Commission.

(f) A document filed under this chapter within five (5) years preceding the filing of an application for registration may be incorporated by reference in the application for registration if the document is currently accurate.

(g) The commissioner may by rule or otherwise permit the omission of an item of information or document from an application for registration.

(h) In the case of a nonissuer distribution, any part of the information that might otherwise be required under section 5 of this chapter or subsection (i) need not be furnished if the person filing the application for registration produces evidence to the reasonable satisfaction of the commissioner that the person, or the persons on whose behalf the distribution is to be made, cannot furnish that part of the required information without unreasonable effort or expense.

(i) A registration is effective for:

(1) two (2) years from its effective date; or

(2) a shorter period during which the security is being offered or distributed in a nonexempted transaction by or for the account of the issuer or the person on whose behalf the offering is being made or by an underwriter or broker-dealer who is still offering part of an unsold allotment or subscription taken by the underwriter or broker-dealer as a participant in the distribution, except during the time a stop order is in effect under section 7 of this chapter.

(j) So long as a registration is effective, the commissioner may by rule or order require the person who filed the application for registration to file reports, not more often than quarterly, to keep reasonably current the information contained in the application for registration and to disclose the progress of the offering.

(k) The commissioner may by rule or order require as a condition of registration by qualification or coordination:

(1) that a security issued within the past three (3) years or to be issued to a promoter for a consideration substantially different from the public offering price, or to a person for a consideration other than cash, be deposited in escrow; and

(2) that the proceeds from the sale of the registered security be impounded until the issuer receives a specified amount.

The commissioner may by rule or order determine the conditions of an escrow or impounding required under this subsection, but the commissioner may not reject a depository solely because of location in another state.

(l) No transferable share is exempt from registration under section 2(b)(3) of this chapter or is qualified for registration under sections 4 or 5 of this chapter unless the issuer has designated a qualified transfer agent to handle all transfers. The commissioner may adopt rules to implement this subsection. The commissioner may by rule or order exempt an issuer, wholly or partially, from the requirements of this subsection.

(m) A registration statement may be amended after its effective date to increase the securities specified to be offered and sold if the public offering price and underwriters' discounts and commissions are not changed from the amounts reported to the commissioner. An amendment becomes effective upon an order of the commissioner. A person filing an amendment must pay a late registration fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) and a filing fee under subsection (b) for the additional securities proposed to be offered. An amendment relates back to the date of the sale of additional securities being registered if the amendment is filed within three (3) months after the date of the sale and the additional filing fee and late registration fee are paid.

(n) As permitted by Section 106(c) of the Secondary Mortgage Market Enhancement Act of 1984 (15 U.S.C. 77r-1(c)), securities that are offered and sold pursuant to Section 4(5) of the Securities Act of 1933 or that are mortgage-related securities (as that term is defined in Section 3(a)(41) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. 78c(a)(41)):

(1) must comply with all applicable:

(A) registration and qualification requirements of this chapter; and

(B) rules adopted by the commissioner; and

(2) shall not be treated as obligations issued by the United States for the purposes of this chapter.

(o) If:

(1) the division:

(A) does not approve an application for registration by coordination or qualification; and

(B) notifies the applicant not later than ten (10) days after the date the application was not approved of a deficiency in the application that, if satisfied, would allow the approval of the application;

the applicant may satisfy the deficiency within sixty (60) days after the date described in clause (B); and

(2) an applicant does not satisfy the deficiency described in subdivision (1):

(A) the application is considered abandoned;

(B) the issuer does not receive a refund of the application fee; and

(C) no further action is required by the division.

SECTION 7. IC 23-2-1-15, AS AMENDED BY P.L.270-2003, SECTION 1, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004]: Sec. 15. (a) This chapter shall be administered by a division of the office of the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall appoint a securities commissioner who shall be responsible for the direction and supervision of the division and the administration of this chapter under the direction and control of the secretary of state. The salary of the securities commissioner shall be paid out of the funds appropriated for the administration of this chapter. The commissioner shall serve at the will of the secretary of state.

(b) The secretary of state:

(1) shall employ a chief deputy, a senior investigator, a senior accountant, and other deputies, investigators, accountants, clerks, stenographers, and other employees necessary for the administration of this chapter; and

(2) shall fix their compensation with the approval of the budget agency.

The chief deputy, other deputies, the senior investigator, and the senior accountant, once employed under this chapter, may be dismissed only for cause by the secretary of state upon ten (10) days notice in writing stating the reasons for dismissal. Within fifteen (15) days after dismissal, the chief deputy, other deputies, the senior investigator, and the senior accountant may appeal to the state personnel board. The state personnel board shall hold a hearing, and if it finds that the appealing party was dismissed for a political, social, religious, or racial reason, the appealing party shall be reinstated to the appealing party's position without loss of pay. In all other cases, if the decision is favorable to the appealing party, the secretary of state shall follow the findings and recommendations of the board, which may include reinstatement and payment of salary or wages lost. The hearing and any subsequent proceedings or appeals shall be governed by the provisions of IC 4-15-2 and IC 4-21.5.

(c) Fees and funds of whatever character accruing from the administration of this chapter shall be accounted for by the secretary of state and shall be deposited with the treasurer of state to be deposited by the treasurer of state in the general fund of the state. Expenses incurred in the administration of this chapter shall be paid from the general fund upon appropriation being made for the expenses in the manner provided by law for the making of those appropriations. However, costs of investigations recovered under sections 16(d) and 17.1(c) of this chapter shall be deposited with the treasurer of state to be deposited by the treasurer of state in a separate account to be known as the securities division enforcement account. The funds in the account shall be available, with the approval of the budget agency, to augment and supplement the funds appropriated for the administration of this chapter. The funds in the account do not revert to the general fund at the end of any fiscal year.

(d) In connection with the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this chapter, the attorney general shall render all necessary assistance to the securities commissioner upon the commissioner's request, and to that end, the attorney general shall employ legal and other professional services as are necessary to adequately and fully perform the service under the direction of the securities commissioner as the demands of the securities division shall require. Expenses incurred by the attorney general for the purposes stated in this subsection shall be chargeable against and paid out of funds appropriated to the attorney general for the administration of the attorney general's office.

(e) Neither the secretary of state, the securities commissioner, nor an employee of the securities division shall be liable in their individual capacity, except to the state, for an act done or omitted in connection with the performance of their respective duties under this chapter.

(f) The commissioner, subject to the approval of the secretary of state, may adopt rules, orders, and forms necessary to carry out this chapter, including rules and forms concerning registration statements, applications, reports, and the definitions of any terms if the definitions are consistent with this chapter. The commissioner may by rule or order allow for exemptions from registration requirements under sections 3 and 8 of this chapter if the exemptions are consistent with the public interest and this chapter.

(g) The provisions of this chapter delegating and granting power to the secretary of state, the securities division, and the securities commissioner shall be liberally construed to the end that:

- (1) the practice or commission of fraud may be prohibited and prevented;
- (2) disclosure of sufficient and reliable information in order to afford reasonable opportunity for the exercise of independent judgment of the persons involved may be assured; and
- (3) the qualifications may be prescribed to assure availability of reliable broker-dealers, investment advisers, and agents engaged in and in connection with the issuance, barter, sale, purchase, transfer, or disposition of securities in this state.

It is the intent and purpose of this chapter to delegate and grant to and vest in the secretary of state, the securities division, and the securities commissioner full and complete power to carry into effect and accomplish the purpose of this chapter and to charge them with full and complete responsibility for its effective administration.

(h) It is the duty of a prosecuting attorney, as well as of the attorney general, to assist the securities commissioner upon the commissioner's request in the prosecution to final judgment of a violation of the penal provisions of this chapter and in a civil proceeding or action arising under this chapter. If the commissioner determines that an action based on the securities division's investigations is meritorious:

- (1) the commissioner or a designee empowered by the commissioner shall certify the facts drawn from the investigation to the prosecuting attorney of the judicial circuit in which the crime may have been committed;
- (2) the commissioner and the securities division shall assist the prosecuting attorney in prosecuting an action under this section, which may include a securities division attorney serving as a special deputy prosecutor appointed by the prosecuting attorney;

(3) a prosecuting attorney to whom facts concerning fraud are certified under subdivision (1) may refer the matter to the attorney general; and

(4) if a matter has been referred to the attorney general under subdivision (3), the attorney general may:

(A) file an information in a court with jurisdiction over the matter in the county in which the offense is alleged to have been committed; and

(B) prosecute the alleged offense.

(i) The securities commissioner shall take, prescribe, and file the oath of office prescribed by law. The securities commissioner, senior investigator, and each deputy are police officers of the state and shall have all the powers and duties of police officers in making arrests for violations of this chapter, or in serving any process, notice, or order connected with the enforcement of this chapter by whatever officer or authority or court issued. The securities commissioner, the deputy commissioners for enforcement, and the investigators comprise the enforcement department of the division and are considered a criminal justice agency for purposes of IC 5-2-4 and IC 10-13-3.

(j) The securities commissioner and each employee of the securities division shall be reimbursed for necessary hotel and travel expenses when required to travel on official duty. Hotel and travel reimbursements shall be paid in accordance with the travel regulations prescribed by the budget agency.

(k) It is unlawful for the secretary of state, the securities commissioner, or the securities division's employees to use for personal benefit information that is filed with or obtained by the securities division and that is not made public. No provision of this chapter authorizes the secretary of state, the securities commissioner, or the employees of the securities division to disclose information except among themselves, or when necessary or appropriate, in a proceeding or investigation under this chapter. No provision of this chapter either creates or derogates from a privilege that exists at common law or otherwise when documentary or other evidence is sought under a subpoena directed to the secretary of state, the securities commissioner, or the securities division or its employees.

(l) The commissioner may honor requests from interested persons for interpretative opinions and from interested persons for determinations that the commissioner will not institute enforcement proceedings against specified persons for specified activities. A determination not to institute enforcement proceedings must be consistent with this chapter. A person may not request an interpretive opinion concerning an activity that:

(1) occurred before; or

(2) is occurring on;

the date that the opinion is requested. The commissioner shall charge a fee of one hundred dollars ($100) for an interpretative opinion or determination.

SECTION 8. IC 23-2-1-19 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004]: Sec. 19. (a) A person who offers or sells a security in violation of this chapter, and who does not sustain the burden of proof that the person did not know and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known of the violation, is liable to any other party to the transaction who did not knowingly participate in the violation or who did not have, at the time of the transaction, knowledge of the violation, who may sue either at law or in equity to rescind the transaction or to recover the consideration paid, together, in either case, with interest as computed in subsection (g)(1), plus costs, and reasonable attorney's fees, less the amount of any cash or other property received on the security upon the tender of the security by the person bringing the action or for damages if the person no longer owns the security. Damages are the amount that would be recoverable upon a tender less:

(1) the value of the security when the buyer disposed of the security; and

(2) the interest as computed in subsection (g)(1) on the value of the security from the date of disposition.

(b) A person who purchases a security in violation of this chapter, and who does not sustain the burden of proof that the person did not know and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known of the violation, is liable to any other party to the transaction who did not knowingly participate in the violation or who did not have, at the time of the transaction, knowledge of the violation. The other party to the transaction may bring an action to rescind the transaction or for damages, together, in either case, with reasonable attorney's fees, upon the tender of the consideration received by the person bringing the action.

(c) A person who, for compensation, engages in the business of advising others, either directly or through publications or writings, as to the value of securities or as to the advisability of investing in, purchasing, or selling securities, or who, for compensation and as a part of a regular business, issues analyses or reports concerning securities and:

- (1) violates section 8, 12.1(b), ~~or~~ 14, or 26 of this chapter;
- (2) employs a device, scheme, or artifice to defraud a person; or
- (3) engages in an act that operates or would operate as fraud or deceit upon a person;

is liable to the other person, who may bring an action to recover any consideration paid for advice, any loss due to advice, interest at eight percent (8%) each year from the date consideration was paid, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees less the value of cash or property received due to the advice. It is a defense to an action brought for a violation of section 12.1(b) ~~or 26~~ of this chapter that the person accused of the violation did not know of the violation and, exercising reasonable care, could not have known of the violation.

(d) A person who directly or indirectly controls a person liable under subsection (a), (b), or (c), a partner, officer, or director of the person, a person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions, an employee of a person who materially aids in the conduct creating the liability, and a broker-dealer or agent who materially aids in the conduct are also liable jointly and severally with and to the same extent as the person, unless the person who is liable sustains the burden of proof that the person did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the existence of the facts by reason of which the liability is alleged to exist. There is contribution as in cases of contract among the several persons liable.

(e) A tender specified in this section may be made at any time before entry of judgment.

(f) A cause of action under this statute survives the death of a person who might have been a plaintiff or defendant.

(g) Action under this section shall be commenced within three (3) years after discovery by the person bringing the action of a violation of this chapter, and not afterwards. No person may sue under this section:

(1) if that person received a written offer, before suit and at a time when the person owned the security, to refund the consideration paid together with interest on that amount from the date of payment to the date of repayment, with interest on:

(A) interest-bearing obligations to be computed at the same rate as provided on the security; and

(B) all other securities at the rate of eight percent (8%) per year; less the amount of any income received on the security, and the person failed to accept the offer within thirty (30) days of its receipt; or

(2) if the person received an offer before suit and at a time when the person did not own the security, unless the person rejected the offer in writing within thirty (30) days of its receipt.

(h) No person who has made or engaged in the performance of a contract in violation of this chapter or a rule or order under this chapter, or who has acquired a purported right under a contract with knowledge of the facts by reason of which its making or performance was in violation, may base a suit on the contract.

(i) A condition, stipulation, or provision binding a person acquiring a security to waive compliance with this chapter or a rule or order under this chapter is void.

(j) The rights and remedies specifically prescribed by this chapter are the only rights and remedies created by this chapter, but are in addition to any other rights or remedies that exist at law or in equity.

SECTION 9. IC 23-2-1-19.5 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004]: Sec. 19.5. (a) If the commissioner determines, after notice and opportunity for a hearing, that any person has violated this chapter, the commissioner may, in addition to or in lieu of all other remedies, impose a civil penalty upon any person who has violated this chapter. This penalty may not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each violation of this chapter found to have been committed. An appeal from the decision of the commissioner imposing a civil penalty under this subsection may be taken by any aggrieved party pursuant to section 20 of this chapter.

(b) The commissioner may bring any action in the circuit or superior court of Marion County to enforce payment of any penalty imposed under subsection (a).

(c) Penalties collected under this section shall be deposited in the securities division enforcement account established under section 15(c) of this chapter.

- (3) reduce the interest rate from an interest rate that does not exceed the benchmark rate; and
- (4) are recouped within the first four (4) years of the scheduled loan payments;

if the reduction in the interest rate that is achieved by the payment of the loan discount points reduces the interest charged on the scheduled payments so that the borrower's dollar amount of savings in interest during the first four (4) years of the loan is equal to or greater than the dollar amount of loan discount points paid by the borrower.

Sec. 4. "Borrower" means a person obligated to repay a home loan, including a coborrower, cosigner, or guarantor.

Sec. 5. "Bridge loan" means temporary or short term financing with a maturity of less than eighteen (18) months that requires payments of interest only until the entire unpaid balance is due and payable.

Sec. 6. (a) "Creditor" means:

 - (B) to whom the debt arising from a home loan transaction is initially payable; or
- (2) a person who brokers a home loan, including a person who:

- (A) directly or indirectly solicits, processes, places, or negotiates home loans for others;
- (B) offers to solicit, process, place, or negotiate home loans for others; or
- (C) closes home loans that may be in the person's own name with funds provided by others and that are thereafter assigned to the person providing funding for the loans.

(b) The term does not include:

- (1) a servicer;
- (2) a state or local housing finance authority;
- (3) any other state or local governmental or quasi-governmental entity; or
- (4) an attorney providing legal services in association with the closing of a home loan.

Sec. 7. (a) "Deceptive act" means an act or a practice as part of a consumer credit mortgage transaction involving real property located in Indiana in which a person at the time of the transaction knowingly or intentionally:

- (1) makes a material misrepresentation; or
- (2) conceals material information regarding the terms or conditions of the transaction.

(b) For purposes of this section, "knowingly" means having actual knowledge at the time of the transaction.

Sec. 8. (a) "High cost home loan" means a home loan with:

- (1) a trigger rate that exceeds the benchmark rate; or
- (2) total points and fees that exceed:
 - (A) five percent (5%) of the loan principal for a home loan having a loan principal of at least forty thousand dollars ($40,000); or
 - (B) six percent (6%) of the loan principal for a home loan having a loan principal of less than forty thousand dollars ($40,000).

(b) Beginning July 1, 2006, the dollar amounts set forth in this section are subject to change at the times and according to the procedure set forth in the provisions of IC 24-4.5-1-106 concerning the adjustment of dollar amounts in IC 24-4.5.

Sec. 9. "Home loan" means a loan, other than an open end credit plan or a reverse mortgage transaction, that is secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on real estate in Indiana on which there is located or will be located a structure or structures:

- (1) designed primarily for occupancy of one (1) to four (4) families; and
- (2) that is or will be occupied by a borrower as the borrower's principal dwelling.

Sec. 10. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), "points and fees" means the total of the following:

- (1) Points and fees (as defined in 12 CFR 226.32(b)(1) on January 1, 2004).
- (2) All compensation paid directly or indirectly to a mortgage broker, including a broker that originates a loan in the broker's own name.

As used in subdivision (2), "compensation" does not include a payment included in subdivision (1).

(b) The term does not include the following:

- (1) Bona fide discount points.
- (2) An amount not to exceed one and one-half (1 1/2) points in indirect broker compensation, if the terms of the loan do not include a prepayment penalty that exceeds two percent (2%) of the home loan principle.
- (3) Reasonable fees paid to an affiliate of the creditor.
- (4) Interest prepaid by the borrower for the month in which the home loan is closed.

Sec. 11. "Political subdivision" means a municipality, school district, public library, local housing authority, fire protection district, public transportation corporation, local building authority, local hospital authority or corporation, local airport authority, special service district, special taxing district, or any other type of local governmental corporate entity.

Sec. 12. "Rate" means the interest rate charged on a home loan, based on an annual simple interest yield.

Sec. 13. "Total loan amount" means the principal of the home loan minus the points and fees that are included in the principal amount of the loan.

Sec. 14. "Trigger rate" means:

- (1) for fixed rate home loans in which the interest rate will not vary during the term of the loan, the rate as of the date of closing;

(2) for home loans in which the interest varies according to an index, the sum of the index rate as of the date of closing plus the maximum margin permitted at any time under the loan agreement; or

(3) for all other home loans in which the rate may vary at any time during the term of the loan, the maximum rate that may be charged during the term of the home loan.

Chapter 3. Prohibited Lending Practices Generally

Sec. 1. (a) A creditor making a home loan may not finance, directly or indirectly, any:

(1) credit life insurance;

(2) credit disability insurance;

(3) credit unemployment insurance;

(4) credit property insurance; or

(5) payments directly or indirectly for any cancellation suspension agreement or contract.

(b) Insurance premiums, debt cancellation fees, or suspension fees calculated and paid on a monthly basis are not considered to be financed by the creditor for purposes of this chapter.

Sec. 2. (a) A creditor may not knowingly or intentionally replace or consolidate a zero (0) interest rate or other subsidized low rate loan made by a governmental or nonprofit lender with a high cost home loan within the first ten (10) years of the subsidized low rate loan unless the current holder of the loan consents in writing to the refinancing.

(b) For purposes of this section, a "subsidized low rate loan" is a loan that carries a current interest rate of at least two (2) percentage points below the current yield on treasury securities with a comparable maturity. If the loan's current interest rate is either a discounted introductory rate or a rate that automatically steps up over time, the fully indexed rate or the fully stepped up rate, as appropriate, should be used instead of the current rate to determine whether a loan is a subsidized low rate loan.

(c) Each mortgage or deed of trust securing a zero (0) interest rate or other subsidized low rate loan executed after January 1, 2005, must prominently display the following on the face of the instrument:

"This instrument secures a zero (0) interest rate or other subsidized low rate loan subject to IC 24-9-3-2."

(d) A creditor may reasonably rely on the presence or absence of the statement described in subsection (c) on the face of an instrument executed after January 1, 2005, as conclusive proof of the existence or nonexistence of a zero (0) interest rate or other subsidized low rate loan.

Sec. 3. A creditor may not recommend or encourage default on an existing loan or other debt before and in connection with the closing or planned closing of a home loan that refinances all or part of the existing loan or debt.

Sec. 4. A creditor shall treat each payment made by a borrower in regard to a home loan as posted on the same business day as the payment was received by the creditor, servicer, or creditor's agent, or at the address provided to the borrower by the creditor, servicer, or creditor's agent for making payments.

Sec. 5. (a) A home loan agreement may not contain a provision that permits the creditor, in the creditor's sole discretion, to accelerate the indebtedness without material cause.

(b) This section does not prohibit acceleration of a home loan in good faith due to the borrower's failure to abide by the material terms of the loan.

Sec. 6. (a) A creditor may not charge a fee for informing or transmitting to a person the balance due to pay off a home loan or to provide a written release upon prepayment. A creditor must provide a payoff balance not later than ten (10) business days after the request is received by the creditor.

(b) For purposes of this section, "fee" does not include actual charges incurred by a creditor for express or priority delivery requested by the borrower of home loan documents to the borrower.

Sec. 7. A person may not:

- (1) divide a loan transaction into separate parts with the intent of evading a provision of this article;
- (2) structure a home loan transaction as an open-end loan with the intent of evading the provisions of this article if the loan would be a high cost home loan if the home loan had been structured as a closed-end loan; or
- (3) engage in a deceptive act in connection with a home loan.

Sec. 8. A person seeking to enforce section 7(3) of this chapter, may not knowingly or intentionally intimidate, coerce, or harass another person.

Sec. 9. It is unlawful for a creditor to discriminate against any applicant with respect to any aspect of a credit transaction on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, or age, if the applicant has the ability to contract.

Chapter 4. Additional Prohibitions for High Cost Home Loans

Sec. 1. The following additional limitations and prohibited practices apply to a high cost home loan:

(1) A creditor making a high cost home loan may not directly or indirectly finance any points and fees.

(2) Prepayment fees or penalties may not be included in the loan documents for a high cost home loan or charged to the borrower if the fees or penalties exceed in total two percent (2%) of the high cost home loan amount prepaid during the first twenty-four (24) months after the high cost home loan closing.

(3) A prepayment penalty may not be contracted for after the second year following the high cost home loan closing.

(4) A creditor may not include a prepayment penalty fee in a high cost home loan unless the creditor offers the borrower the option of choosing a loan product without a prepayment fee. The terms of the offer must be made in writing and must be initialed by the borrower. The document containing the offer must be clearly labeled in large bold type and must include the following disclosure:

"LOAN PRODUCT CHOICE

I was provided with an offer to accept a product both with and without a prepayment penalty provision. I have chosen to accept the product with a prepayment penalty."

(5) A creditor shall not sell or otherwise assign a high cost home loan without furnishing the following statement to the purchaser or assignee:

"NOTICE: This is a loan subject to special rules under IC 24-9. Purchasers or assignees may be liable for all claims and defenses with respect to the loan that the borrower could assert against the lender."

(6) A mortgage or deed of trust that secures a high cost home loan at the time the mortgage or deed of trust is recorded must prominently display the following on the face of the instrument:

"This instrument secures a high cost home loan as defined in IC 24-9-2-8."

(7) A creditor making a high cost home loan may not finance, directly or indirectly, any life or health insurance.

Sec. 2. A creditor may not knowingly or intentionally:

(1) refinance a high cost home loan by charging points and fees on the part of the proceeds of the new high cost home loan that is used to refinance the existing high cost loan within four (4) years of the origination of the existing high cost home loan; or

(2) divide a home loan transaction into multiple transactions with the effect of evading this article. Where multiple transactions are involved, the total points and fees charged in all transactions shall be considered when determining whether the protections of this section apply.

Sec. 3. Notwithstanding IC 24-4.5-3-402, a high cost home loan agreement may not require a scheduled payment that is more than twice as large as the average of earlier scheduled monthly payments under the high cost home loan agreement unless the payment becomes due and payable at least one hundred twenty (120) months after the date of the high cost home loan. This prohibition does not apply if:

(1) the payment schedule is adjusted to account for the seasonal or irregular income of the borrower; or

(2) the loan is a bridge loan connected with or related to the acquisition or construction of a dwelling intended to become the borrower's principal dwelling.

Sec. 4. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), a high cost home loan may not include payment terms under which the outstanding principal balance will increase at any time over the course of the high cost home loan because the regular periodic payments do not cover the full amount of interest due.

(b) This section does not apply to a temporary forbearance that is requested by a borrower regarding a high cost home loan.

Sec. 5. A high cost home loan may not contain a provision that increases the interest rate after default. However, this section does not apply to interest rate changes in a variable rate loan otherwise consistent with the provisions of the high cost home loan documents if the change in the interest rate is not triggered by the event of default or the acceleration of the indebtedness.

Sec. 6. A high cost home loan may not include terms under which more than two (2) periodic payments required under the high cost home loan are consolidated and paid in advance from the high cost home loan proceeds provided to the borrower.

Sec. 7. A creditor may not make a high cost home loan without first providing the borrower information to facilitate contact with a nonprofit counseling agency certified by:

(1) the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development; or

(2) the department of commerce under IC 4-4-3-8(b)(15); at the same time as the good faith estimates are provided to the borrower in accordance with the requirements of the federal Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (12 U.S.C. 2601 et seq.) as amended.

Sec. 8. (a) A creditor may not make a high cost home loan without regard to repayment ability.

(b) If a creditor presents evidence that the creditor followed commercially reasonable practices in determining the borrower's debt to income ratio, there is a rebuttable presumption that the creditor made the high cost home loan with due regard to repayment ability. For purposes of this section, there is a rebuttable presumption that the borrower's statement of income provided to the creditor is true and complete.

(c) Commercially reasonable practices include the use of:

(1) the debt to income ratio:

(A) listed in 38 CFR 36.4337(c)(1); and

(B) defined in 38 CFR 36.4337(d); and

(2) the residual income guidelines established under:

(A) 38 CFR 36.4337(e); and

(B) United States Department of Veterans Affairs form 26-6393.

Sec. 9. A creditor may not pay a contractor under a home improvement contract from the proceeds of a high cost home loan unless:

(1) the creditor is presented with a signed and dated completion certificate showing that the home improvements have been completed; and

(2) the instrument is payable to the borrower or jointly to the borrower and the contractor or, at the election of the borrower, through a third party escrow agent under a written agreement signed by the borrower, the creditor, and the contractor before the disbursement.

Sec. 10. A creditor may not charge a borrower any fees or other charges to modify, renew, extend, or amend a high cost home loan or to defer a payment due under the terms of a high cost home loan.

Sec. 11. A creditor may not make a high cost home loan unless the creditor has given the following notice, in writing, to the borrower not later than the time that notice is required under 12 CFR 226.31(c):

"NOTICE TO BORROWER

YOU SHOULD BE AWARE THAT YOU MIGHT BE ABLE TO OBTAIN A LOAN AT A LOWER COST. YOU SHOULD COMPARE LOAN RATES, COSTS, AND FEES. MORTGAGE LOAN RATES AND CLOSING COSTS AND FEES VARY BASED ON MANY FACTORS, INCLUDING YOUR PARTICULAR CREDIT AND FINANCIAL CIRCUMSTANCES, YOUR EMPLOYMENT HISTORY, THE LOAN-TO-VALUE REQUESTED, AND THE TYPE OF PROPERTY THAT WILL SECURE YOUR LOAN. THE LOAN RATE, COSTS, AND FEES COULD ALSO VARY BASED ON WHICH CREDITOR OR BROKER YOU SELECT.

IF YOU ACCEPT THE TERMS OF THIS LOAN, THE CREDITOR WILL HAVE A MORTGAGE LIEN ON YOUR HOME. YOU COULD LOSE YOUR HOME AND ANY MONEY YOU HAVE PAID IF YOU DO NOT MEET YOUR PAYMENT OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE LOAN.

YOU SHOULD CONSULT AN ATTORNEY AND A QUALIFIED INDEPENDENT CREDIT COUNSELOR OR OTHER EXPERIENCED FINANCIAL ADVISER REGARDING THE RATE, FEES, AND PROVISIONS OF THIS MORTGAGE LOAN BEFORE YOU PROCEED. A LIST OF QUALIFIED COUNSELORS IS AVAILABLE FROM THE INDIANA DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE. YOU ARE NOT REQUIRED TO COMPLETE THIS LOAN

AGREEMENT MERELY BECAUSE YOU HAVE RECEIVED THIS DISCLOSURE OR HAVE SIGNED A LOAN APPLICATION. REMEMBER, PROPERTY TAXES AND HOMEOWNER'S INSURANCE ARE YOUR RESPONSIBILITY. NOT ALL CREDITORS PROVIDE ESCROW SERVICES FOR THESE PAYMENTS. YOU SHOULD ASK YOUR CREDITOR ABOUT THESE SERVICES.

ALSO, YOUR PAYMENTS ON EXISTING DEBTS CONTRIBUTE TO YOUR CREDIT RATINGS. YOU SHOULD NOT ACCEPT ANY ADVICE TO IGNORE YOUR REGULAR PAYMENTS TO YOUR EXISTING CREDITORS."

Sec. 12. Without regard to whether a borrower is acting individually or on behalf of others similarly situated, a provision of a high cost home loan agreement that:

- (1) requires arbitration of a claim or defense;
- (2) allows a party to require a borrower to assert a claim or defense in a forum that is:

(A) less convenient;

(B) more costly; or

(C) more dilatory;

for the resolution of the dispute than an Indiana court in which the borrower may otherwise bring a claim or defense;
or

- (3) limits in any way any claim or defense the borrower may have;

is unconscionable and void.

Chapter 5. Claims, Defenses, Remedies

Sec. 1. (a) A person who purchases or is otherwise assigned a high cost home loan is subject to all affirmative claims and any defenses with respect to the high cost home loan that the borrower could assert against a creditor or broker of the high cost home loan. However, this section does not apply if the purchaser or assignee demonstrates by a preponderance of the evidence that a reasonable person exercising ordinary due diligence could not determine that the loan was a high cost home loan. A purchaser or an assignee is presumed to have exercised reasonable due diligence if the purchaser or assignee:

(1) has in place at the time of the purchase or assignment of the subject loans, policies that expressly prohibit the purchase or acceptance of the assignment of any high cost home loans;
(2) requires by contract that a seller or an assignor of home loans to the purchaser or assignee represents and warrants to the purchaser or assignee that either:

(A) the seller or assignor will not sell or reassign any high cost home loans to the purchaser or assignee; or

(B) the seller or assignor is a beneficiary of a representation and warranty from a previous seller or assignor to that effect;

(3) exercises reasonable due diligence:

(A) at the time of purchase or assignment of home loans; or

(B) within a reasonable period after the purchase or assignment of home loans; intended by the purchaser or assignee to prevent the purchaser or assignee from purchasing or taking assignment of any high cost home loans; or

(4) satisfies the requirements of subdivisions (1) and (2) and establishes that a reasonable person exercising ordinary due diligence could not determine that the loan was a high cost home loan based on the:

(A) documentation required by the federal Truth in Lending Act (15 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.); and

(B) itemization of the amount financed and other disbursement disclosures.

(b) A borrower acting only in an individual capacity may assert against the creditor or any subsequent holder or assignee of a high cost home loan:

(1) a violation of IC 24-9-4-2 as a defense, claim, or counterclaim, after:

(A) an action to enjoin foreclosure or to preserve or obtain possession of the dwelling that secures the loan is initiated;

(B) an action to collect on the loan or foreclose on the collateral securing the loan is initiated; or

(C) the loan is more than sixty (60) days in default; within three (3) years after the closing of a home loan;

(2) a violation of this article in connection to the high cost home loan as a defense, claim, or counterclaim in an original action within five (5) years after the closing of a high cost home loan; and

(3) any defense, claim, counterclaim, or action to enjoin foreclosure or preserve or obtain possession of the home that secures the loan, including a violation of this article after:

(A) an action to collect on the loan or foreclose on the collateral securing the loan is initiated;

(B) the debt arising from the loan is accelerated; or

(C) the loan is more than sixty (60) days in default;

at any time during the term of a high cost home loan.

(c) In an action, a claim, or a counterclaim brought under subsection (b), the borrower may recover only amounts required to reduce or extinguish the borrower's liability under a home loan plus amounts required to recover costs, including reasonable attorney's fees.

(d) The provisions of this section are effective notwithstanding any other provision of law. This section shall not be construed to limit the substantive rights, remedies, or procedural rights available to a borrower against any creditor, assignee, or holder under any other law. The rights conferred on borrowers by subsections (a) and (b) are independent of each other and do not limit each other.

Sec. 2. (a) If a creditor asserts that grounds for acceleration under the terms of a high cost home loan exist and requires the payment in full of all sums secured by the security instrument, the borrower or a person authorized to act on the borrower's behalf at any time before the title is transferred by means of foreclosure, judicial proceeding and sale, or otherwise may cure the default and reinstate the high cost home loan by tendering the amount or performance as specified in the security instrument.

(b) If the borrower cures the default on a high cost home loan, the original loan terms shall be reinstated, and any acceleration of any obligation under the security instrument or note arising from the default is nullified as of the date of the cure.

Sec. 3. (a) A creditor making a high cost home loan that has the right to foreclose must use the judicial foreclosure procedures of the state in which the property securing the high cost home loan is located. The borrower has the right to assert in the proceeding the nonexistence of a default and any other claim or defense to acceleration and foreclosure, including any claim or defense based on any violations of this article.

(b) This section is not intended and shall not be construed to allow any claim or defense otherwise barred by any statute of limitation or repose.

Sec. 4. (a) A person who violates this article is liable to a person who is a party to the home loan transaction that gave rise to the violation for the following:

(1) Actual damages, including consequential damages. A person is not required to demonstrate reliance in order to receive actual damages.

(2) Statutory damages equal to two (2) times the finance charges agreed to in the home loan agreement.

(3) Costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

(b) A person may be granted injunctive, declaratory, and other equitable relief as the court determines appropriate in an action to enforce compliance with this chapter.

(c) The right of rescission granted under 15 U.S.C. 1601 et seq. for a violation of law is available to a person acting only in an individual capacity by way of recoupment as a defense against a party foreclosing on a home loan at any time during the term of the loan. Any recoupment claim asserted under this provision is limited to the amount required to reduce or extinguish the person's liability under the home loan plus amounts required to recover costs, including reasonable attorney's fees. This article shall not be construed to limit the recoupment rights available to a person under any other law.

(d) The remedies provided in this section are cumulative but are not intended to be the exclusive remedies available to a person. Except as provided in subsection (e), a person is not required to exhaust any administrative remedies under this article or under any other applicable law.

(e) Before bringing an action regarding an alleged deceptive act under this chapter, a person must:

(1) notify the homeowner protection unit established by IC 4-6-12-2 of the alleged violation giving rise to the action; and

(2) allow the homeowner protection unit at least ninety (90) days to institute appropriate administrative and civil action to redress a violation.

(f) An action under this chapter must be brought within five (5) years after the date that the person knew, or by the exercise of reasonable diligence should have known, of the violation of this article.

(g) An award of damages under subsection (a) has priority over a civil penalty imposed under this article.

Sec. 5. (a) If the creditor or an assignee establishes by a preponderance of evidence that a violation of this article is unintentional or the result of a bona fide error of law or fact notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adopted to avoid any such violation or error, the validity of the transaction is not affected, and no liability is imposed under section 4 of this chapter except in the case of a refusal to make a refund.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c), a creditor in a high cost home loan who in good faith fails to comply with this article is not considered to have violated this article if the creditor does the following before receiving notice of the failure from the borrower:

(1) Not later than ninety (90) days after the date of the loan closing:

(A) makes appropriate restitution to the borrower of any amounts collected in error; and

(B) takes necessary action to make all appropriate adjustments to the loan to correct the error.

(2) Not later than one hundred twenty (120) days after the date of the loan closing, notifies the borrower of:

(A) the error; and

(B) the amount of the required restitution or adjustment.

(c) Subsection (b) does not apply unless the creditor establishes that the compliance failure was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error of fact or law, notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adopted to avoid the errors.

Sec. 6. The rights conferred by this article are in addition to rights granted under any other law.

Chapter 6. Reporting Requirements

Sec. 1. (a) A servicer of a high cost home loan shall report at least once each calendar quarter to a nationally recognized consumer credit reporting agency both the favorable and unfavorable payment history information of the borrower on payments due to the creditor on a high cost home loan.

(b) This section does not prohibit a servicer from agreeing with the borrower not to report specified payment history information in the event of a resolved or an unresolved dispute with a borrower and does not apply to high cost home loans held or serviced by a lender for less than ninety (90) days.

Chapter 7. State Power to Regulate Lending

Sec. 1. The state is the sole regulator of the business of originating, granting, servicing, and collecting loans and other forms of credit in Indiana and the manner in which the business is conducted. This regulation preempts all other regulation of these activities by any political subdivision.

Sec. 2. Political subdivisions may not:

(1) enact, issue, or enforce ordinances, resolutions, regulations, orders, requests for proposals, or requests for bids pertaining to financial or lending activities, including ordinances, resolutions, and rules that disqualify persons from doing business with a municipality and that are based upon lending terms or practices; or

(2) impose reporting requirements or any other obligations upon persons regarding financial services or lending practices or upon subsidiaries or affiliates that:

(A) are subject to the jurisdiction of the department of financial institutions;

(B) are subject to the jurisdiction or regulatory supervision of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, the Office of Thrift Supervision, the National Credit Union Administration, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Federal Trade Commission, or the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development;

(C) are chartered by the United States Congress to engage in secondary market mortgage transactions;

(D) are created by the Indiana housing finance authority; or

(E) originate, purchase, sell, assign, securitize, or service property interests or obligations created by financial transactions or loans made, executed, originated, or purchased by persons referred to in clauses (A), (B), (C), or (D).

Chapter 8. Penalties and Enforcement

Sec. 1. A person who knowingly or intentionally violates this article commits:

- (1) a Class A misdemeanor; and
- (2) an act that is actionable by the attorney general under IC 24-5-0.5 and is subject to the penalties listed in IC 24-5-0.5.

Sec. 2. (a) Beginning July 1, 2005, the attorney general and the attorney general's homeowner protection unit established under IC 4-6-12 shall enforce this article for any violation occurring within five (5) years after the making of a home loan.

(b) The attorney general may refer a matter under section 1 of this chapter to a prosecuting attorney for enforcement.

Sec. 3. (a) The attorney general may bring an action to enjoin a violation of this article. A court in which the action is brought may:

- (1) issue an injunction;
- (2) order a person to make restitution;
- (3) order a person to reimburse the state for reasonable costs of the attorney general's investigation and prosecution of the violation of this article; and
- (4) impose a civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) per violation.

(b) A person who violates an injunction under this section is subject to a civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) per violation.

(c) The court that issues an injunction retains jurisdiction over a proceeding seeking the imposition of a civil penalty under this section.

Sec. 4. The attorney general may file complaints with any of the agencies listed in IC 4-6-12-4 to implement this chapter.

Chapter 9. Fees

Sec. 1. The county recorder shall assess a fee of three dollars ($3) under IC 36-2-7-10(b)(11) for each mortgage recorded. The fee shall be paid to the county treasurer at the end of each calendar month as provided in IC 36-2-7-10(a).

Sec. 2. The county auditor shall credit fifty cents ($0.50) of the fee collected under IC 36-2-7-10(b)(11) for each mortgage recorded to the county recorder's records perpetuation fund established under IC 36-2-7-10(c).

Sec. 3. On or before June 20 and December 20 of each year, after completing an audit of the county treasurer's monthly reports required by IC 36-2-10-16, the county auditor shall distribute to the auditor of state two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) of the mortgage recording fee collected under IC 36-2-7-10(b)(11) for each mortgage recorded by the county recorder. The auditor of state shall deposit the money in the state general fund to be distributed as described in section 4 of this chapter.

Sec. 4. On or before June 30 and December 31 of each year the auditor of state shall distribute one dollar and twenty-five cents ($1.25) of the mortgage recording fee to the home ownership education account established by IC 4-4-3-23 and one dollar and twenty-five cents ($1.25) of the mortgage recording fee to the homeowner protection unit account established by IC 4-6-12-9.

SECTION 34. IC 28-1-11-3.2 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004]: Sec. 3.2. (a) As used in this section, "rights and privileges" means the power:

(1) to:

- (1) ~~(1)~~ (A) create;
- (2) ~~(2)~~ (B) deliver;
- (3) ~~(3)~~ (C) acquire; or
- (4) ~~(4)~~ (D) sell;

a product, a service, or an investment that is available to or offered by; or

(2) to engage in other activities authorized for;

national banks domiciled in Indiana.

(b) A bank that intends to exercise any rights and privileges that are:

- (1) granted to national banks; but
- (2) not authorized for banks under the Indiana Code (except for this section) or any rule adopted under the Indiana Code; shall submit a letter to the department describing in detail the requested rights and privileges granted to national banks that the bank intends to exercise. If available, copies of relevant federal law, regulations, and interpretive letters must be attached to the letter submitted by the bank.

(c) The department shall promptly notify the requesting bank of the department's receipt of the letter submitted under subsection (b). Except as provided in subsection (e), the bank may exercise the requested rights and privileges sixty (60) days after the date on which the department receives the letter unless otherwise notified by the department.

(d) The department, through its members, may prohibit the bank from exercising the requested rights and privileges only if the members find that:

(1) national banks domiciled in Indiana do not possess the requested rights and privileges; or

(2) the exercise of the requested rights and privileges by the bank would adversely affect the safety and soundness of the bank.

(e) The sixty (60) day period referred to in subsection (c) may be extended by the department based on a determination that the bank's letter raised issues requiring additional information or additional time for analysis. If the sixty (60) day period is extended under this subsection, the bank may exercise the requested rights and privileges only if the bank receives prior written approval from the department. However:

(1) the members must:

(A) approve or deny the requested rights and privileges; or

(B) convene a hearing;

(2) if a hearing is convened, the members must approve or deny the requested rights and privileges not later than sixty (60) days after the hearing is concluded.

(f) The exercise of rights and privileges by a bank in compliance with and in the manner authorized by this section is not a violation of any provision of the Indiana Code or rules adopted under IC 4-22-2.

(g) Whenever, in compliance with this section, a bank exercises rights and privileges granted to national banks domiciled in Indiana, all banks may exercise the same rights and privileges if the department by order determines that the exercise of the rights and privileges by all banks would not adversely affect their safety and soundness.

(h) If the department denies the request of a bank under this section to exercise any rights and privileges that are granted to national banks, the bank may appeal the decision of the department to the circuit court with jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the bank is located. In an appeal under this section, the court shall determine the matter de novo.

SECTION 35. IC 28-1-20-4, AS AMENDED BY P.L.258-2003, SECTION 6, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 4. (a) Except as provided in subsections (c), (d), (g), and (k), it is unlawful for any person, firm, limited liability company, or corporation (other than a bank or trust company, a bank holding company, a subsidiary of a bank or trust company, a subsidiary of a bank holding company, a subsidiary of a savings bank, a subsidiary of a savings association, or a corporate fiduciary organized or reorganized under IC 28 or statutes in effect at the time of organization or reorganization or under the laws of the United States):

- (1) to use the word "bank", "banc", or "banco" as a part of the name or title of the person, firm, or corporation; or
- (2) to advertise or represent the person, firm, limited liability company, or corporation to the public:
 - (A) as a bank or trust company or a corporate fiduciary; or
 - (B) as affording the services or performing the duties which by law only a bank or trust company or a corporate fiduciary is entitled to afford and perform.

(b) A financial institution organized under the laws of any state or the United States that establishes a branch office under this title is authorized to do business at that branch using a name other than the name of its home office.

(c) Notwithstanding the prohibitions of this section, an out-of-state financial institution with the word "bank" in its legal name may use the word "bank" if the financial institution is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or its successor.

(d) Notwithstanding subsection (a), a building and loan association organized under IC 28-4 (before its repeal) may include in its name or title:

- (1) the words "savings bank"; or
- (2) the word "bank" if the name or title also includes either the words "savings bank" or letters "SB".

A building and loan association that includes "savings bank" in its title under this section does not by that action become a savings bank for purposes of IC 28-6.1.

(e) The name or title of a savings bank governed by IC 28-6.1 must include the words "savings bank" or the letters "SB".

(f) A savings association may include in its name the words "building and loan association".

(g) Notwithstanding subsection (a), a bank holding company (as defined in 12 U.S.C. 1841) may use the word "bank" or "banks" as a part of its name. However, this subsection does not permit a bank holding company to advertise or represent itself to the public as affording the services or performing the duties that by law a bank or trust company only is entitled to afford and perform.

(h) The department is authorized to investigate the business affairs of any person, firm, limited liability company, or corporation that uses "bank", "banc", or "banco" in its title or holds itself out as a bank, corporate fiduciary, or trust company for the purpose of determining whether the person, firm, limited liability company, or corporation is violating any of the provisions of this article, and, for that purpose, the department and its agents shall have access to any and all of the books, records, papers, and effects of the person, firm, limited liability company, or corporation. In making its examination, the department may examine any person and the partners, officers, members, or agents of the firm, limited liability company, or corporation under oath, subpoena witnesses, and require the production of the books, records, papers, and effects considered necessary. On application of the department, the circuit or superior court of the county in which the person, firm, limited liability company, or corporation maintains a place of business shall, by proper proceedings, enforce the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production and examination of books, papers, records, and effects.

(i) The department is authorized to exercise the powers under IC 28-11-4 against a person, firm, limited liability company, or corporation that improperly holds itself out as a financial institution.

(j) A person, firm, limited liability company, or corporation who violates this section is subject to a penalty of five hundred dollars ($500) per day for each and every day during which the violation continues. The penalty imposed shall be recovered in the name of the state on relation of the department and, when recovered, shall be paid into the financial institutions fund established by IC 28-11-2-9.

(k) The word "bank", "banc", or "banco" may not be included in the name of a corporate fiduciary.

(l) A person, firm, limited liability company, or corporation may not use the name of an existing bank or bank holding company or a name confusingly similar to that of an existing bank or bank holding company when marketing to or soliciting business from a customer or prospective customer if the reference to the existing bank or bank holding company is:

- (1) without the consent of the existing bank or bank holding company; and
- (2) in a manner that could cause a reasonable person to believe that the marketing material or solicitation:
 - (A) originated from;
 - (B) is endorsed by; or
 - (C) is in any other way the responsibility of;

the existing bank or bank holding company.

(m) An existing bank or bank holding company may, in addition to any other remedies available under the law, report an alleged violation of subsection (l) to the department. If the department finds that the marketing material or solicitation in question is in violation of subsection (l), the department may direct the person, firm, limited liability company, or corporation to cease and desist from using that marketing material or solicitation in Indiana. If that person, firm, limited liability company, or corporation persists in using the marketing material or solicitation, the department may impose a civil penalty of up to fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) for each violation. Each instance in which the marketing material or solicitation is sent to a customer or prospective customer constitutes a separate violation of subsection (l).

(n) Nothing in subsection (l) or (m) prohibits the use of or reference to the name of an existing bank or bank holding company in marketing materials or solicitations, if the use or reference does not deceive or confuse a reasonable person regarding whether the marketing material or solicitation:

- (1) originated from;
- (2) is endorsed by; or
- (3) is in any other way the responsibility of;

the existing bank or bank holding company.

(o) The department may adopt rules under IC 4-22-2 to implement this section.

(d) The department, through its members, may prohibit the credit union from exercising the requested rights and privileges only if the members find that:

(g) Whenever, in compliance with this section, a credit union exercises rights and privileges granted to federal credit unions domiciled in Indiana, all credit unions may exercise the same rights and privileges if the department by order determines that the exercise of the rights and privileges by all credit unions would not adversely affect their safety and soundness.

(h) If the department denies the request of a credit union under this section to exercise any rights and privileges that are granted to federal credit unions, the credit union may appeal the decision of the department to the circuit court with jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the credit union is located. SECTION 40. IC 28-10-1-1, AS AMENDED BY P.L.258-2003, SECTION 18, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 2004 (RETROACTIVE)]: Sec. 1. A reference to a federal law or federal regulation in IC 28 is a reference to the law or regulation in effect January 1, ~~2003~~: 2004.

SECTION 41. IC 28-11-3-6 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004]: Sec. 6. (a) As used in this section:

(1) "federally chartered" means an entity organized or reorganized under the law of the United States; and

(2) "state chartered" means an entity organized or reorganized under the law of Indiana or another state.

(b) If the department determines that federal law has preempted a provision of IC 24, IC 26, IC 28, IC 29, or IC 30, the provision of IC 24, IC 26, IC 28, IC 29, or IC 30 applies to a state chartered entity only to the same extent that the department determines the provision is applicable to the:

(1) same; or

(2) functionally equivalent;
type of federally chartered entity.

(c) A state chartered entity seeking an exemption from a provision of IC 24, IC 26, IC 28, IC 29, or IC 30 based on the preemption of the provision as applied to a federally chartered entity shall submit a letter to the department:

(1) describing in detail; and

(2) documenting the federal preemption of;
the provisions from which it seeks exemption. If available, copies of relevant federal law, regulations, and interpretive letters must be attached to the letter submitted by the requesting entity.

(d) The department shall notify the requesting entity within ten (10) business days after the department's receipt of a letter described in subsection (c). Except as provided in subsection (e), upon receipt of the notification, the requesting entity may operate as if it is exempt from the provision of IC 24, IC 26, IC 28, IC 29, or IC 30 for ninety (90) days after the date on which the department receives the letter, unless otherwise notified by the department. This period may be extended if the department determines that the requesting entity's letter raises issues requiring additional information or additional time for analysis. If the department extends the period, the requesting entity may operate as if the requesting entity is exempt from a provision of IC 24, IC 26, IC 28, IC 29, or IC 30 only if the requesting entity receives prior written approval from the department. However:

(1) the department must:

(A) approve or deny the requested exemption; or

(B) convene a hearing;

(A) same; or

(B) functionally equivalent;

type.

(2) The extension of the federal preemption in the form of an exemption from a provision of IC 24, IC 26, IC 28, IC 29, or IC 30 to the requesting entity would:

(A) adversely affect the safety and soundness of the requesting entity; or

(B) result in an unacceptable curtailment of consumer protection provisions.

(3) The failure of the department to provide for the exemption from a provision of IC 24, IC 26, IC 28, IC 29, or IC 30 will not result in a competitive disadvantage to the requesting entity.

(f) The operation of a financial institution in a manner consistent with exemption from a provision of IC 24, IC 26, IC 28, IC 29, or IC 30 under this section is not a violation of any provision of the Indiana Code or rules adopted under IC 4-22-2.

(g) If a financial institution is exempted from the provisions of IC 24, IC 26, IC 28, IC 29, or IC 30 in compliance with this section, the department shall do the following:

(1) Determine whether the exemption shall apply to all financial institutions that, in the opinion of the department, possess a charter that is:

(A) the same as; or

(B) functionally the equivalent of;

the charter of the exempt institution.

(2) For purposes of the determination required under subdivision (1), ensure that applying the exemption to the financial institutions described in subdivision (1) will not:

(A) adversely affect the safety and soundness of the financial institutions; or

(B) unduly constrain Indiana consumer protection provisions.

(3) Issue an order published in the Indiana Register that specifies whether the exemption applies to the financial institutions described in subdivision (1).

(h) If the department denies the request of a financial institution under this section for exemption from Indiana Code provisions that are preempted for federally chartered institutions, the requesting institution may appeal the decision of the department to the circuit court of the county in which the principal office of the requesting institution is located.

~~(53)~~ (52) any statute enacted after December 31, 2003, that:

(A) establishes a maximum rate for any part of the:

- (i) property taxes; or
- (ii) special benefits taxes;

imposed by a political subdivision; and

(B) does not exempt the maximum rate from the adjustment under this section.

(e) The new maximum rate under a statute listed in subsection (d) is the tax rate determined under STEP SEVEN of the following STEPS:

STEP ONE: Determine the maximum rate for the political subdivision levying a property tax or special benefits tax under the statute for the year preceding the year in which the annual adjustment or general reassessment takes effect.

STEP TWO: Determine the actual percentage increase (rounded to the nearest one-hundredth percent (0.01%)) in the assessed value (before the adjustment, if any, under IC 6-1.1-4-4.5) of the taxable property from the year preceding the year the annual adjustment or general reassessment takes effect to the year that the annual adjustment or general reassessment takes effect.

STEP THREE: Determine the three (3) calendar years that immediately precede the ensuing calendar year and in which a statewide general reassessment of real property does not first take effect.

STEP FOUR: Compute separately, for each of the calendar years determined in STEP THREE, the actual percentage increase (rounded to the nearest one-hundredth percent (0.01%)) in the assessed value (before the adjustment, if any, under IC 6-1.1-4-4.5) of the taxable property from the preceding year.

STEP FIVE: Divide the sum of the three (3) quotients computed in STEP FOUR by three (3).

STEP SIX: Determine the greater of the following:

STEP SEVEN: Determine the quotient of the STEP ONE tax rate divided by the sum of one (1) plus the STEP SIX percentage increase.

(f) The department of local government finance shall compute the maximum rate allowed under subsection (e) and provide the rate to each political subdivision with authority to levy a tax under a statute listed in subsection (d).

SECTION 2. IC 6-1.1-18.5-10 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 2004 (RETROACTIVE)]:
Sec. 10. (a) The ad valorem property tax levy limits imposed by section 3 of this chapter do not apply to ad valorem property taxes imposed by a civil taxing unit to be used to fund:

(1) community mental health centers under: ~~IC 12-29-2-1~~

(A) IC 12-29-2-1.2, for only those civil taxing units that authorized financial assistance under IC 12-29-1 before 2002 for a community mental health center as long as the tax levy under this section does not exceed the levy authorized in 2002;

(B) IC 12-29-2-2 through ~~IC 12-29-2-6~~ IC 12-29-2-5; and

(C) IC 12-29-2-13; or

(2) community mental retardation and other developmental disabilities centers under IC 12-29-1-1;

to the extent that those property taxes are attributable to any increase in the assessed value of the civil taxing unit's taxable property caused by a general reassessment of real property that took effect after February 28, 1979.

(b) For purposes of computing the ad valorem property tax levy limits imposed on a civil taxing unit by section 3 of this chapter, the civil taxing unit's ad valorem property tax levy for a particular calendar year does not include that part of the levy described in subsection (a).

SECTION 3. IC 12-15-13-3 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004]: Sec. 3. (a) If the office of the secretary believes that an overpayment to a provider has occurred, the office of the secretary may do the following:

- (1) Notify the provider in writing that the office of the secretary believes that an overpayment has occurred.
- (2) Request in the notice that the provider repay the amount of the alleged overpayment, including interest from the date of overpayment.

(b) ~~Except as provided in subsection (c);~~ A provider who receives a notice and request for repayment under subsection (a) may elect to do one (1) of the following:

- (1) Repay the amount of the overpayment not later than sixty (60) days after receiving notice from the office of the secretary, including interest from the date of overpayment.
- (2) Request a hearing and repay the amount of the alleged overpayment not later than sixty (60) days after receiving notice from the office of the secretary.
- (3) Request a hearing not later than sixty (60) days after receiving notice from the office of the secretary and not repay the alleged overpayment, except as provided in subsection (d).

(c) If:

- (1) a provider elects to proceed under subsection (b)(2); and
- (2) the office of the secretary determines after the hearing and any subsequent appeal that the provider does not owe the money that the office of the secretary believed the provider owed;

the office of the secretary shall return the amount of the alleged overpayment and interest paid and pay the provider interest on the money from the date of the provider's repayment.

(d) If:

- (1) a provider elects to proceed under subsection (b)(3); and
- (2) the office of the secretary determines after the hearing and any subsequent appeal that the provider owes the money;

the provider shall pay the amount of the overpayment, including interest from the date of the overpayment.

~~(e) A hospital licensed under IC 16-21 that receives a notice and request for repayment under subsection (a) has one hundred eighty (180) days to elect one (1) of the actions under subsection (b)(1); (b)(2); or (b)(3):~~

~~(f) (e)~~ Interest that is due under this section shall be paid at a rate that is determined by the commissioner of the department of state revenue under IC 6-8.1-10-1(c) as follows:

(2) Interest due from the state to a provider shall be paid at the rate set by the commissioner for interest payments from the department of state revenue to a taxpayer.

~~(g)~~ (f) Proceedings under this section are subject to IC 4-21.5.

SECTION 4. IC 12-15-15-1.6 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2003 (RETROACTIVE)]: Sec. 1.6. (a) This section applies only if the office determines, based on information received from the federal Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, that payments made under section 1.5(b) STEP FIVE (A), (B), or (C) of this chapter will not be approved for federal financial participation.

(b) If the office determines that payments made under section 1.5(b) STEP FIVE (A) of this chapter will not be approved for federal financial participation, the office may make alternative payments to payments under section 1.5(b) STEP FIVE (A) of this chapter if:

(1) the payments for a state fiscal year are made only to a hospital that would have been eligible for a payment for that state fiscal year under section 1.5(b) STEP FIVE (A) of this chapter; and

(2) the payments for a state fiscal year to each hospital are an amount that is as equal as possible to the amount each hospital would have received under section 1.5(b) STEP FIVE (A) of this chapter for that state fiscal year.

(c) If the office determines that payments made under section 1.5(b) STEP FIVE (B) of this chapter will not be approved for federal financial participation, the office may make alternative payments to payments under section 1.5(b) STEP FIVE (B) of this chapter if:

(1) the payments for a state fiscal year are made only to a hospital that would have been eligible for a payment for that state fiscal year under section 1.5(b) STEP FIVE (B) of this chapter; and

(2) the payments for a state fiscal year to each hospital are an amount that is as equal as possible to the amount each hospital would have received under section 1.5(b) STEP FIVE (B) of this chapter for that state fiscal year.

(d) If the office determines that payments made under section 1.5(b) STEP FIVE (C) of this chapter will not be approved for federal financial participation, the office may make alternative payments to payments under section 1.5(b) STEP FIVE (C) of this chapter if:

(1) the payments for a state fiscal year are made only to a hospital that would have been eligible for a payment for that state fiscal year under section 1.5(b) STEP FIVE (C) of this chapter; and

(2) the payments for a state fiscal year to each hospital are an amount that is as equal as possible to the amount each hospital would have received under section 1.5(b) STEP FIVE (C) of this chapter for that state fiscal year.

(e) If the office determines, based on information received from the federal Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, that payments made under subsection (b), (c), or (d) will not be approved for federal financial participation, the office shall use the funds that would have served as the nonfederal share of these payments for a state fiscal year to serve as the nonfederal share of a payment program for hospitals to be established by the office. The payment program must distribute payments to hospitals for a state fiscal year based upon a methodology determined by the office to be equitable under the circumstances.

SECTION 5. IC 12-15-15-9, AS AMENDED BY P.L.255-2003, SECTION 19, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2003 (RETROACTIVE)]: Sec. 9. (a) For purposes of this section and IC 12-16-7.5-4.5, a payable claim is attributed to a county if the payable claim is submitted to the division by a hospital licensed under IC 16-21-2 for payment under IC 12-16-7.5 for care provided by the hospital to an individual who qualifies for the hospital care for the indigent program under IC 12-16-3.5-1 or IC 12-16-3.5-2 and:

(1) who is a resident of the county;

(2) who is not a resident of the county and for whom the onset of the medical condition that necessitated the care occurred in the county; or

(3) whose residence cannot be determined by the division and for whom the onset of the medical condition that necessitated the care occurred in the county.

(b) For each state fiscal year ending after June 30, 2003, a hospital licensed under IC 16-21-2 that submits to the division during the state fiscal year a payable claim under IC 12-16-7.5 is entitled to a payment under this section.

(c) ~~For a state fiscal year,~~ Except as provided in section 9.8 of this chapter and subject to section 9.6 of this chapter, for a state fiscal year, the office shall pay to a hospital referred to in subsection (b) an amount equal to the amount, based on information obtained from the division and the calculations and allocations made under IC 12-16-7.5-4.5, that the office determines for the hospital under STEP SIX of the following STEPS:

STEP ONE: Identify:

(A) each hospital that submitted to the division one (1) or more payable claims under IC 12-16-7.5 during the state fiscal year; and

(B) the county to which each payable claim is attributed.

STEP TWO: For each county identified in STEP ONE, identify:

(A) each hospital that submitted to the division one (1) or more payable claims under IC 12-16-7.5 attributed to the county during the state fiscal year; and

(B) the total amount of all hospital payable claims submitted to the division under IC 12-16-7.5 attributed to the county during the state fiscal year.

STEP THREE: For each county identified in STEP ONE, identify the amount of county funds transferred to the Medicaid indigent care trust fund under STEP FOUR of IC 12-16-7.5-4.5(b).

STEP FOUR: For each hospital identified in STEP ONE, with respect to each county identified in STEP ONE, calculate the hospital's percentage share of the county's funds transferred to the Medicaid indigent care trust fund under STEP FOUR of IC 12-16-7.5-4.5(b). Each hospital's percentage share is based on the total amount of the hospital's payable claims submitted to the division under IC 12-16-7.5 attributed to the county during the state fiscal year, calculated as a percentage of the total amount of all hospital payable claims submitted to the division under IC 12-16-7.5 attributed to the county during the state fiscal year. STEP FIVE: Subject to subsection (j), for each hospital identified in STEP ONE, with respect to each county identified in STEP ONE, multiply the hospital's percentage share calculated under STEP FOUR by the amount of the county's funds transferred to the Medicaid indigent care trust fund under STEP FOUR of IC 12-16-7.5-4.5(b).

STEP SIX: Determine the sum of all amounts calculated under STEP FIVE for each hospital identified in STEP ONE with respect to each county identified in STEP ONE.

(d) A hospital's payment under subsection (c) is in the form of a Medicaid add-on payment. The amount of a hospital's add-on payment is subject to the availability of funding for the non-federal share of the payment under subsection (e). The office shall make the payments under subsection (c) before December 15 that next succeeds the end of the state fiscal year.

(e) The non-federal share of a payment to a hospital under subsection (c) is funded from the funds transferred to the Medicaid indigent care trust fund under STEP FOUR of IC 12-16-7.5-4.5(b) of each county to which a payable claim under IC 12-16-7.5 submitted to the division during the state fiscal year by the hospital is attributed.

(f) The amount of a county's transferred funds available to be used to fund the non-federal share of a payment to a hospital under subsection (c) is an amount that bears the same proportion to the total amount of funds of the county transferred to the Medicaid indigent care trust fund under STEP FOUR of IC 12-16-7.5-4.5(b) that the total amount of the hospital's payable claims under IC 12-16-7.5 attributed to the county submitted to the division during the state fiscal year bears to the total amount of all hospital payable claims under IC 12-16-7.5 attributed to the county submitted to the division during the state fiscal year.

(g) Any county's funds identified in subsection (f) that remain after the non-federal share of a hospital's payment has been funded are available to serve as the non-federal share of a payment to a hospital under section 9.5 of this chapter.

(h) For purposes of this section, "payable claim" has the meaning set forth in IC 12-16-7.5-2.5(b)(1).

(i) For purposes of this section:

(1) the amount of a payable claim is an amount equal to the amount the hospital would have received under the state's fee-for-service Medicaid reimbursement principles for the hospital care for which the payable claim is submitted under IC 12-16-7.5 if the individual receiving the hospital care had been a Medicaid enrollee; and

(2) a payable hospital claim under IC 12-16-7.5 includes a payable claim under IC 12-16-7.5 for the hospital's care submitted by an individual or entity other than the hospital, to the extent permitted under the hospital care for the indigent program.

(j) The amount calculated under STEP FIVE of subsection (c) for a hospital with respect to a county may not exceed the total amount of the hospital's payable claims attributed to the county during the state fiscal year.

SECTION 6. IC 12-15-15-9.5, AS ADDED BY P.L.255-2003, SECTION 20, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2003 (RETROACTIVE)]: Sec. 9.5. (a) For purposes of this section and IC 12-16-7.5-4.5, a payable claim is attributed to a county if the payable claim is submitted to the division by a hospital licensed under IC 16-21-2 for payment under IC 12-16-7.5 for care provided by the hospital to an individual who qualifies for the hospital care for the indigent program under IC 12-16-3.5-1 or IC 12-16-3.5-2 and;

(1) who is a resident of the county;

(2) who is not a resident of the county and for whom the onset of the medical condition that necessitated the care occurred in the county; or

(3) whose residence cannot be determined by the division and for whom the onset of the medical condition that necessitated the care occurred in the county.

(b) For each state fiscal year ending after June 30, 2003, a hospital licensed under IC 16-21-2:

(1) that submits to the division during the state fiscal year a payable claim under IC 12-16-7.5; and is entitled to a payment under this section.

(c) For a state fiscal year, Except as provided in section 9.8 of this chapter and subject to section 9.6 of this chapter, for a state fiscal year, the office shall pay to a hospital referred to in subsection (b) an amount equal to the amount, based on information obtained from the division and the calculations and allocations made under IC 12-16-7.5-4.5, that the office determines for the hospital under STEP EIGHT of the following STEPS:

STEP ONE: Identify each county whose transfer of funds to the Medicaid indigent care trust fund under STEP FOUR of IC 12-16-7.5-4.5(b) for the state fiscal year was less than the total amount of all hospital payable claims attributed to the county and submitted to the division during the state fiscal year.

STEP TWO: For each county identified in STEP ONE, calculate the difference between the amount of funds of the county transferred to the Medicaid indigent care trust fund under STEP FOUR of IC 12-16-7.5-4.5(b) and the total amount of all hospital payable claims attributed to the county and submitted to the division during the state fiscal year.

STEP THREE: Calculate the sum of the amounts calculated for the counties under STEP TWO.

STEP FOUR: Identify each hospital whose payment under section 9(c) of this chapter was less than the total amount of the hospital's payable claims under IC 12-16-7.5 submitted by the hospital to the division during the state fiscal year.

STEP FIVE: Calculate for each hospital identified in STEP FOUR the difference between the hospital's payment under section 9(c) of this chapter and the total amount of the hospital's payable claims under IC 12-16-7.5 submitted by the hospital to the division during the state fiscal year.

STEP SIX: Calculate the sum of the amounts calculated for each of the hospitals under STEP FIVE.

STEP SEVEN: For each hospital identified in STEP FOUR, calculate the hospital's percentage share of the amount calculated under STEP SIX. Each hospital's percentage share is based on the amount calculated for the hospital under STEP FIVE calculated as a percentage of the sum calculated under STEP SIX.

STEP EIGHT: For each hospital identified in STEP FOUR, multiply the hospital's percentage share calculated under STEP SEVEN by the sum calculated under STEP THREE. The amount calculated under this STEP for a hospital may not exceed the amount by which the hospital's total payable claims under IC 12-16-7.5 submitted during the state fiscal year exceeded the amount of the hospital's payment under section 9(c) of this chapter.

(d) A hospital's payment under subsection (c) is in the form of a Medicaid add-on payment. The amount of the hospital's add-on payment is subject to the availability of funding for the non-federal share of the payment under subsection (e). The office shall make the payments under subsection (c) before December 15 that next succeeds the end of the state fiscal year.

(e) The non-federal share of a payment to a hospital under subsection (c) is derived from funds transferred to the Medicaid indigent care trust fund under STEP FOUR of IC 12-16-7.5-4.5(b) and not expended under section 9 of this chapter. To the extent possible, the funds shall be derived on a proportional basis from the funds transferred by each county identified in subsection (c), STEP ONE:

(1) to which at least one (1) payable claim submitted by the hospital to the division during the state fiscal year is attributed; and

(2) whose funds transferred to the Medicaid indigent care trust fund under STEP FOUR of IC 12-16-7.5-4.5(b) were not completely expended under section 9 of this chapter.

The amount available to be derived from the remaining funds transferred to the Medicaid indigent care trust fund under STEP FOUR of IC 12-16-7.5-4.5(b) to serve as the non-federal share of the payment to a hospital under subsection (c) is an amount that bears the same proportion to the total amount of funds transferred by all the counties identified in subsection (c), STEP ONE, that the amount calculated for the hospital under subsection (c), STEP FIVE, bears to the amount calculated under subsection (c), STEP SIX.

(f) Except as provided in subsection (g), the office may not make a payment under this section until the payments due under section 9 of this chapter for the state fiscal year have been made.

(g) If a hospital appeals a decision by the office regarding the hospital's payment under section 9 of this chapter, the office may make payments under this section before all payments due under section 9 of this chapter are made if:

- (1) a delay in one (1) or more payments under section 9 of this chapter resulted from the appeal; and
- (2) the office determines that making payments under this section while the appeal is pending will not unreasonably affect the interests of hospitals eligible for a payment under this section.

(h) Any funds transferred to the Medicaid indigent care trust fund under STEP FOUR of IC 12-16-7.5-4.5(b) remaining after payments are made under this section shall be used as provided in IC 12-15-20-2(8)(D).

(i) For purposes of this section:

- (1) "payable claim" has the meaning set forth in IC 12-16-7.5-2.5(b);
- (2) the amount of a payable claim is an amount equal to the amount the hospital would have received under the state's fee-for-service Medicaid reimbursement principles for the hospital care for which the payable claim is submitted under IC 12-16-7.5 if the individual receiving the hospital care had been a Medicaid enrollee; and
- (3) a payable hospital claim under IC 12-16-7.5 includes a payable claim under IC 12-16-7.5 for the hospital's care submitted by an individual or entity other than the hospital, to the extent permitted under the hospital care for the indigent program.

SECTION 7. IC 12-15-15-9.8 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2003 (RETROACTIVE)]: Sec. 9.8. (a) This section applies only if the office determines, based on information received from the United States Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, that a state Medicaid plan amendment implementing the payment methodology in:

- (1) section 9(c) of this chapter; or
- (2) section 9.5(c) of this chapter;

will not be approved by the United States Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services.

(b) The office may amend the state Medicaid plan to implement an alternative payment methodology to the payment methodology under section 9 of this chapter. The alternative payment methodology must provide each hospital that would have received a payment under section 9(c) of this chapter during a state fiscal year with an amount for the state fiscal year that is as equal as possible to the amount each hospital would have received under the payment methodology under section 9(c) of this chapter. A payment methodology implemented under this subsection is in place of the payment methodology under section 9(c) of this chapter.

(c) The office may amend the state Medicaid plan to implement an alternative payment methodology to the payment methodology under section 9.5 of this chapter. The alternative payment methodology must provide each hospital that would have received a payment under section 9.5(c) of this chapter during a state fiscal year with an amount for the state fiscal year that is as equal as possible to the amount each hospital would have received under the payment methodology under section 9.5(c) of this chapter. A payment methodology implemented under this subsection is in place of the payment methodology under section 9.5(c) of this chapter.

SECTION 8. IC 12-15-16-1, AS AMENDED BY P.L.113-2000, SECTION 5, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2003 (RETROACTIVE)]: Sec. 1. (a) A provider that is an acute care hospital licensed under IC 16-21, a state mental health institution under IC 12-24-1-3, or a private psychiatric institution licensed under IC 12-25 is a disproportionate share provider if the provider meets either of the following conditions:

(1) The provider's Medicaid inpatient utilization rate is at least one (1) standard deviation above the mean Medicaid inpatient utilization rate for providers receiving Medicaid payments in Indiana. However, the Medicaid inpatient utilization rate of providers whose low income utilization rate exceeds twenty-five percent (25%) must be excluded in calculating the statewide mean Medicaid inpatient utilization rate.

(2) The provider's low income utilization rate exceeds twenty-five percent (25%).

(b) An acute care hospital licensed under 16-21 is a municipal disproportionate share provider if the hospital:

(1) has a Medicaid utilization rate greater than one percent (1%);

and

(2) is established and operated under IC 16-22-2 or IC 16-23.

(c) A community mental health center that:

(B) IC 12-29-2-20(c) after December 31, 2003; or from other county sources; and

(3) provides inpatient services to Medicaid patients; is a community mental health center disproportionate share provider if the community mental health center's Medicaid inpatient utilization rate is greater than one percent (1%).

(d) A disproportionate share provider under IC 12-15-17 must have at least two (2) obstetricians who have staff privileges and who have agreed to provide obstetric services under the Medicaid program. For a hospital located in a rural area (as defined in Section 1886 of the Social Security Act), an obstetrician includes a physician with staff privileges at the hospital who has agreed to perform nonemergency obstetric procedures. However, this obstetric service requirement does not apply to a provider whose inpatients are predominantly individuals less than eighteen (18) years of age or that did not offer nonemergency obstetric services as of December 21, 1987.

(e) The determination of a provider's status as a disproportionate share provider under this section shall be based on utilization and revenue data from the most recent year for which an audited cost report from the provider is on file with the office.

SECTION 9. IC 12-15-18-5.1, AS AMENDED BY P.L.66-2002, SECTION 8, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2003 (RETROACTIVE)]: Sec. 5.1. - (2) both individually and in the aggregate do not exceed limits prescribed by the federal Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services.

The trustees and a municipal health and hospital corporation are not required to make intergovernmental transfers under this section. SECTION 16. IC 12-29-2-2, AS AMENDED BY P.L.1-2004, SECTION 54, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 2004 (RETROACTIVE)]: Sec. 2. (a) ~~Subject to subsections (b), (c), and (d),~~ A county shall fund the operation of community mental health centers in ~~an~~ the amount ~~not less than the amount that would be raised by an annual tax rate of one and thirty-three hundredths cents ($0.0133) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of taxable property within the county,~~ determined under subsection (b), unless a lower tax rate ~~levy amount~~ will be adequate to fulfill the county's financial obligations under this chapter in any of the following situations:

- (1) If the total population of the county is served by one (1) center.
- (2) If the total population of the county is served by more than one (1) center.
- (3) If the partial population of the county is served by one (1) center.
- (4) If the partial population of the county is served by more than one (1) center.

~~(b) This subsection applies only to a property tax that is imposed in a county containing a consolidated city. The tax rate permitted under subsection (a) for taxes first due and payable after 1995 is the tax rate~~ permitted under subsection (a) as adjusted under this subsection. For each year in which an annual adjustment of the assessed value of real property will take effect under IC 6-1.1-4-4.5 or a general reassessment of property will take effect, the department of local government finance shall compute the maximum rate permitted under subsection (a) as follows:

STEP ONE: Determine the maximum rate for the year preceding the year in which the annual adjustment or general reassessment takes effect.

STEP TWO: Determine the actual percentage increase (rounded to the nearest one-hundredth percent (0.01%)) in the assessed value (before the adjustment, if any, under IC 6-1.1-4-4.5) of the taxable property from the year preceding the year the annual adjustment or general reassessment takes effect to the year that the annual adjustment or general reassessment is effective.

STEP THREE: Determine the three (3) calendar years that immediately precede the ensuing calendar year and in which a statewide general reassessment of real property does not first become effective.

STEP FOUR: Compute separately, for each of the calendar years determined in STEP THREE, the actual percentage increase (rounded to the nearest one-hundredth percent (0.01%)) in the assessed value (before the adjustment, if any, under IC 6-1.1-4-4.5) of the taxable property from the preceding year.

STEP FIVE: Divide the sum of the three (3) quotients computed in STEP FOUR by three (3).

STEP SIX: Determine the greater of the following:

(A) Zero (0).

(B) The result of the STEP TWO percentage minus the STEP FIVE percentage.

STEP SEVEN: Determine the quotient of:

(A) the STEP ONE tax rate; divided by

(B) one (1) plus the STEP SIX percentage increase.

This maximum rate is the maximum rate under this section until a new maximum rate is computed under this subsection for the next year in which an annual adjustment under IC 6-1.1-4-4.5 or a general reassessment of property will take effect.

(c) With respect to a county to which subsection (b) does not apply; the maximum tax rate permitted under subsection (a) for taxes first due and payable in calendar year 2004 and calendar year 2005 is the maximum tax rate that would have been determined under subsection (d) for taxes first due and payable in 2003 if subsection (d) had applied to the county for taxes first due and payable in 2003:

(d) This subsection applies only to a county to which subsection (b) does not apply. The tax rate permitted under subsection (a) for taxes first due and payable after calendar year 2005 is the tax rate permitted under subsection (c) as adjusted under this subsection. For each year in which an annual adjustment of the assessed value of real property will take effect under IC 6-1.1-4-4.5 or a general reassessment of property will take effect, the department of local government finance shall compute the maximum rate permitted under subsection (a) as follows:

STEP ONE: Determine the maximum rate for the year preceding the year in which the annual adjustment or general reassessment takes effect:

STEP TWO: Determine the actual percentage increase (rounded to the nearest one-hundredth percent (0.01%)) in the assessed value (before the adjustment, if any, under IC 6-1.1-4-4.5) of the taxable property from the year preceding the year the annual adjustment or general reassessment takes effect to the year that the annual adjustment or general reassessment is effective:

STEP THREE: Determine the three (3) calendar years that immediately precede the ensuing calendar year and in which a statewide general reassessment of real property does not first become effective:

STEP FOUR: Compute separately, for each of the calendar years determined under STEP THREE, the actual percentage increase (rounded to the nearest one-hundredth percent (0.01%)) in the assessed value (before the adjustment, if any, under IC 6-1.1-4-4.5) of the taxable property from the preceding year:

STEP FIVE: Divide the sum of the three (3) quotients computed under STEP FOUR by three (3):

STEP SIX: Determine the greater of the following:

(A) Zero (0):

(B) The result of the STEP TWO percentage minus the STEP FIVE percentage:

STEP SEVEN: Determine the quotient of:

(A) the STEP ONE tax rate; divided by

(B) one (1) plus the STEP SIX percentage increase.

This maximum rate is the maximum rate under this section until a new maximum rate is computed under this subsection for the next year in which an annual adjustment under IC 6-1.1-4-4.5 or a general reassessment of property will take effect.

(b) The amount of funding under subsection (a) for taxes first due and payable in a calendar year is the following:

(1) For 2004, the amount is the amount determined under STEP THREE of the following formula:

STEP ONE: Determine the amount that was levied within the county to comply with this section from property taxes first due and payable in 2002.

STEP TWO: Multiply the STEP ONE result by the county's assessed value growth quotient for the ensuing year 2003, as determined under IC 6-1.1-18.5-2.

STEP THREE: Multiply the STEP TWO result by the county's assessed value growth quotient for the ensuing year 2004, as determined under IC 6-1.1-18.5-2.

(2) For 2005 and each year thereafter, the result equal to:

(A) the amount that was levied in the county to comply with this section from property taxes first due and payable in the calendar year immediately preceding the ensuing calendar year; multiplied by

(B) the county's assessed value growth quotient for the ensuing calendar year, as determined under IC 6-1.1-18.5-2.

SECTION 17. IC 12-29-2-13, AS AMENDED BY P.L.215-2001, SECTION 80, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 2004 (RETROACTIVE)]: Sec. 13. (b) In addition to any other appropriation under this article, ~~a~~ the county annually may fund each center serving the county from the county's general fund in an amount not exceeding ~~the amount that would be raised by a tax rate of one cent ($0.01) on each one hundred~~ dollars ($100) of taxable property within the county: the following:

(1) For 2004, the product of the amount determined under section 2(b)(1) of this chapter multiplied by seven hundred fifty-two thousandths (0.752).

(2) For 2005 and each year thereafter, the product of the amount determined under section 2(b)(2) of this chapter for that year multiplied by seven hundred fifty-two thousandths (0.752).

SECTION 7. IC 6-2.5-6-9, AS AMENDED BY P.L.257-2003, SECTION 30, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004]: Sec. 9. (a) In determining the amount of state gross retail and use taxes which ~~he a retail merchant~~ must remit under section 7 of this chapter, ~~a the~~ retail merchant shall, subject to ~~subsection~~ subsections (c) and (d), deduct from ~~his the retail merchant's~~ gross retail income from retail transactions made during a particular reporting period, an amount equal to ~~his the retail merchant's~~ receivables which:

- (1) resulted from retail transactions in which the retail merchant did not collect the state gross retail or use tax from the purchaser;
- (2) resulted from retail transactions on which the retail merchant has previously paid the state gross retail or use tax liability to the department; and
- (3) were written off as an uncollectible debt for federal tax purposes under Section 166 of the Internal Revenue Code during the particular reporting period.

(b) If a retail merchant deducts a receivable under subsection (a) and subsequently collects all or part of that receivable, then the retail merchant shall, subject to subsection ~~(c)(6); (d)(6)~~, include the amount collected as part of ~~his the retail merchant's~~ gross retail income from retail transactions for the particular reporting period in which ~~he the retail merchant~~ makes the collection.

(c) This subsection applies only to retail transactions occurring after June 30, 2004. The right to a deduction under this section is assignable only if the retail merchant that paid the state gross retail or use tax liability assigned the right to the deduction in writing.

(d) The following provisions apply to a deduction for a receivable treated as uncollectible debt under subsection (a):

- (1) The deduction does not include interest.
- (2) The amount of the deduction shall be determined in the manner provided by Section 166 of the Internal Revenue Code for bad debts but shall be adjusted to exclude:
 - (A) financing charges or interest;

- (B) sales or use taxes charged on the purchase price;
 - (C) uncollectible amounts on property that remain in the possession of the seller until the full purchase price is paid;
 - (D) expenses incurred in attempting to collect any debt; and
 - (E) repossessed property.
- (3) The deduction shall be claimed on the return for the period during which the receivable is written off as uncollectible in the claimant's books and records and is eligible to be deducted for federal income tax purposes. For purposes of this subdivision, a claimant who is not required to file federal income tax returns may deduct an uncollectible receivable on a return filed for the period in which the receivable is written off as uncollectible in the claimant's books and records and would be eligible for a bad debt deduction for federal income tax purposes if the claimant were required to file a federal income tax return.
- (4) If the amount of uncollectible receivables claimed as a deduction by a retail merchant for a particular reporting period exceeds the amount of the retail merchant's taxable sales for that reporting period, the retail merchant may file a refund claim under IC 6-8.1-9. However, the deadline for the refund claim shall be measured from the due date of the return for the reporting period on which the deduction for the uncollectible receivables could first be claimed.
- (5) If a retail merchant's filing responsibilities have been assumed by a certified service provider (as defined in IC 6-2.5-11-2), the certified service provider may claim, on behalf of the retail merchant, any deduction or refund for uncollectible receivables provided by this section. The certified service provider must credit or refund the full amount of any deduction or refund received to the retail merchant.
- (6) For purposes of reporting a payment received on a previously claimed uncollectible receivable, any payments made on a debt or account shall be applied first proportionally to the taxable price of the property and the state gross retail tax or use tax thereon, and secondly to interest, service charges, and any other charges.
- (7) A retail merchant claiming a deduction for an uncollectible receivable may allocate that receivable among the states that are members of the streamlined sales and use tax agreement if the books and records of the retail merchant support that allocation.

STEP THREE: Enter the larger of zero (0) or the amount determined under STEP TWO.

STEP FOUR: Subtract the amount entered under STEP THREE from the amount determined under STEP ONE.

(b) For purposes of STEP TWO of subsection (a), the modifications that are to be applied are those modifications required under IC 6-3-1-3.5 for the same taxable year during which each net operating loss was incurred. In addition, for purposes of STEP TWO of subsection (a), the following procedures apply:

(1) The taxpayer's net operating loss for a particular taxable year shall be treated as a positive number.

(b) Resident persons are entitled to a net operating loss deduction. The amount of the deduction taken in a taxable year may not exceed the taxpayer's unused Indiana net operating losses carried back or carried over to that year.

(c) An Indiana net operating loss equals the taxpayer's federal net operating loss for a taxable year as calculated under Section

172 of the Internal Revenue Code, adjusted for the modifications required by IC 6-3-1-3.5.

(d) The following provisions apply for purposes of subsection (c):

(1) The modifications that are to be applied are those modifications required under IC 6-3-1-3.5 for the same taxable year in which each net operating loss was incurred.

(2) An Indiana net operating loss includes a net operating loss that arises when the modifications required by IC 6-3-1-3.5 exceed the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income (as defined in Section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code) for the taxable year in which the Indiana net operating loss is determined.

(e) Subject to the limitations contained in subsection (g), an Indiana net operating loss carryback or carryover shall be available as a deduction from the taxpayer's adjusted gross income (as defined in IC 6-3-1-3.5) in the carryback or carryover year provided in subsection (f).

(2) An Indiana net operating loss shall be an Indiana net operating loss carryover to each of the carryover years following the taxable year of the loss.

(3) Carryback years shall be determined by reference to the number of years allowed for carrying back a net operating loss under Section 172(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(g) The entire amount of the Indiana net operating loss for any taxable year shall be carried to the earliest of the taxable years to which (as determined under subsection (f)) the loss may be carried. The amount of the Indiana net operating loss remaining after the deduction is taken under this section in a taxable year may be carried back or carried over as provided in subsection (f). The amount of the Indiana net operating loss carried back or carried over from year to year shall be reduced to the extent that the Indiana net operating loss carryback or carryover is used by the taxpayer to obtain a deduction in a taxable year until the occurrence of the earlier of the following:

(1) The entire amount of the Indiana net operating loss has been used as a deduction.

(2) The Indiana net operating loss has been carried over to each of the carryover years provided by subsection (f).

The request must be made before a purchase is made.

(b) To be entitled to a credit for an investment described in section 4(2) of this chapter, a taxpayer must request the department of commerce to determine:

(c) The department of commerce shall find that a purchase or other investment is a qualified investment if:

- (1) the business is viable;

- (2) the taxpayer has a legitimate purpose for purchase of the ownership interest or the investment;
- (3) the purchase or investment would not be made unless a credit is allowed under this chapter; and
- (4) the purchase or investment is critical to the commencement, enhancement, or expansion of business operations in the qualified area and:

(d) If the department of commerce finds that a purchase or other investment is a qualified investment, the department of commerce shall certify the percentage credit to be allowed under this chapter based upon the following:

- (1) For a purchase described in section 4(1) of this chapter, a percentage credit of ten percent (10%) may be allowed based on the need of the business for equity financing, as demonstrated by the inability of the business to obtain debt financing.

- (2) A percentage credit of two percent (2%) may be allowed for purchases of or investments in business operations in the retail, professional, or warehouse/distribution codes of the SIC Manual (or corresponding sectors in the NAICS Manual).

11 to 25 jobs	2%
26 to 40 jobs	3%
41 to 75 jobs	4%
More than 75 jobs	5%

(6) A percentage credit of five percent (5%) may be allowed if fifty percent (50%) or more of the jobs created in the twelve (12) month period following the purchase of an ownership interest in the business or other investment in the business will be reserved for residents in the qualified area.

(7) A percentage credit may be allowed for investments made in real or depreciable personal property, as determined under the following table:

AMOUNT OF INVESTMENT	PERCENTAGE
Less than $25,001	1%
$25,001 to $50,000	2%
$50,001 to $100,000	3%
$100,001 to $200,000	4%
More than $200,000	5%

The total percentage credit may not exceed thirty percent (30%).

(e) In the case of a purchase described in section 4(1) of this chapter, if all or a part of a purchaser's intent is to transfer ownership, the tax credit shall be applied only to that part of the purchase that relates directly to the enhancement or expansion of business operations in the qualified area.

Sec. 13. (a) This subsection applies to an investment described in section 4(2) of this chapter.

(b) A taxpayer is not entitled to claim the credit provided by this chapter to the extent that the taxpayer invests in a business that substantially reduces or ceases its operations at another location in Indiana in order to relocate its operations within the qualified area, unless:

- (1) the business had existing operations in the qualified area; and
- (2) the operations relocated to the qualified area are an expansion of the business's operations in the qualified area.

investment in that year.

(b) The amount of the credit to which a taxpayer is entitled is the qualified investment made by the taxpayer during the taxable year multiplied by twenty-five percent (25%).

(c) A taxpayer may assign any part of the credit to which the taxpayer is entitled under this chapter to a lessee of property redeveloped or rehabilitated under section 2 of this chapter. A credit that is assigned under this subsection remains subject to this chapter.

- (1) the tax credit determined for the pass through entity for the taxable year; multiplied by
- (2) the percentage of the pass through entity's distributive income to which the shareholder, partner, or member is entitled.

However, a pass through entity and an individual who is a shareholder, partner, or member of the pass through entity may not claim more than one (1) credit for the same investment.

(f) A taxpayer that is otherwise entitled to a credit under this chapter for a taxable year may claim the credit regardless of whether any income tax incremental amount or gross retail incremental amount has been:

SECTION 30. IC 6-3.1-19-5 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004]: Sec. 5. (a) ~~Except as provided in subsection (b);~~ A taxpayer is not entitled to claim the credit provided by this chapter to the extent that the taxpayer substantially reduces or ceases its operations in Indiana in order to relocate them within the district.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a), a taxpayer's substantial reduction or cessation of operations in Indiana in order to relocate operations to a district does not make a taxpayer ineligible for a credit under this chapter if: (1)

Determinations under this section shall be made by the department. The department shall adopt a proposed order concerning a taxpayer's eligibility for the credit based on subsection (b) and the following criteria:

(1) A site-specific economic activity, including sales, leasing, service, manufacturing, production, storage of inventory, or any activity involving permanent full-time or part-time employees, shall be considered a business operation.

(2) With respect to an operation located outside the district (referred to in this section as a "nondistrict operation"), any of the following that occurs during the twelve (12) months before the completion of the physical relocation of all or part of the activity described in subdivision (1) from the nondistrict operation to the district as compared with the twelve (12) months before that twelve (12) months shall be considered a substantial reduction:

(A) A reduction in the average number of full-time or part-time employees of the lesser of one hundred (100) employees or twenty-five percent (25%) of all employees.

(B) A twenty-five percent (25%) reduction in the average number of goods manufactured or produced.

(D) A ten percent (10%) reduction in the average value of stored inventory.

(E) A twenty-five percent (25%) reduction in the average amount of gross income.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a), a taxpayer that would otherwise be disqualified under subsection (a) is eligible for the credit provided by this chapter if the taxpayer meets at least one (1) of the following conditions:

(1) The taxpayer relocates all or part of its nondistrict operation for any of the following reasons:

- (A) The lease on property necessary for the nondistrict operation has been involuntarily lost through no fault of the taxpayer.
- (B) The space available at the location of the nondistrict operation cannot accommodate planned expansion needed by the taxpayer.
- (C) The building for the nondistrict operation has been certified as uninhabitable by a state or local building authority.
- (D) The building for the nondistrict operation has been totally destroyed through no fault of the taxpayer.
- (E) The renovation and construction costs at the location of the nondistrict operation are more than one and one-half (1 1/2) times the costs of purchase, renovation, and construction of a facility in the district, as certified by three (3) independent estimates.
- (F) The taxpayer had existing operations in the district and ~~(2)~~ the nondistrict operations relocated to the district are an expansion of the taxpayer's operations in the district.

A taxpayer is eligible for benefits and incentives under clause (C) or (D) only if renovation and construction costs at the location of the nondistrict operation are more than one and one-half (1 1/2) times the cost of purchase, renovation, and construction of a facility in the district. These costs must be certified by three (3) independent estimates.

(2) The taxpayer has not terminated or reduced the pension or health insurance obligations payable to employees or former employees of the nondistrict operation without the consent of the employees.

(c) The department shall cause to be delivered to the taxpayer and to any person who testified before the department in favor of disqualification of the taxpayer a copy of the department's proposed order. The taxpayer and these persons shall be considered parties for purposes of this section.

A hearing panel composed of the commissioner of the department or the commissioner's designee, the director of the budget agency or the director's designee, and the director of the department of commerce or the director's designee shall set the objections for oral argument and give notice to the parties. A party at its own expense may cause to be filed with the hearing panel a transcript of the oral testimony or any other part of the record of the proceedings. The oral argument shall be on the record filed with the hearing panel. The hearing panel may hear additional evidence or remand the action to the department with instructions appropriate to the expeditious and proper disposition of the action. The hearing panel may adopt the proposed order of the department, may amend or modify the proposed order, or may make such order or determination as is proper on the record. The affirmative votes of at least two (2) members of the hearing panel are required for the hearing panel to take action on any measure. The taxpayer may appeal the decision of the hearing panel to the tax court in the same manner that a final determination of the department may be appealed under IC 33-3-5.

(e) If no objections are filed, the department may adopt the proposed order without oral argument.

~~(e) (f)~~ A determination that a taxpayer is not entitled to the credit provided by this chapter as a result of a substantial reduction or cessation of operations applies to credits that would otherwise arise in the taxable year in which the substantial reduction or cessation occurs and in all subsequent years. ~~Determinations under this section shall be made by the department of state revenue.~~

SECTION 49. IC 6-1.1-12.1-2, AS AMENDED BY P.L.4-2000, SECTION 2, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004]: Sec. 2. (a) A designating body may find that a particular area within its jurisdiction is an economic revitalization area. However, the deduction provided by this chapter for economic revitalization areas not within a city or town shall not be available to retail businesses.

(b) In a county containing a consolidated city or within a city or town, a designating body may find that a particular area within its jurisdiction is a residentially distressed area. Designation of an area as a residentially distressed area has the same effect as designating an area as an economic revitalization area, except that the amount of the deduction shall be calculated as specified in section 4.1 of this chapter and the deduction is allowed for not more than five (5) years. In order to declare a particular area a residentially distressed area, the designating body must follow the same procedure that is required to designate an area as an economic revitalization area and must make all the following additional findings or all the additional findings described in subsection (c):

(1) The area is comprised of parcels that are either unimproved or contain only one (1) or two (2) family dwellings or multifamily dwellings designed for up to four (4) families, including accessory buildings for those dwellings.

(2) Any dwellings in the area are not permanently occupied and are:

(A) the subject of an order issued under IC 36-7-9; or

(B) evidencing significant building deficiencies.

(3) Parcels of property in the area:

(A) have been sold and not redeemed under IC 6-1.1-24 and IC 6-1.1-25; or

(B) are owned by a unit of local government.

However, in a city in a county having a population of more than two hundred thousand (200,000) but less than three hundred thousand (300,000), the designating body is only required to make one (1) of the additional findings described in this subsection or one (1) of the additional findings described in subsection (c).

(c) In a county containing a consolidated city or within a city or town, a designating body that wishes to designate a particular area a residentially distressed area may make the following additional findings as an alternative to the additional findings described in subsection (b):

(1) A significant number of dwelling units within the area are not permanently occupied or a significant number of parcels in the area are vacant land.

(2) A significant number of dwelling units within the area are:

(A) the subject of an order issued under IC 36-7-9; or

(B) evidencing significant building deficiencies.

(3) The area has experienced a net loss in the number of dwelling units, as documented by census information, local building and demolition permits, or certificates of occupancy, or the area is owned by Indiana or the United States.

(4) The area (plus any areas previously designated under this subsection) will not exceed ten percent (10%) of the total area within the designating body's jurisdiction.

However, in a city in a county having a population of more than two hundred thousand (200,000) but less than three hundred thousand (300,000), the designating body is only required to make one (1) of the additional findings described in this subsection as an alternative to one (1) of the additional findings described in subsection (b).

(d) A designating body is required to attach the following conditions to the grant of a residentially distressed area designation:

(1) The deduction will not be allowed unless the dwelling is rehabilitated to meet local code standards for habitability.

(2) If a designation application is filed, the designating body may require that the redevelopment or rehabilitation be completed within a reasonable period of time.

(e) To make a designation described in subsection (a) or (b), the designating body shall use procedures prescribed in section 2.5 of this chapter.

(f) The property tax deductions provided by sections 3 and 4.5 of this chapter are only available within an area which the designating body finds to be an economic revitalization area.

(g) The designating body may adopt a resolution establishing general standards to be used, along with the requirements set forth in the definition of economic revitalization area, by the designating body in finding an area to be an economic revitalization area. The standards must have a reasonable relationship to the development objectives of the area in which the designating body has jurisdiction. The following three (3) sets of standards may be established:

(1) One (1) relative to the deduction under section 3 of this chapter for economic revitalization areas that are not residentially distressed areas.

(2) One (1) relative to the deduction under section 3 of this chapter for residentially distressed areas.

(3) One (1) relative to the deduction allowed under section 4.5 of this chapter.

(h) A designating body may impose a fee for filing a designation application for a person requesting the designation of a particular area as an economic revitalization area. The fee may be sufficient to defray actual processing and administrative costs. However, the fee charged for filing a designation application for a parcel that contains one (1) or more owner-occupied, single-family dwellings may not exceed the cost of publishing the required notice.

(i) In declaring an area an economic revitalization area, the designating body may:

(1) limit the time period to a certain number of calendar years during which the area shall be so designated;

(2) limit the type of deductions that will be allowed within the economic revitalization area to either the deduction allowed under section 3 of this chapter or the deduction allowed under section 4.5 of this chapter;

(3) limit the dollar amount of the deduction that will be allowed with respect to new manufacturing equipment, ~~and~~ new research and development equipment, new logistical distribution equipment, and new information technology equipment if a deduction under this chapter had not been filed before July 1, 1987, for that equipment;

(4) limit the dollar amount of the deduction that will be allowed with respect to redevelopment and rehabilitation occurring in areas that are designated as economic revitalization areas on or after September 1, 1988; or

(5) impose reasonable conditions related to the purpose of this chapter or to the general standards adopted under subsection (g) for allowing the deduction for the redevelopment or rehabilitation of the property or the installation of the new manufacturing equipment, ~~or~~ new research and development equipment, ~~or both~~: new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment.

To exercise one (1) or more of these powers a designating body must include this fact in the resolution passed under section 2.5 of this chapter.

(j) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, if a designating body limits the time period during which an area is an economic revitalization area, that limitation does not:

(1) prevent a taxpayer from obtaining a deduction for new manufacturing equipment, ~~or~~ new research and development equipment, ~~or both~~, new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment installed before January 1, 2006, but after the expiration of the economic revitalization area if:

(A) the economic revitalization area designation expires after December 30, 1995; and

(B) the new manufacturing equipment, ~~or~~ new research and development equipment, ~~or both~~, new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment was described in a statement of benefits submitted to and approved by the designating body in accordance with section 4.5 of this chapter before the expiration of the economic revitalization area designation; or

(2) limit the length of time a taxpayer is entitled to receive a deduction to a number of years that is less than the number of years designated under section 4 or 4.5 of this chapter.

(k) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, deductions:

(1) that are authorized under section 3 of this chapter for property in an area designated as an urban development area before March 1, 1983, and that are based on an increase in assessed valuation resulting from redevelopment or rehabilitation that occurs before March 1, 1983; or apply according to the provisions of this chapter as they existed at the time that an application for the deduction was first made. No deduction that is based on the location of property or new manufacturing equipment in an urban development area is authorized under this chapter after February 28, 1983, unless the initial increase in assessed value resulting from the redevelopment or rehabilitation of the property or the installation of the new manufacturing equipment occurred before March 1, 1983.

(2) that are authorized under section 4.5 of this chapter for new manufacturing equipment installed in an area designated as an urban development area before March 1, 1983;

(l) If property located in an economic revitalization area is also located in an allocation area (as defined in IC 36-7-14-39 or IC 36-7-15.1-26), an application for the property tax deduction provided by this chapter may not be approved unless the commission that designated the allocation area adopts a resolution approving the application.

SECTION 50. IC 6-1.1-12.1-2.3 IS ADDED AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004]: Sec. 2.3. (a) This section applies only to:

(1) a county in which mile markers fourteen (14) through one hundred twenty (120) of Interstate Highway 69 are located as of March 1, 2004; and

(2) a city or town located in a county referred to in subdivision (1).

(b) A designating body may adopt a resolution under section 2.5 of this chapter to authorize a deduction for new logistical distribution equipment or new information technology equipment.

(c) If any amendment to this chapter that takes effect July 1, 2004, applies a deduction under this chapter for new logistical distribution equipment or new information technology equipment to a broader geographic area than the deduction that would apply under a resolution adopted under this section, the more broadly applied deduction controls with respect to the application of the deduction for new logistical distribution equipment or new information technology equipment.

SECTION 51. IC 6-1.1-12.1-4.5, AS AMENDED BY P.L.1-2003, SECTION 22, AND AS AMENDED BY P.L.245-2003, SECTION 8, IS CORRECTED AND AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004]: Sec. 4.5. (a) For purposes of this section, "personal property" means personal property other than inventory (as defined in IC 6-1.1-3-11(a)).

(b) An applicant must provide a statement of benefits to the designating body. The applicant must provide the completed statement of benefits form to the designating body before the hearing specified in section 2.5(c) of this chapter or before the installation of the new manufacturing equipment, ~~or new research and development equipment, or both;~~ new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment for which the person desires to claim a deduction under this chapter. The department of local government finance shall prescribe a form for the statement of benefits. The statement of benefits must include the following information:

(1) A description of the new manufacturing equipment, ~~or new research and development equipment, or both;~~ new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment that the person proposes to acquire.

(2) With respect to:

(A) new manufacturing equipment not used to dispose of solid waste or hazardous waste by converting the solid waste or hazardous waste into energy or other useful products; and

(B) new research and development equipment, new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment;

an estimate of the number of individuals who will be employed or whose employment will be retained by the person as a result of the installation of the new manufacturing equipment, ~~or new research and development equipment, or both;~~ new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment and an estimate of the annual salaries of these individuals.

(3) An estimate of the cost of the new manufacturing equipment, ~~or new research and development equipment, or both.~~ new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment.

(4) With respect to new manufacturing equipment used to dispose of solid waste or hazardous waste by converting the solid waste or hazardous waste into energy or other useful products, an estimate of the amount of solid waste or hazardous waste that will be converted into energy or other useful products by the new manufacturing equipment.

The statement of benefits may be incorporated in a designation application. Notwithstanding any other law, a statement of benefits is a public record that may be inspected and copied under IC 5-14-3-3.

(c) The designating body must review the statement of benefits required under subsection (b). The designating body shall determine whether an area should be designated an economic revitalization area or whether the deduction shall be allowed, based on (and after it has made) the following findings:

(1) Whether the estimate of the cost of the new manufacturing equipment, ~~or new research and development equipment, or both,~~ new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment is reasonable for equipment of that type.

(2) With respect to:

(A) new manufacturing equipment not used to dispose of solid waste or hazardous waste by converting the solid waste or hazardous waste into energy or other useful products; and

(B) new research and development equipment, new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment;

whether the estimate of the number of individuals who will be employed or whose employment will be retained can be reasonably expected to result from the installation of the new manufacturing equipment, ~~or new research and development equipment, or both.~~ new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment.

(3) Whether the estimate of the annual salaries of those individuals who will be employed or whose employment will be retained can be reasonably expected to result from the proposed installation of new manufacturing equipment, ~~or new research and development equipment, or both:~~ new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment.

(4) With respect to new manufacturing equipment used to dispose of solid waste or hazardous waste by converting the solid waste or hazardous waste into energy or other useful products, whether the estimate of the amount of solid waste or hazardous waste that will be converted into energy or other useful products can be reasonably expected to result from the installation of the new manufacturing equipment.

(5) Whether any other benefits about which information was requested are benefits that can be reasonably expected to result from the proposed installation of new manufacturing equipment, ~~or new research and development equipment, or both:~~ new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment.

(6) Whether the totality of benefits is sufficient to justify the deduction.

The designating body may not designate an area an economic revitalization area or approve the deduction unless it makes the findings required by this subsection in the affirmative.

(d) Except as provided in subsection (h), an owner of new manufacturing equipment, ~~or new research and development equipment, or both:~~ new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment whose statement of benefits is approved after June 30, 2000, is entitled to a deduction from the assessed value of that equipment for the number of years determined by the designating body under subsection (g). Except as provided in subsection (f) and in section 2(i)(3) of this chapter, the amount of the deduction that an owner is entitled to for a particular year equals the product of:

(1) the assessed value of the new manufacturing equipment, ~~or new research and development equipment, or both:~~ new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment in the year of deduction under the appropriate table set forth in subsection (e); multiplied by

(2) the percentage prescribed in the appropriate table set forth in subsection (e).

(e) The percentage to be used in calculating the deduction under subsection (d) is as follows:

(f) With respect to new manufacturing equipment and new research and development equipment installed before March 2, 2001, the deduction under this section is the amount that causes the net assessed value of the property after the application of the deduction under this section to equal the net assessed value after the application of the deduction under this section that results from computing:

(1) the deduction under this section as in effect on March 1, 2001; and

(2) the assessed value of the property under 50 IAC 4.2, as in effect on March 1, 2001, or, in the case of property subject to IC 6-1.1-8, 50 IAC 5.1, as in effect on March 1, 2001.

For an economic revitalization area designated after June 30, 2000, the designating body shall determine the number of years the deduction is allowed. However, the deduction may not be allowed for more than ten (10) years. This determination shall be made:

(1) as part of the resolution adopted under section 2.5 of this chapter; or

(2) by resolution adopted within sixty (60) days after receiving a copy of a property owner's certified deduction application from the county auditor. A certified copy of the resolution shall be sent to the county auditor.

A determination about the number of years the deduction is allowed that is made under subdivision (1) is final and may not be changed by following the procedure under subdivision (2).

(h) The owner of new manufacturing equipment that is directly used to dispose of hazardous waste is not entitled to the deduction provided by this section for a particular assessment year if during that assessment year the owner:

- (1) is convicted of a violation under IC 13-7-13-3 (repealed), IC 13-7-13-4 (repealed), or IC 13-30-6; or
- (2) is subject to an order or a consent decree with respect to property located in Indiana based on a violation of a federal or state rule, regulation, or statute governing the treatment, storage, or disposal of hazardous wastes that had a major or moderate potential for harm.

SECTION 52. IC 6-1.1-12.1-5.4, AS AMENDED BY P.L.245-2003, SECTION 10, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004]: Sec. 5.4. (a) A person that desires to obtain the deduction provided by section 4.5 of this chapter must file a certified deduction application on forms prescribed by the department of local government finance with the auditor of the county in which the new manufacturing equipment, ~~or~~ new research and development equipment, ~~or both~~, new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment is located. A person that timely files a personal property return under IC 6-1.1-3-7(a) for the year in which the new manufacturing equipment, ~~or~~ new research and development equipment, ~~or both~~, new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment is installed must file the application between March 1 and May 15 of that year. A person that obtains a filing extension under IC 6-1.1-3-7(b) for the year in which the new manufacturing equipment, ~~or~~ new research and development equipment, ~~or both~~, new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment is installed must file the application between March 1 and the extended due date for that year.

(b) The deduction application required by this section must contain the following information:

- (1) The name of the owner of the new manufacturing equipment, ~~or~~ new research and development equipment, ~~or both~~: new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment.

(2) A description of the new manufacturing equipment, ~~or new research and development equipment, or both;~~ new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment.

(3) Proof of the date the new manufacturing equipment, ~~or new research and development equipment, or both;~~ new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment was installed.

(4) The amount of the deduction claimed for the first year of the deduction.

(c) This subsection applies to a deduction application with respect to new manufacturing equipment, ~~or new research and development equipment, or both;~~ new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment for which a statement of benefits was initially approved after April 30, 1991. If a determination about the number of years the deduction is allowed has not been made in the resolution adopted under section 2.5 of this chapter, the county auditor shall send a copy of the deduction application to the designating body, and the designating body shall adopt a resolution under section 4.5(g)(2) of this chapter.

(d) A deduction application must be filed under this section in the year in which the new manufacturing equipment, ~~or new research and development equipment, or both;~~ new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment is installed and in each of the immediately succeeding years the deduction is allowed.

(e) Subject to subsection (i), the county auditor shall:

(1) review the deduction application; and

(2) approve, deny, or alter the amount of the deduction.

Upon approval of the deduction application or alteration of the amount of the deduction, the county auditor shall make the deduction. The county auditor shall notify the county property tax assessment board of appeals of all deductions approved under this section.

(f) If the ownership of new manufacturing equipment, ~~or new research and development equipment, or both;~~ new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment changes, the deduction provided under section 4.5 of this chapter continues to apply to that equipment if the new owner:

- (1) continues to use the equipment in compliance with any standards established under section 2(g) of this chapter; and
- (2) files the deduction applications required by this section.

(g) The amount of the deduction is the percentage under section 4.5 of this chapter that would have applied if the ownership of the property had not changed multiplied by the assessed value of the equipment for the year the deduction is claimed by the new owner.

(h) A person may appeal the determination of the county auditor under subsection (e) by filing a complaint in the office of the clerk of the circuit or superior court not more than forty-five (45) days after the county auditor gives the person notice of the determination.

(i) Before the county auditor acts under subsection (e), the county auditor may request that the township assessor in which the property is located review the deduction application.

SECTION 53. IC 6-1.1-12.1-5.6, AS AMENDED BY P.L.4-2000, SECTION 9, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004]: Sec. 5.6. (a) This subsection applies to a property owner whose statement of benefits was approved under section 4.5 of this chapter before July 1, 1991. In addition to the requirements of section 5.5(b) of this chapter, a deduction application filed under section 5.5 of this chapter must contain information showing the extent to which there has been compliance with the statement of benefits approved under section 4.5 of this chapter. Failure to comply with a statement of benefits approved before July 1, 1991, may not be a basis for rejecting a deduction application.

(b) This subsection applies to a property owner whose statement of benefits was approved under section 4.5 of this chapter after June 30, 1991. In addition to the requirements of section 5.5(b) of this chapter, a property owner who files a deduction application under section 5.5 of this chapter must provide the county auditor and the designating body with information showing the extent to which there has been compliance with the statement of benefits approved under section 4.5 of this chapter.

(c) Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3 and IC 6-1.1-35-9, the following information is a public record if filed under this section:

- (1) The name and address of the taxpayer.

(2) The location and description of the new manufacturing equipment, ~~or new research and development equipment, or both;~~ new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment for which the deduction was granted.

(3) Any information concerning the number of employees at the facility where the new manufacturing equipment, ~~or new research and development equipment, or both;~~ new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment is located, including estimated totals that were provided as part of the statement of benefits.

(4) Any information concerning the total of the salaries paid to those employees, including estimated totals that were provided as part of the statement of benefits.

(5) Any information concerning the amount of solid waste or hazardous waste converted into energy or other useful products by the new manufacturing equipment.

(6) Any information concerning the assessed value of the new manufacturing equipment, ~~or new research and development equipment, or both;~~ new logistical distribution equipment, or new information technology equipment including estimates that were provided as part of the statement of benefits.

SECTION 40. IC 5-2-1-9, AS AMENDED BY P.L.45-2001, SECTION 1, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004]: Sec. 9. (a) The board shall adopt in accordance with IC 4-22-2 all necessary rules to carry out the provisions of this chapter. Such rules, which shall be adopted only after necessary and proper investigation and inquiry by the board, shall include the establishment of the following:

(1) Minimum standards of physical, educational, mental, and moral fitness which shall govern the acceptance of any person for training by any law enforcement training school or academy meeting or exceeding the minimum standards established pursuant to this chapter.

(2) Minimum standards for law enforcement training schools administered by towns, cities, counties, the northwest Indiana law enforcement training center, agencies, or departments of the state.

(3) Minimum standards for courses of study, attendance requirements, equipment, and facilities for approved town, city, county, and state law enforcement officer, police reserve officer, and conservation reserve officer training schools.

(4) Minimum standards for a course of study on cultural diversity awareness that must be required for each person accepted for training at a law enforcement training school or academy.

(5) Minimum qualifications for instructors at approved law enforcement training schools.

(6) Minimum basic training requirements which law enforcement officers appointed to probationary terms shall complete before being eligible for continued or permanent employment.

(7) Minimum basic training requirements which law enforcement officers not appointed for probationary terms but appointed on other than a permanent basis shall complete in order to be eligible for continued employment or permanent appointment.

(8) Minimum basic training requirements which law enforcement officers appointed on a permanent basis shall complete in order to be eligible for continued employment.

(9) Minimum basic training requirements for each person accepted for training at a law enforcement training school or academy that include six (6) hours of training in interacting with persons with mental illness, addictive disorders, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities, to be provided by persons approved by the secretary of family and social services and the law enforcement training board.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (l), a law enforcement officer appointed after July 5, 1972, and before July 1, 1993, may not enforce the laws or ordinances of the state or any political subdivision unless the officer has, within one (1) year from the date of appointment, successfully completed the minimum basic training requirements established under this chapter by the board. If a person fails to successfully complete the basic training requirements within one (1) year from the date of employment, the officer may not perform any of the duties of a law enforcement officer involving control or direction of members of the public or exercising the power of arrest until the officer has successfully completed the training requirements. This subsection does not apply to any law enforcement officer appointed before July 6, 1972, or after June 30, 1993.

(c) Military leave or other authorized leave of absence from law enforcement duty during the first year of employment after July 6, 1972, shall toll the running of the first year, which in such cases shall be calculated by the aggregate of the time before and after the leave, for the purposes of this chapter.

(d) Except as provided in subsections (e) and (l), a law enforcement officer appointed to a law enforcement department or agency after June 30, 1993, may not:

- (1) make an arrest;
- (2) conduct a search or a seizure of a person or property; or
- (3) carry a firearm;

unless the law enforcement officer successfully completes, at a board certified law enforcement academy or at the northwest Indiana law enforcement training center under section 15.2 of this chapter, the basic training requirements established by the board under this chapter.

(e) Before a law enforcement officer appointed after June 30, 1993, completes the basic training requirements, the law enforcement officer may exercise the police powers described in subsection (d) if the officer successfully completes the pre-basic course established in subsection (f). Successful completion of the pre-basic course authorizes a law enforcement officer to exercise the police powers described in subsection (d) for one (1) year after the date the law enforcement officer is appointed.

(f) The board shall adopt rules under IC 4-22-2 to establish a pre-basic course for the purpose of training:

- (1) law enforcement officers;
 - (2) police reserve officers (as described in IC 36-8-3-20); and
 - (3) conservation reserve officers (as described in IC 14-9-8-27);
- regarding the subjects of arrest, search and seizure, use of force, and firearm qualification. The pre-basic course must be offered on a periodic basis throughout the year at regional sites statewide. The pre-basic course must consist of forty (40) hours of course work. The board may prepare a pre-basic course on videotape that must be used in conjunction with live instruction. The board shall provide the course material, the instructors, and the facilities at the regional sites throughout the state that are used for the pre-basic course. In addition, the board may certify pre-basic courses that may be conducted by other public or private training entities, including colleges and universities.

(g) The board shall adopt rules under IC 4-22-2 to establish a mandatory inservice training program for police officers. After June 30, 1993, a law enforcement officer who has satisfactorily completed the basic training and has been appointed to a law enforcement department or agency on either a full-time or part-time basis is not eligible for continued employment unless the officer satisfactorily completes a minimum of sixteen (16) hours each year of inservice training in any subject area included in the law enforcement academy's basic training course or other job related subjects that are approved by the board as determined by the law enforcement department's or agency's needs.

Inservice training must include training in interacting with persons with mental illness, addictive disorders, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities, to be provided by persons approved by the secretary of family and social services and the law enforcement training board. In addition, a certified academy staff may develop and make available inservice training programs on a regional or local basis. The board may approve courses offered by other public or private training entities, including colleges and universities, as necessary in order to ensure the availability of an adequate number of inservice training programs. The board may waive an officer's inservice training requirements if the board determines that the officer's reason for lacking the required amount of inservice training hours is due to any of the following:

- (1) An emergency situation.
- (2) The unavailability of courses.

(h) The board shall also adopt rules establishing a town marshal basic training program, subject to the following:

- (1) The program must require fewer hours of instruction and class attendance and fewer courses of study than are required for the mandated basic training program.

(2) Certain parts of the course materials may be studied by a candidate at the candidate's home in order to fulfill requirements of the program.

(3) Law enforcement officers successfully completing the requirements of the program are eligible for appointment only in towns employing the town marshal system (IC 36-5-7) and having no more than one (1) marshal and two (2) deputies.

(4) The limitation imposed by subdivision (3) does not apply to an officer who has successfully completed the mandated basic training program.

(5) The time limitations imposed by subsections (b) and (c) for completing the training are also applicable to the town marshal basic training program.

(i) The board shall adopt rules under IC 4-22-2 to establish a police chief executive training program. The program must include training in the following areas:

- (1) Liability.
- (2) Media relations.
- (3) Accounting and administration.
- (4) Discipline.
- (5) Department policy making.
- (6) Firearm policies.
- (7) Department programs.

(j) A police chief shall apply for admission to the police chief executive training program within two (2) months of the date the police chief initially takes office. A police chief must successfully complete the police chief executive training program within six (6) months of the date the police chief initially takes office. However, if space in the program is not available at a time that will allow the police chief to complete the program within six (6) months of the date the police chief initially takes office, the police chief must successfully complete the next available program that is offered to the police chief after the police chief initially takes office.

(k) A police chief who fails to comply with subsection (j) may not serve as the police chief until the police chief has completed the police chief executive training program. For the purposes of this subsection and subsection (j), "police chief" refers to:

- (1) the police chief of any city; and
- (2) the police chief of any town having a metropolitan police department.

A town marshal is not considered to be a police chief for these purposes, but a town marshal may enroll in the police chief executive training program.

(l) An investigator in the arson division of the office of the state fire marshal appointed:

- (1) before January 1, 1994, is not required; or
- (2) after December 31, 1993, is required; to comply with the basic training standards established under this section.

(m) The board shall adopt rules under IC 4-22-2 to establish a program to certify handgun safety courses, including courses offered in the private sector, that meet standards approved by the board for training probation officers in handgun safety as required by IC 11-13-1-3.5(3).

(c) The department shall cooperate with the state personnel department in establishing minimum qualification standards for employees of the department and in establishing a system of personnel recruitment, selection, employment, and distribution.

(d) The department shall conduct training programs designed to equip employees for duty in its facilities and programs and raise their level of performance. Training programs conducted by the department need not be limited to inservice training. They may include preemployment training, internship programs, and scholarship programs in cooperation with appropriate agencies. When funds are appropriated, the department may provide educational stipends or tuition reimbursement in such amounts and under such conditions as may be determined by the department and the personnel division.

(e) The department shall conduct a training program on cultural diversity awareness that must be a required course for each employee of the department who has contact with incarcerated persons.

(f) The department shall provide six (6) hours of training to employees who interact with persons with mental illness, addictive disorders, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities concerning the interaction, to be taught by persons approved by the secretary of family and social services, using teaching methods approved by the secretary of family and social services and the commissioner. The commissioner or the commissioner's designee may credit hours of substantially similar training received by an employee toward the required six (6) hours of training.

(g) The department shall establish a correctional officer training program with a curriculum, and administration by agencies, to be determined by the commissioner. A certificate of completion shall be issued to any person satisfactorily completing the training program. A certificate may also be issued to any person who has received training in another jurisdiction if the commissioner determines that the training was at least equivalent to the training program maintained under this subsection.

IC 11-12-2-1 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004]: Sec. 1. (a) For the purpose of encouraging counties to develop a coordinated local corrections-criminal justice system and providing effective alternatives to imprisonment at the state level, the commissioner shall, out of funds appropriated for such purposes, make grants to counties for the establishment and operation of community corrections programs. Appropriations intended for this purpose may not be used by the department for any other purpose. Money appropriated to the department of correction for the purpose of making grants under this chapter, and charges made against a county under section 9, do not revert to the state general fund at the close of any fiscal year, but remain available to the department of correction for its use in making grants under this chapter.

(b) The commissioner shall give priority in issuing community corrections grants to programs that provide alternative sentencing projects for persons with mental illness, addictive disorders, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities.

(1) has successfully completed minimum basic training requirements (other than training completed under IC 5-2-1-9(h)) for law enforcement officers established by the law enforcement training board; or

(2) is a law enforcement officer and is exempt from the training requirements of IC 5-2-1. For purposes of this subdivision, completion of the training requirements of IC 5-2-1-9(h) does not exempt an officer from the minimum basic training requirements of IC 5-2-1.

(d) The law enforcement training board shall develop a forty (40) hour program for the specialized training of jail officers. The program training must include six (6) hours of training in interacting with persons with mental illness, addictive disorders, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities, to be provided by persons approved by the secretary of family and social services and the law enforcement training board. The remainder of the training shall be provided by the board.

SECTION 2. IC 5-10.2-4-3 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JUNE 1, 2004]: Sec. 3. (a) Except as provided in subsection ~~(e)~~, (f), in computing the retirement benefit for a nonteacher member, "average of the annual compensation" means the average annual compensation calculated using the twenty (20) calendar quarters of service in a position covered by the retirement fund before retirement in which the member's annual compensation was the highest. However, in order for a quarter to be included in the twenty (20) calendar quarters, the nonteacher member must have performed service throughout the calendar quarter. All twenty (20) calendar quarters do not have to be continuous but they must be in groups of four (4) consecutive calendar quarters. The same calendar quarter may not be included in two (2) different groups.

(b) This subsection does not apply to a teacher member described in subsection (c). In computing the retirement benefit for a teacher member, "average of the annual compensation" means the average annual compensation for the five (5) years of service before retirement in which the member's annual compensation was highest. In order for a year to be included in the five (5) years, the teacher member must have received for the year credit under IC 21-6.1-4-2 for at least one-half (1/2) year of service. The five (5) years do not have to be continuous.

(c) This subsection applies to a member of the Indiana state teachers' retirement fund who serves in an elected position for which the member takes an unpaid leave of absence. In computing the retirement benefit for a teacher member described in this subsection for years of service to which IC 21-6.1-5-7.5 does not apply, "average of the annual compensation" means the annual compensation for the one (1) year of service before retirement in which the member's annual compensation was highest. In order for a year to be used, the teacher member must have received for the year credit under IC 21-6.1-4-2 for at least one-half (1/2) year of service.

(d) Subject to IC 5-10.2-2-1.5 "annual compensation" means:

(1) the basic salary earned by and paid to the member plus the amount that would have been part of that salary but for:

(†) (A) the state's, a school corporation's, a participating political subdivision's, or a state educational institution's (as defined in IC 20-12-0.5-1) paying the member's contribution to the fund for the member; or

(2) (B) the member's salary reduction agreement established under Section 125, 403(b), or 457 of the Internal Revenue Code; and

(2) in the case of a member described in subsection (c) and for years of service to which IC 21-6.1-5-7.5 does not apply, the basic salary that was not paid during the year but would have been paid to the member during the year under the member's employment contracts if the member had not taken any unpaid leave of absence to serve in an elected position.

The portion of a back pay award or a similar award that the board determines is compensation under an agreement or under a judicial or an administrative proceeding shall be allocated by the board among the years the member earned or should have earned the compensation. Only that portion of the award allocated to the year the award is made is considered to have been earned during the year the award was made. Interest on an award is not considered annual compensation for any year.

(†)(e) Compensation of no more than two thousand dollars ($2,000) received from the employer in contemplation of the member's retirement, including severance pay, termination pay, retirement bonus, or commutation of unused sick leave or personal leave, may be included in the total annual compensation from which the average of the annual compensation is determined, if it is received:

- (1) before the member ceases service; or
 - (2) within twelve (12) months after the member ceases service.
- (e) (f) This section applies to a member of the general assembly:
- (1) who is a participant in the legislators' retirement system established under IC 2-3.5;
 - (2) who is also a member of the public employees' retirement fund or the state teachers' retirement fund; and
 - (3) whose years of service in the general assembly may not be considered in determining the average of the annual compensation under this section, as provided in IC 2-3.5-1-2(b)(2) or IC 2-3.5-3-1(c).

The board shall use the board's actuarial salary increase assumption to project the salary for any previous year needed to determine the average of the annual compensation.

(a) This section applies only to a riverboat that has implemented flexible scheduling under IC 4-33-6-21 or IC 4-33-6.5.

(b) A graduated tax is imposed on the adjusted gross receipts received from gambling games authorized under this article as follows:

(i) a city described in IC 4-33-12-6(b)(1)(A); or

(ii) a city located in a county having a population of more than four hundred thousand (400,000) but less than seven hundred thousand (700,000); or

(3) Subject to subsection (d), the remainder of the tax revenue remitted by each licensed owner shall be paid to the property tax replacement fund. In each state fiscal year beginning after June 30, 2003, the treasurer of state shall make the transfer required by this subdivision not later than the last business day of the month in which the tax revenue is remitted to the state for deposit in the state gaming fund. However, if tax revenue is received by the state on the last business day in a month, the treasurer of state may transfer the tax revenue to the property tax replacement fund in the immediately following month.

(b) This subsection applies only to tax revenue remitted by an operating agent operating a riverboat in a historic hotel district. After funds are appropriated under section 4 of this chapter, each month the treasurer of state shall distribute the tax revenue deposited in the state gaming fund under this chapter as follows:

(2) Thirty-seven and one-half percent (37.5%) shall be paid to the West Baden Springs historic hotel preservation and maintenance fund established by IC 36-7-11.5-11(b). However, at any time the balance in that fund exceeds twenty million dollars ($20,000,000), the amount described in this subdivision shall be paid to the property tax replacement fund established under IC 6-1.1-21.

(3) Five percent (5%) shall be paid to the historic hotel preservation commission established under IC 36-7-11.5.

(4) Ten percent (10%) shall be paid in equal amounts to each town that:

(A) is located in the county in which the riverboat docks; and

(B) contains a historic hotel.

The town council shall appropriate a part of the money received by the town under this subdivision to the budget of the town's tourism commission.

(5) Ten percent (10%) shall be paid to the county treasurer of the county in which the riverboat is docked. The county treasurer shall distribute the money received under this subdivision as follows:

(A) Twenty percent (20%) shall be quarterly distributed to the county treasurer of a county having a population of more than thirty-nine thousand six hundred (39,600) but less than forty thousand (40,000) for appropriation by the county fiscal body after receiving a recommendation from the county executive. The county fiscal body for the receiving county shall provide for the distribution of the money received under this clause to one (1) or more taxing units (as defined in IC 6-1.1-1-21) in the county under a formula established by the county fiscal body after receiving a recommendation from the county executive.

(B) Twenty percent (20%) shall be quarterly distributed to the county treasurer of a county having a population of more than ten thousand seven hundred (10,700) but less than twelve thousand (12,000) for appropriation by the county fiscal body after receiving a recommendation from the county executive. The county fiscal body for the receiving county shall provide for the distribution of the money received under this clause to one (1) or more taxing units (as defined in IC 6-1.1-1-21) in the county under a formula established by the county fiscal body after receiving a recommendation from the county executive.

(C) Sixty percent (60%) shall be retained by the county where the riverboat is docked for appropriation by the county fiscal body after receiving a recommendation from the county executive. The county fiscal body shall provide for the distribution of part or all of the money received under this clause to the following under a formula established by the county fiscal body:

(i) A town having a population of more than two thousand two hundred (2,200) but less than three thousand five hundred (3,500) located in a county having a population of more than nineteen thousand three hundred (19,300) but less than twenty thousand (20,000).

(ii) A town having a population of more than three thousand five hundred (3,500) located in a county having a population of more than nineteen thousand three hundred (19,300) but less than twenty thousand (20,000).

(c) For each city and county receiving money under subsection (a)(2)(A) or (a)(2)(C), the treasurer of state shall determine the total amount of money paid by the treasurer of state to the city or county during the state fiscal year 2002. The amount determined is the base year revenue for the city or county. The treasurer of state shall certify the base year revenue determined under this subsection to the city or county. The total amount of money distributed to a city or county under this section during a state fiscal year may not exceed the entity's base year revenue. For each state fiscal year beginning after June 30, 2002, the treasurer of state shall pay that part of the riverboat wagering taxes that:

- (1) exceeds a particular city or county's base year revenue; and
- (2) would otherwise be due to the city or county under this section;

to the property tax replacement fund instead of to the city or county.

(d) Each state fiscal year the treasurer of state shall transfer from the tax revenue remitted to the property tax replacement fund under subsection (a)(3) to the build Indiana fund an amount that when added to the following may not exceed two hundred fifty million dollars ($250,000,000):

- (1) Surplus lottery revenues under IC 4-30-17-3.
- (2) Surplus revenue from the charity gaming enforcement fund under IC 4-32-10-6.
- (3) Tax revenue from pari-mutuel wagering under IC 4-31-9-3.

The treasurer of state shall make transfers on a monthly basis as needed to meet the obligations of the build Indiana fund. If in any state fiscal year insufficient money is transferred to the property tax replacement fund under subsection (a)(3) to comply with this subsection, the treasurer of state shall reduce the amount transferred to the build Indiana fund to the amount available in the property tax replacement fund from the transfers under subsection (a)(3) for the state fiscal year.

(e) Before August 15 of 2003 and each year thereafter, the treasurer of state shall distribute the wagering taxes set aside for revenue sharing under subsection (a)(1) to the county treasurer of each county that does not have a riverboat according to the ratio that the county's population bears to the total population of the counties that do not have a riverboat. Except as provided in subsection (h), the county auditor shall distribute the money received by the county under this subsection as follows:

- (1) To each city located in the county according to the ratio the city's population bears to the total population of the county.
- (2) To each town located in the county according to the ratio the town's population bears to the total population of the county.
- (3) After the distributions required in subdivisions (1) and (2) are made, the remainder shall be retained by the county.

(f) Money received by a city, town, or county under subsection (e) or (h) may be used for any of the following purposes:

- (1) To reduce the property tax levy of the city, town, or county for a particular year (a property tax reduction under this subdivision does not reduce the maximum levy of the city, town, or county under IC 6-1.1-18.5);
- (2) For deposit in a special fund or allocation fund created under IC 8-22-3.5, IC 36-7-14, IC 36-7-14.5, IC 36-7-15.1, and IC 36-7-30 to provide funding for additional credits for property tax replacement in property tax increment allocation areas or debt repayment.

(3) To fund sewer and water projects, including storm water management projects.

(4) For police and fire pensions.

(5) To carry out any governmental purpose for which the money is appropriated by the fiscal body of the city, town, or county. Money used under this subdivision does not reduce the property tax levy of the city, town, or county for a particular year or reduce the maximum levy of the city, town, or county under IC 6-1.1-18.5.

(g) This subsection does not apply to an entity receiving money under IC 4-33-12-6(c). Before September 15 of 2003 and each year thereafter, the treasurer of state shall determine the total amount of money distributed to an entity under IC 4-33-12-6 during the preceding state fiscal year. If the treasurer of state determines that the total amount of money distributed to an entity under IC 4-33-12-6 during the preceding state fiscal year was less than the entity's base year revenue (as determined under IC 4-33-12-6), the treasurer of state shall make a supplemental distribution to the entity from taxes collected under this chapter and deposited into the property tax replacement fund. The amount of the supplemental distribution is equal to the difference between the entity's base year revenue (as determined under IC 4-33-12-6) and the total amount of money distributed to the entity during the preceding state fiscal year under IC 4-33-12-6.

(h) This section subsection applies only to a county containing a consolidated city. The county auditor shall distribute the money received by the county under subsection (d) as follows:

(1) To each city, other than a consolidated city, located in the county according to the ratio that the city's population bears to the total population of the county.

(2) To each town located in the county according to the ratio that the town's population bears to the total population of the county.

(3) After the distributions required in subdivisions (1) and (2) are made, the remainder shall be paid in equal amounts to the consolidated city and the county.

(g) For an economic revitalization area designated before July 1, 2000, the designating body shall determine whether a property owner whose statement of benefits is approved after April 30, 1991, is entitled to a deduction for five (5) or ten (10) years. For an economic revitalization area designated after June 30, 2000, the designating body shall determine the number of years the deduction is allowed. However, the deduction may not be allowed for more than ten (10) years. This determination shall be made:

- (1) as part of the resolution adopted under section 2.5 of this chapter; or
- (2) by resolution adopted within sixty (60) days after receiving a copy of a property owner's certified deduction application from the county auditor. A certified copy of the resolution shall be sent to the county auditor.

A determination about the number of years the deduction is allowed that is made under subdivision (1) is final and may not be changed by following the procedure under subdivision (2).

(h) The owner of new manufacturing equipment that is directly used to dispose of hazardous waste is not entitled to the deduction provided by this section for a particular assessment year if during that assessment year the owner:

- (1) is convicted of a violation under IC 13-7-13-3 (repealed), IC 13-7-13-4 (repealed), or IC 13-30-6; or
- (2) is subject to an order or a consent decree with respect to property located in Indiana based on a violation of a federal or state rule, regulation, or statute governing the treatment, storage, or disposal of hazardous wastes that had a major or moderate potential for harm.

SECTION 21. IC 6-1.1-21-4, AS AMENDED BY P.L.245-2003, SECTION 19, AND AS AMENDED BY P.L.264-2003, SECTION 12, IS CORRECTED AND AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 4. (a) Each year the department shall allocate from the property tax replacement fund an amount equal to the sum of:

- (1) each county's total eligible property tax replacement amount for that year; plus
- (2) the total amount of homestead tax credits that are provided under IC 6-1.1-20.9 and allowed by each county for that year; plus
- (3) an amount for each county that has one (1) or more taxing districts that contain all or part of an economic development district that meets the requirements of section 5.5 of this chapter. This amount is the sum of the amounts determined under the following STEPS for all taxing districts in the county that contain all or part of an economic development district:

STEP ONE: Determine that part of the sum of the amounts under section 2(g)(1)(A) and 2(g)(2) of this chapter that is attributable to the taxing district.

STEP TWO: Divide:

(A) that part of the subdivision (1) amount that is attributable to the taxing district; by

(B) the STEP ONE sum.

STEP THREE: Multiply:

(A) the STEP TWO quotient; times

(B) the taxes levied in the taxing district that are allocated to a special fund under IC 6-1.1-39-5.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (e), between March 1 and August 31 of each year, the department shall distribute to each county treasurer from the property tax replacement fund one-half (1/2) of the estimated distribution for that year for the county. Between September 1 and December 15 of that year, the department shall distribute to each county treasurer from the property tax replacement fund the remaining one-half (1/2) of each estimated distribution for that year. The amount of the distribution for each of these periods shall be according to a schedule determined by the property tax replacement fund board under section 10 of this chapter. The estimated distribution for each county may be adjusted from time to time by the department to reflect any changes in the total county tax levy upon which the estimated distribution is based.

(c) On or before December 31 of each year or as soon thereafter as possible, the department shall make a final determination of the amount which should be distributed from the property tax replacement fund to each county for that calendar year. This determination shall be known as the final determination of distribution. The department shall distribute to the county treasurer or receive back from the county treasurer any deficit or excess, as the case may be, between the sum of the distributions made for that calendar year based on the estimated distribution and the final determination of distribution. The final determination of distribution shall be based on the auditor's abstract filed with the auditor of state, adjusted for postabstract adjustments included in the December settlement sheet for the year, and such additional information as the department may require.

(d) All distributions provided for in this section shall be made on warrants issued by the auditor of state drawn on the treasurer of state. If the amounts allocated by the department from the property tax replacement fund exceed in the aggregate the balance of money in the fund, then the amount of the deficiency shall be transferred from the state general fund to the property tax replacement fund, and the auditor of state shall issue a warrant to the treasurer of state ordering the payment of that amount. However, any amount transferred under this section from the general fund to the property tax replacement fund shall, as soon as funds are available in the property tax replacement fund, be retransferred from the property tax replacement fund to the state general fund, and the auditor of state shall issue a warrant to the treasurer of state ordering the replacement of that amount.

(e) Except as provided in subsection (i), the department shall not distribute under subsection (b) and section 10 of this chapter the money attributable to the county's property reassessment fund if:

(1) by the date the distribution is scheduled to be made, ~~(1)~~ the county auditor has not sent a certified statement required to be sent by that date under IC 6-1.1-17-1 to the department of local government finance; ~~or~~

(2) by the deadline under IC 36-2-9-20, the county auditor has not transmitted data as required under that section; or

~~(2)~~ (3) the county assessor has not forwarded to the department of local government finance the duplicate copies of all approved exemption applications required to be forwarded by that date under IC 6-1.1-11-8(a).

(f) Except as provided in subsection (i), if the elected township assessors in the county, the elected township assessors and the county assessor, or the county assessor has not transmitted to the department of local government finance by October 1 of the year in which the distribution is scheduled to be made the data for all townships in the county required to be transmitted under IC 6-1.1-4-25(b), the state board or the department shall not distribute under subsection (b) and section 10 of this chapter a part of the money attributable to the county's property reassessment fund. The portion not distributed is the amount that bears the same proportion to the total potential distribution as the number of townships in the county for which data was not transmitted by ~~August 1~~ October 1 as described in this section bears to the total number of townships in the county.

(g) Money not distributed ~~under subsection (e)~~ for the reasons stated in subsection (e)(1) and (e)(2) shall be distributed to the county when:

(1) the county auditor sends to the department of local government finance the certified statement required to be sent under IC 6-1.1-17-1; and

(2) the county assessor forwards to the department of local government finance the approved exemption applications required to be forwarded under IC 6-1.1-11-8(a);

with respect to which the failure to send or forward resulted in the withholding of the distribution under subsection (e).

(h) Money not distributed under subsection (f) shall be distributed to the county when the elected township assessors in the county, the elected township assessors and the county assessor, or the county assessor transmits to the department of local government finance the data required to be transmitted under IC 6-1.1-4-25(b) with respect to which the failure to transmit resulted in the withholding of the distribution under subsection (f).

(i) The restrictions on distributions under subsections (e) and (f) do not apply if the department of local government finance determines that:

(1) the failure of:

(A) a county auditor to send a certified statement; or

(B) a county assessor to forward copies of all approved exemption applications;

as described in subsection (e); or

(2) the failure of an official to transmit data as described in subsection (f);

is justified by unusual circumstances.

SECTION 22. IC 6-1.1-24-7, AS AMENDED BY P.L.1-2003, SECTION 28, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 7. (a) When real property is sold under this chapter, the purchaser at the sale shall immediately pay the amount of the bid to the county treasurer. The county treasurer shall apply the payment in the following manner:

- (1) first, to the taxes, special assessments, penalties, and costs described in section 5(e) of this chapter;
- (2) second, to other delinquent property taxes in the manner provided in IC 6-1.1-23-5(b); and
- (3) third, to a separate "tax sale surplus fund".

(b) The:

- (1) owner of record of the real property at the time the tax deed is issued who is divested of ownership by the issuance of a tax deed; or
- (2) tax sale purchaser or purchaser's assignee, upon redemption of the tract or item of real property;

may file a verified claim for money which is deposited in the tax sale surplus fund. If the claim is approved by the county auditor and the county treasurer, the county auditor shall issue a warrant to the claimant for the amount due.

(c) If the person described in subsection (b)(1) acquired the property from a delinquent taxpayer after the property was sold at a tax sale under this chapter, the county auditor may not issue a warrant to the person unless the person is named on a tax sale surplus fund disclosure form filed with the county auditor under ~~IC 32-2-8 (repealed)~~. IC 32-21-8.

(d) An amount deposited in the tax sale surplus fund shall be transferred by the county auditor to the county general fund and may not be disbursed under subsection (b) if it is not claimed within the three (3) year period after the date of its receipt.

(e) If an amount applied to taxes under this section is later paid out of the county general fund to the purchaser or the purchaser's successor due to the invalidity of the sale, all the taxes shall be reinstated and recharged to the tax duplicate and collected in the same manner as if the property had not been offered for sale.

(f) When a refund is made to any purchaser or purchaser's successor by reason of the invalidity of a sale, the county auditor shall, at the December settlement immediately following the refund, deduct the amount of the refund from the gross collections in the taxing district in which the land lies and shall pay that amount into the county general fund.

SECTION 23. IC 6-1.1-25-4.6, AS AMENDED BY P.L.170-2003,

SECTION 12, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 4.6. (a) After the expiration of the redemption period specified in section 4 of this chapter but not later than six (6) months after the expiration of the period of redemption:

- (1) the purchaser, the purchaser's assignee, the county, or the purchaser of the certificate of sale under IC 6-1.1-24 may; or
- (2) in a county where the county auditor and county treasurer have an agreement under section 4.7 of this chapter, the county auditor shall, upon the request of the purchaser or the purchaser's assignee;

file a verified petition in the same court and under the same cause number in which the judgment of sale was entered asking the court to direct the county auditor to issue a tax deed if the real property is not redeemed from the sale. Notice of the filing of this petition shall be given to the same parties and in the same manner as provided in section 4.5 of this chapter, except that, if notice is given by publication, only one (1) publication is required. The notice required by this section is considered sufficient if the notice is sent to the address required by section ~~4.5(d)~~ 4.5(e) of this chapter. Any person owning or having an interest in the tract or real property may file a written objection to the petition with the court not later than thirty (30) days after the date the petition was filed. If a written objection is timely filed, the court shall conduct a hearing on the objection.

(b) Not later than sixty-one (61) days after the petition is filed under subsection (a), the court shall enter an order directing the county auditor (on the production of the certificate of sale and a copy of the order) to issue to the petitioner a tax deed if the court finds that the following conditions exist:

- (1) The time of redemption has expired.
- (2) The tract or real property has not been redeemed from the sale before the expiration of the period of redemption specified in section 4 of this chapter.
- (3) Except with respect to a petition for the issuance of a tax deed under a sale of the certificate of sale on the property under IC 6-1.1-24-6.1, all taxes and special assessments, penalties, and costs have been paid.
- (4) The notices required by this section and section 4.5 of this chapter have been given.

(5) The petitioner has complied with all the provisions of law entitling the petitioner to a deed.

The county auditor shall execute deeds issued under this subsection in the name of the state under the county auditor's name. If a certificate of sale is lost before the execution of a deed, the county auditor shall issue a replacement certificate if the county auditor is satisfied that the original certificate existed.

(c) Upon application by the grantee of a valid tax deed in the same court and under the same cause number in which the judgment of sale was entered, the court shall enter an order to place the grantee of a valid tax deed in possession of the real estate. The court may enter any orders and grant any relief that is necessary or desirable to place or maintain the grantee of a valid tax deed in possession of the real estate.

(d) Except as provided in subsections (e) and (f), if the court refuses to enter an order directing the county auditor to execute and deliver the tax deed because of the failure of the petitioner under subsection (a) to fulfill the requirements of this section, the court shall order the return of the purchase price minus a penalty of twenty-five percent (25%) of the amount of the purchase price. Penalties paid under this subsection shall be deposited in the county general fund.

(e) Notwithstanding subsection (d), in all cases in which:

- (1) the petitioner under subsection (a) has made a bona fide attempt to comply with the statutory requirements under subsection (b) for the issuance of the tax deed but has failed to comply with these requirements; and
- (2) the court refuses to enter an order directing the county auditor to execute and deliver the tax deed because of the failure to comply with these requirements;

the county auditor shall not execute the deed but shall refund the purchase money plus six percent (6%) interest per annum from the county treasury to the purchaser, the purchaser's successors or assignees, or the purchaser of the certificate of sale under IC 6-1.1-24. The tract or item of real property, if it is then eligible for sale under IC 6-1.1-24, shall be placed on the delinquent list as an initial offering under IC 6-1.1-24-6.

(f) Notwithstanding subsections (d) and (e), the court shall not order the return of the purchase price if:

- (1) the purchaser or the purchaser of the certificate of sale under

IC 6-1.1-24 has failed to provide notice or has provided insufficient notice as required by section 4.5 of this chapter; and
(2) the sale is otherwise valid.

(g) A tax deed executed under this section vests in the grantee an estate in fee simple absolute, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances created or suffered before or after the tax sale except those liens granted priority under federal law, and the lien of the state or a political subdivision for taxes and special assessments that accrue subsequent to the sale. However, the estate is subject to all easements, covenants, declarations, and other deed restrictions and laws governing land use, including all zoning restrictions and liens and encumbrances created or suffered by the purchaser at the tax sale. The deed is prima facie evidence of:

- (1) the regularity of the sale of the real property described in the deed;
- (2) the regularity of all proper proceedings; and
- (3) valid title in fee simple in the grantee of the deed.

(h) A tax deed issued under this section is incontestable except by appeal from the order of the court directing the county auditor to issue the tax deed filed not later than sixty (60) days after the date of the court's order.

SECTION 24. IC 6-1.5-5-1, AS AMENDED BY P.L.1-2003, SECTION 31, AND AS AMENDED BY P.L.245-2003, SECTION 22, IS CORRECTED AND AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 1. (a) The Indiana board shall conduct impartial review of all appeals of final determinations of the department of local government finance made under the following:

- (1) IC 6-1.1-8.
- (2) IC 6-1.1-14-11.
- (3) IC 6-1.1-16.
- (4) IC 6-1.1-26-2.

(b) Each notice of final determination issued by the department of local government finance under a statute listed in subsection (a) must give the taxpayer notice of:

- (1) the opportunity for review under this section; and
- (2) the procedures the taxpayer must follow in order to obtain review under this section.

(c) Except as provided in subsection (e), in order to obtain a review by the Indiana board under this section, the taxpayer must file a petition for review with the appropriate county assessor within not later than forty-five (45) days after the notice of the department of local government finance's action is given to the taxpayer.

(d) The county assessor shall transmit a petition for review under subsection (c) to the Indiana board within not later than ten (10) days after ~~it~~ the petition is filed.

(e) In order to obtain a review by the Indiana board of an appeal of a final determination of the department of local government finance under IC 6-1.1-8-30, the public utility company must follow the procedures in IC 6-1.1-8-30.

(f) In order to obtain a review by the Indiana board of an appeal of a final determination of the department of local government finance under IC 6-1.1-12.1-5.7(h) (repealed) IC 6-1.1-12.1-5.4(h), the person must follow the procedures in IC 6-1.1-12.1-5.7(h) (repealed); IC 6-1.1-12.1-5.4(h).

SECTION 25. IC 6-2.5-1-21, AS ADDED BY P.L.257-2003, SECTION 12, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 21. (a) "Lease" or "rental" means any transfer of possession or control of tangible personal property for a fixed or indeterminate term for consideration and may include future options to purchase or extend. "Lease" or "rental" does not include:

(1) a transfer of possession or control of property under a security agreement or deferred payment plan that requires the transfer of title upon completion of the required payments;

(2) a transfer ~~or~~ of possession or control of property under an agreement that requires the transfer of title upon completion of required payments and payment of an option price that does not exceed the greater of one hundred dollars ($100) or one percent (1%) of the total required payments; or

(3) providing tangible personal property along with an operator for a fixed or indeterminate period, if:

(A) the operator is necessary for the equipment to perform as designed; and

(B) the operator does more than maintain, inspect, or set up the tangible personal property.

(b) "Lease" or "rental" includes agreements covering motor vehicles and trailers in which the amount of consideration may be increased or decreased by reference to the amount realized upon sale or disposition of the property as defined in 26 U.S.C. 7701(h)(1).

(c) The definition of "lease" or "rental" set forth in this section applies throughout this article, regardless of whether a transaction is characterized as a lease or rental under generally accepted accounting principles, the Internal Revenue Code, the uniform commercial code (IC 26-1), or other provisions of federal, state, or local law.

(d) This section applies only to leases or rentals entered into after June 30, 2003, and has no retroactive effect on leases or rentals entered into before July 1, 2003.

SECTION 26. IC 6-2.5-6-13, AS AMENDED BY P.L.1-2003, SECTION 32, AND AS AMENDED BY P.L.269-2003, SECTION 3, IS CORRECTED AND AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 13. A person is entitled to a refund from the department if:

- (1) a retail merchant erroneously or illegally collects state gross retail or use taxes under this article from the person;
- (2) the retail merchant remits the taxes to the department;
- (3) the retail merchant does not refund the taxes to the person; and
- (4) the person properly applies for the refund under the refund provisions of the gross income tax law contained in ~~IC 6-2.1~~ (repeated) IC 6-8.1-9.

SECTION 27. IC 6-2.5-6-14.1 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 14.1. Notwithstanding the refund provisions of this article as incorporated from the gross income tax law (IC 6-2.1, repealed), a retail merchant is not entitled to a refund of state gross retail or use taxes unless the retail merchant refunds those taxes to the person from whom they were collected.

SECTION 28. IC 6-2.5-6-14.2 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 14.2. (a) The department shall annually compile a list of retail merchants that sell tobacco products. The list must include the following information:

- (1) On a county by county basis:
 - (A) the name of each retail merchant that sells tobacco products in the county; and

(B) the business address of each location in the county at which a retail merchant sells tobacco products.

(2) The name and business address of each retail merchant that has begun to sell tobacco products since the previous report was compiled.

(3) The name and business address of each retail merchant that has ceased to sell tobacco products since the previous report was compiled.

(b) The department shall deliver each list prepared under this section to:

(1) the division of mental health and addiction; and

(2) the alcohol and tobacco commission.

(c) A retail merchant that sells tobacco products shall provide the department with the information required for the preparation of the list under this section.

(d) The department shall prescribe a form to be used in collecting information under this section from retail merchants that sell tobacco products. A form prescribed under this subsection may be a modified version of an existing form.

SECTION 29. IC 6-3.5-1.1-3.6, AS AMENDED BY P.L.1-2003, SECTION 40, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 3.6. (a) This section applies only to a county having a population of more than six thousand (6,000) but less than eight thousand (8,000).

(b) The county council may, by ordinance, determine that additional county adjusted gross income tax revenue is needed in the county to:

(1) finance, construct, acquire, improve, renovate, or equip the county courthouse; and

(2) repay bonds issued, or leases entered into, for constructing, acquiring, improving, renovating, and equipping the county courthouse.

(c) In addition to the rates permitted under section 2 of this chapter, the county council may impose the county adjusted gross income tax at a rate of twenty-five hundredths percent (0.25%) on the adjusted gross income of county taxpayers if the county council makes the finding and determination set forth in subsection (b). The tax imposed under this section may be imposed only until the later of the date on which the financing on, acquisition, improvement, renovation, and equipping described in subsection (b) is completed or the date on which the last of any bonds issued or leases entered into to finance the construction, acquisition, improvement, renovation, and equipping described in subsection (b) are fully paid. The term of the bonds issued (including any refunding bonds) or a lease entered into under subsection (b)(2) may not exceed twenty-two (22) years.

(d) If the county council makes a determination under subsection (b), the county council may adopt a tax rate under subsection (c). The tax rate may not be imposed for a time greater than is necessary to pay the costs of financing, constructing, acquiring, renovating, and equipping the county courthouse.

(e) The county treasurer shall establish a county ~~jail~~ courthouse revenue fund to be used only for purposes described in this section. County adjusted gross income tax revenues derived from the tax rate imposed under this section shall be deposited in the county ~~jail~~ courthouse revenue fund before a certified distribution is made under section 11 of this chapter.

(f) County adjusted gross income tax revenues derived from the tax rate imposed under this section:

- (1) may only be used for the purposes described in this section;
- (2) may not be considered by the department of local government finance in determining the county's maximum permissible property tax levy under IC 6-1.1-18.5; and
- (3) may be pledged to the repayment of bonds issued or leases entered into for purposes described in subsection (b).

(g) A county described in subsection (a) possesses unique economic development challenges due to:

- (1) the county's heavy agricultural base;
- (2) the presence of a large amount of state owned property in the county that is exempt from property taxation; and
- (3) recent obligations of the school corporation in the county that have already increased property taxes in the county and imposed additional property tax burdens on the county's agricultural base.

Maintaining low property tax rates is essential to economic development. The use of county adjusted gross income tax revenues as provided in this chapter to pay any bonds issued or leases entered into to finance the construction, acquisition, improvement, renovation, and equipping described in subsection (b), rather than the use of property taxes, promotes that purpose.

(h) Notwithstanding any other law, funds accumulated from the county adjusted gross income tax imposed under this section after:

(1) the redemption of the bonds issued; or

(2) the final payment of lease rentals due under a lease entered into under this section; shall be transferred to the county highway fund to be used for construction, resurfacing, restoration, and rehabilitation of county highways, roads, and bridges.

SECTION 30. IC 6-3.5-6-13, AS AMENDED BY P.L.224-2003, SECTION 247, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 13. (a) A county income tax council of a county in which the county option income tax is in effect may adopt an ordinance to increase the percentage credit allowed for homesteads in its county under IC 6-1.1-20.9-2.

(b) A county income tax council may not increase the percentage credit allowed for homesteads by an amount that exceeds the amount determined in the last STEP of the following formula:

STEP ONE: Determine the amount of the sum of all property tax levies for all taxing units in a county which are to be paid in the county in 2003 as reflected by the auditor's abstract for the 2002 assessment year, adjusted, however, for any postabstract adjustments which change the amount of the levies.

STEP TWO: Determine the amount of the county's estimated property tax replacement under IC 6-1.1-21-3(a) for property taxes first due and payable in 2003.

STEP THREE: Subtract the STEP TWO amount from the STEP ONE amount.

STEP FOUR: Determine the amount of the county's total county levy (as defined in IC 6-1.1-21-2(g)) for property taxes first due and payable in 2003.

STEP FIVE: Subtract the STEP FOUR amount from the STEP ONE amount.

STEP SIX: Subtract the STEP FIVE result from the STEP THREE result.

STEP SEVEN: Divide the STEP THREE result by the STEP SIX result.

STEP EIGHT: Multiply the STEP SEVEN result by eight-hundredths (0.08).

STEP NINE: Round the STEP EIGHT product to the nearest one-thousandth (0.001) and express the result as a percentage.

(c) The increase of the homestead credit percentage must be uniform for all homesteads in a county.

(d) In the ordinance that increases the homestead credit percentage, a county income tax council may provide for a series of increases or decreases to take place for each of a group of succeeding calendar years.

(e) An ordinance may be adopted under this section after January 1 but before June 1 of a calendar year.

(f) An ordinance adopted under this section takes effect on January 1 of the next succeeding calendar year.

(g) Any ordinance adopted under this section for a county is repealed for a year if on January 1 of that year the county option income tax is not in effect.

SECTION 31. IC 6-3.5-7-5, AS AMENDED BY P.L.224-2003, SECTION 254, AND AS AMENDED BY P.L.42-2003, SECTION 5, IS CORRECTED AND AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 5. (a) Except as provided in subsection (c), the county economic development income tax may be imposed on the adjusted gross income of county taxpayers. The entity that may impose the tax is:

(1) the county income tax council (as defined in IC 6-3.5-6-1) if the county option income tax is in effect on January 1 of the year the county economic development income tax is imposed;

(2) the county council if the county adjusted gross income tax is in effect on January 1 of the year the county economic development tax is imposed; or

(3) the county income tax council or the county council, whichever acts first, for a county not covered by subdivision (1) or (2).

To impose the county economic development income tax, a county income tax council shall use the procedures set forth in IC 6-3.5-6 concerning the imposition of the county option income tax.

(b) Except as provided in subsections (c), (g), (k), ~~and~~ (p), and (r) the county economic development income tax may be imposed at a rate of:

- (1) one-tenth percent (0.1%);
- (2) two-tenths percent (0.2%);
- (3) twenty-five hundredths percent (0.25%);
- (4) three-tenths percent (0.3%);
- (5) thirty-five hundredths percent (0.35%);
- (6) four-tenths percent (0.4%);
- (7) forty-five hundredths percent (0.45%); or
- (8) five-tenths percent (0.5%);

on the adjusted gross income of county taxpayers.

(c) Except as provided in subsection (h), (i), (j), (k), (l), (m), (n), (o), or (p), the county economic development income tax rate plus the county adjusted gross income tax rate, if any, that are in effect on January 1 of a year may not exceed one and twenty-five hundredths percent (1.25%). Except as provided in subsection (g) or (p), the county economic development tax rate plus the county option income tax rate, if any, that are in effect on January 1 of a year may not exceed one percent (1%).

(d) To impose, increase, decrease, or rescind the county economic development income tax, the appropriate body must, after January 1 but before April 1 of a year, adopt an ordinance. The ordinance to impose the tax must substantially state the following:

"The _____ County _____ imposes the county economic development income tax on the county taxpayers of _____ County. The county economic development income tax is imposed at a rate of _____ percent (____%) on the county taxpayers of the county. This tax takes effect July 1 of this year."

(e) Any ordinance adopted under this chapter takes effect July 1 of the year the ordinance is adopted.

(f) The auditor of a county shall record all votes taken on ordinances presented for a vote under the authority of this chapter and shall, not more than ten (10) days after the vote, send a certified copy of the results to the commissioner of the department by certified mail.

(g) This subsection applies to a county having a population of more than one hundred forty-eight thousand (148,000) but less than one hundred seventy thousand (170,000). Except as provided in subsection (p), in addition to the rates permitted by subsection (b), the:

- (1) county economic development income tax may be imposed at a rate of:

- (A) fifteen-hundredths percent (0.15%);
- (B) two-tenths percent (0.2%); or
- (C) twenty-five hundredths percent (0.25%); and

(2) county economic development income tax rate plus the county option income tax rate that are in effect on January 1 of a year may equal up to one and twenty-five hundredths percent (1.25%); if the county income tax council makes a determination to impose rates under this subsection and section 22 of this chapter.

(h) For a county having a population of more than forty-one thousand (41,000) but less than forty-three thousand (43,000), except as provided in subsection (p), the county economic development income tax rate plus the county adjusted gross income tax rate that are in effect on January 1 of a year may not exceed one and thirty-five hundredths percent (1.35%) if the county has imposed the county adjusted gross income tax at a rate of one and one-tenth percent (1.1%) under IC 6-3.5-1.1-2.5.

(i) For a county having a population of more than thirteen thousand five hundred (13,500) but less than fourteen thousand (14,000), except as provided in subsection (p), the county economic development income tax rate plus the county adjusted gross income tax rate that are in effect on January 1 of a year may not exceed one and fifty-five hundredths percent (1.55%).

(j) For a county having a population of more than seventy-one thousand (71,000) but less than seventy-one thousand four hundred (71,400), except as provided in subsection (p), the county economic development income tax rate plus the county adjusted gross income tax rate that are in effect on January 1 of a year may not exceed one and five-tenths percent (1.5%).

(k) This subsection applies to a county having a population of more than twenty-seven thousand four hundred (27,400) but less than twenty-seven thousand five hundred (27,500). Except as provided in subsection (p), in addition to the rates permitted under subsection (b):

- (1) the county economic development income tax may be imposed at a rate of twenty-five hundredths percent (0.25%); and
- (2) the sum of the county economic development income tax rate and the county adjusted gross income tax rate that are in effect on January 1 of a year may not exceed one and five-tenths percent

if the county council makes a determination to impose rates under this subsection and section 22.5 of this chapter.

(l) For a county having a population of more than twenty-nine thousand (29,000) but less than thirty thousand (30,000), except as provided in subsection (p), the county economic development income tax rate plus the county adjusted gross income tax rate that are in effect on January 1 of a year may not exceed one and five-tenths percent (1.5%).

(m) For:

(1) a county having a population of more than one hundred eighty-two thousand seven hundred ninety (182,790) but less than two hundred thousand (200,000); or

(2) a county having a population of more than forty-five thousand (45,000) but less than forty-five thousand nine hundred (45,900);

except as provided in subsection (p), the county economic development income tax rate plus the county adjusted gross income tax rate that are in effect on January 1 of a year may not exceed one and five-tenths percent (1.5%).

(n) For a county having a population of more than six thousand (6,000) but less than eight thousand (8,000), except as provided in subsection (p), the county economic development income tax rate plus the county adjusted gross income tax rate that are in effect on January 1 of a year may not exceed one and five-tenths percent (1.5%).

(o) This subsection applies to a county having a population of more than thirty-nine thousand (39,000) but less than thirty-nine thousand six hundred (39,600). Except as provided in subsection (p), in addition to the rates permitted under subsection (b):

(1) the county economic development income tax may be imposed at a rate of twenty-five hundredths percent (0.25%); and

(2) the sum of the county economic development income tax rate and:

(A) the county adjusted gross income tax rate that are in effect on January 1 of a year may not exceed one and five-tenths percent (1.5%); or

(B) the county option income tax rate that are in effect on January 1 of a year may not exceed one and twenty-five hundredths percent (1.25%);

if the county council makes a determination to impose rates under this subsection and section 24 of this chapter.

(p) In addition:

(1) the county economic development income tax may be imposed at a rate that exceeds by not more than twenty-five hundredths percent (0.25%) the maximum rate that would otherwise apply under this section; and

(2) the:

(A) county economic development income tax; and may be imposed at combined rates that exceed by not more than twenty-five hundredths percent (0.25%) the maximum combined rates that would otherwise apply under this section.

(B) county option income tax or county adjusted gross income tax;

However, the additional rate imposed under this subsection may not exceed the amount necessary to mitigate the increased ad valorem property taxes on homesteads (as defined in IC 6-1.1-20.9-1) resulting from the deduction of the assessed value of inventory in the county under IC 6-1.1-12-41 or IC 6-1.1-12-42.

(q) If the county economic development income tax is imposed as authorized under subsection (p) at a rate that exceeds the maximum rate that would otherwise apply under this section, the certified distribution must be used for the purpose provided in section 25(e) or 26 of this chapter to the extent that the certified distribution results from the difference between:

(1) the actual county economic development tax rate; and

(2) the maximum rate that would otherwise apply under this section.

(r) This subsection applies only to a county described in section 27 of this chapter. Except as provided in subsection (p), in addition to the rates permitted by subsection (b), the:

(1) county economic development income tax may be imposed at a rate of twenty-five hundredths percent (0.25%); and if the county council makes a determination to impose rates under this subsection and section 27 of this chapter.

(2) county economic development income tax rate plus the county option income tax rate that are in effect on January 1 of a year may equal up to one and twenty-five hundredths percent (1.25%);

~~(r)~~ (s) Except as provided in subsection (p), the county economic development income tax rate plus the county adjusted gross income tax rate that are in effect on January 1 of a year may not exceed one and five-tenths percent (1.5%) if the county has imposed the county adjusted gross income tax under IC 6-3.5-1.1-3.3.

SECTION 32. IC 6-3.5-7-12, AS AMENDED BY P.L.224-2003, SECTION 255, AND AS AMENDED BY P.L.255-2003, SECTION 6, IS CORRECTED AND AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 12. (a) Except as provided in sections 23, 25, ~~and~~ 26, ~~and~~ 27 of this chapter, the county auditor shall distribute in the manner specified in this section the certified distribution to the county.

(b) Except as provided in subsections (c) and (h) and sections 15 and 25 of this chapter, the amount of the certified distribution that the county and each city or town in a county is entitled to receive during May and November of each year equals the product of the following:

- (1) The amount of the certified distribution for that month; multiplied by
- (2) A fraction. The numerator of the fraction equals the sum of the following:

(A) Total property taxes that are first due and payable to the county, city, or town during the calendar year in which the month falls; plus

(B) For a county, an amount equal to

~~(i) the property taxes imposed by the county in 1999 for the county's welfare fund and welfare administration fund. plus~~
~~(ii) after December 31, 2004, the greater of zero (0) or the difference between the county hospital care for the indigent property tax levy imposed by the county in 2004; adjusted each year after 2004 by the statewide average assessed value growth quotient described in IC 12-16-14-3; minus the current uninsured parents program property tax levy imposed by the county.~~

The denominator of the fraction equals the sum of the total property taxes that are first due and payable to the county and all cities and towns of the county during the calendar year in which the month falls, plus an amount equal to the property taxes imposed by the county in 1999 for the county's welfare fund and welfare administration fund. and after December 31, 2004, the greater of zero (0) or the difference between the county hospital care for the indigent property tax levy imposed by the county in 2004, adjusted each year after 2004 by the statewide average assessed value growth quotient described in IC 12-16-14-3, minus the current uninsured parents program property tax levy imposed by the county.

(c) This subsection applies to a county council or county income tax council that imposes a tax under this chapter after June 1, 1992. The body imposing the tax may adopt an ordinance before July 1 of a year to provide for the distribution of certified distributions under this subsection instead of a distribution under subsection (b). The following apply if an ordinance is adopted under this subsection:

- (1) The ordinance is effective January 1 of the following year.
- (2) Except as provided in sections 25 and 26 of this chapter, the amount of the certified distribution that the county and each city and town in the county is entitled to receive during May and November of each year equals the product of:
 - (A) the amount of the certified distribution for the month; multiplied by
 - (B) a fraction. For a city or town, the numerator of the fraction equals the population of the city or the town. For a county, the numerator of the fraction equals the population of the part of the county that is not located in a city or town. The denominator of the fraction equals the sum of the population of all cities and towns located in the county and the population of the part of the county that is not located in a city or town.
- (3) The ordinance may be made irrevocable for the duration of specified lease rental or debt service payments.

(d) The body imposing the tax may not adopt an ordinance under subsection (c) if, before the adoption of the proposed ordinance, any of the following have pledged the county economic development income tax for any purpose permitted by IC 5-1-14 or any other statute:

- (1) The county.
- (2) A city or town in the county.
- (3) A commission, a board, a department, or an authority that is authorized by statute to pledge the county economic development income tax.

(e) The department of local government finance shall provide each county auditor with the fractional amount of the certified distribution that the county and each city or town in the county is entitled to receive under this section.

(f) Money received by a county, city, or town under this section shall be deposited in the unit's economic development income tax fund.

(g) Except as provided in subsection (b)(2)(B), in determining the fractional amount of the certified distribution the county and its cities and towns are entitled to receive under subsection (b) during a calendar year, the department of local government finance shall consider only property taxes imposed on tangible property subject to assessment in that county.

(h) In a county having a consolidated city, only the consolidated city is entitled to the certified distribution, subject to the requirements of sections 15, 25, and 26 of this chapter.

SECTION 33. IC 6-3.5-7-26, AS AMENDED BY P.L.1-2003, SECTION 46, AND AS AMENDED BY P.L.272-2003, SECTION 6, IS CORRECTED AND AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 26. (a) This section applies only to homestead credits for property taxes first due and payable after calendar year 2006.

(b) For purposes of this section, "adopting entity" means: ~~the entity that:~~

- (1) ~~the entity that~~ adopts an ordinance under IC 6-1.1-12-41(f); or
- (2) any other entity that may impose a county economic development income tax under section 5 of this chapter.

(c) An adopting entity may adopt an ordinance to provide for the use of the certified distribution described in section 16(c) of this chapter for the purpose provided in subsection (e). An adopting entity that adopts an ordinance under this subsection shall use the procedures set forth in IC 6-3.5-6 concerning the adoption of an ordinance for the imposition of the county option income tax. An ordinance must be adopted under this subsection after January 1 but before April 1 of a calendar year. The ordinance may provide for an additional rate under section 5(p) of this chapter. An ordinance adopted under this subsection:

- (1) first applies to the certified distribution described in section 16(c) of this chapter made in the later of the calendar year that immediately succeeds the calendar year in which the ordinance is adopted or calendar year 2007; and

(2) must specify that the certified distribution must be used for the purpose to provide for:

(A) uniformly applied increased homestead credits as provided in subsection ~~(e)~~ (f); or

(B) allocated increased homestead credits as provided in subsection (h).

An ordinance adopted under this subsection may be combined with an ordinance adopted under section 25 of this chapter.

(d) If an ordinance is adopted under subsection (c), the percentage of the certified distribution specified in the ordinance for use for the purpose provided in subsection (e) shall be:

(1) retained by the county auditor under subsection (g); and

(2) used for the purpose provided in subsection (e) instead of the purposes specified in the capital improvement plans adopted under section 15 of this chapter.

(e) If an ordinance is adopted under subsection (c), the adopting entity shall use the certified distribution described in section 16(c) of this chapter to increase the percentage of the homestead credit allowed in the county under IC 6-1.1-20.9 for a year to offset the effect on homesteads in the county resulting from the statewide deduction for inventory under IC 6-1.1-12-42.

(f) If the imposing entity specifies the application of uniform increased homestead credits under subsection (c)(2)(A), the county auditor shall, for each calendar year in which an increased homestead credit percentage is authorized under this section, determine:

(1) the amount of the certified distribution that is available to provide an increased homestead credit percentage for the year;

(2) the amount of uniformly applied homestead credits for the year in the county that equals the amount determined under subdivision (1); and

(3) the increased percentage of homestead credit that equates to the amount of homestead credits determined under subdivision (2).

~~(f)~~ (g) The increased percentage of homestead credit determined by the county auditor under subsection ~~(e)~~ (f) applies uniformly in the county in the calendar year for which the increased percentage is determined.

(h) If the imposing entity specifies the application of allocated increased homestead credits under subsection (c)(2)(B), the county auditor shall, for each calendar year in which an increased homestead credit is authorized under this section, determine:

- (1) the amount of the certified distribution that is available to provide an increased homestead credit for the year; and*
- (2) an increased percentage of homestead credit for each taxing district in the county that allocates to the taxing district an amount of increased homestead credits that bears the same proportion to the amount determined under subdivision (1) that the amount of inventory assessed value deducted under IC 6-1.1-12-42 in the taxing district for the immediately preceding year's assessment date bears to the total inventory assessed value deducted under IC 6-1.1-12-42 in the county for the immediately preceding year's assessment date.*

~~(g)~~ (i) The county auditor shall retain from the payments of the county's certified distribution an amount equal to the revenue lost, if any, due to the increase of the homestead credit within the county. The money shall be distributed to the civil taxing units and school corporations of the county:

- (1) as if the money were from property tax collections; and
- (2) in such a manner that no civil taxing unit or school corporation will suffer a net revenue loss because of the allowance of an increased homestead credit.

SECTION 34. IC 6-3.5-7-27, AS ADDED BY P.L.224-2003, SECTION 257, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 27. (a) This section applies to a county that:

- (1) operates a courthouse that is subject to an order that:
 - (A) is issued by a federal district court;
 - (B) applies to an action commenced before January 1, 2003; and
 - (C) requires the county to comply with the ~~American~~ federal Americans with Disabilities Act; and
- (2) has insufficient revenues to finance the construction, acquisition, improvement, renovation, equipping, and operation of the courthouse facilities and related facilities.
- (b) A county described in this section possesses unique fiscal challenges in financing, renovating, equipping, and operating the county courthouse facilities and related facilities because the county consistently has one ~~has one~~ of the highest unemployment rates in Indiana. Maintaining low property tax rates is essential to economic development in the county. The use of economic development income tax revenues under this section for the purposes described in subsection (c) promotes that purpose.

(c) In addition to actions authorized by section 5 of this chapter, a county council may, using the procedures set forth in this chapter, adopt an ordinance to impose an additional county economic development income tax on the adjusted gross income of county taxpayers. The ordinance imposing the additional tax must include a finding that revenues from additional tax are needed to pay the costs of:

- (1) constructing, acquiring, improving, renovating, equipping, or operating the county courthouse or related facilities;
- (2) repaying any bonds issued, or leases entered into, for constructing, acquiring, improving, renovating, equipping, or operating the county courthouse or related facilities; and
- (3) economic development projects described in the county's capital improvement plan.

(d) The tax rate imposed under this section may not exceed twenty-five hundredths percent (0.25%).

(e) If the county council adopts an ordinance to impose an additional tax under this section, the county auditor shall immediately send a certified copy of the ordinance to the department by certified mail. The county treasurer shall establish a county facilities revenue fund to be used only for the purposes described in subsection (c)(1) and (c)(2). The amount of county economic development income tax revenues derived from the tax rate imposed under this section that are necessary to pay the costs described in subsection (c)(1) and (c)(2) shall be deposited into the county facilities revenue fund before a certified distribution is made under section 12 of this chapter. The remainder shall be deposited into the economic development income tax funds of the county's units.

(f) County economic development income tax revenues derived from the tax rate imposed under this section may not be used for purposes other than those described in this section.

(g) County economic development income tax revenues derived from the tax rate imposed under this section that are deposited into the county facilities revenue fund may not be considered by the department of local government finance in determining the county's ad valorem property tax levy for an ensuing calendar year under IC 6-1.1-18.5.

(h) Notwithstanding section 5 of this chapter, ~~and an~~ ordinance may be adopted under this section at any time. If the ordinance is adopted before June 1 of a year, a tax rate imposed under this section takes effect July 1 of that year. If the ordinance is adopted after May 31 of a year, a tax rate imposed under this section takes effect on the January 1 immediately following adoption of the ordinance.

(i) For a county adopting an ordinance before June 1 in a year, in determining the certified distribution under section 11 of this chapter for the calendar year beginning with the immediately following January 1 and each calendar year thereafter, the department shall take into account the certified ordinance mailed to the department under subsection (e). For a county adopting an ordinance after May 31, the department shall issue an initial or ~~a~~ revised certified distribution for the calendar year beginning with the immediately following January 1. Except for a county adopting an ordinance after May 31, a county's certified distribution shall be distributed on the dates specified under section 16 of this chapter. In the case of a county adopting an ordinance after May 31, the county, beginning with the calendar year beginning on the immediately following January 1, shall receive the entire certified distribution for the calendar year on November 1 of the year.

(j) Notwithstanding any other law, funds accumulated from the county economic development income tax imposed under this section and deposited into the ~~the~~ county facilities revenue fund or any other revenues of the county may be deposited into a nonreverting fund of the county to be used for operating costs of the courthouse facilities, juvenile detention facilities, or related facilities. Amounts in the county nonreverting fund may not be used by the department of local government finance to reduce the county's ad valorem property tax levy for an ensuing calendar year under IC 6-1.1-18.5.

SECTION 35. IC 8-6-15-2, AS ADDED BY P.L.87-2003, SECTION 1, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 2. The department shall designate an abandoned or unused railroad grade crossing ~~under IC 9-21-12-5. as~~ abandoned or unused.

SECTION 36. IC 8-10-1-12, AS AMENDED BY P.L.271-2003, SECTION 12, AS AMENDED BY P.L.224-2003, SECTION 212, AND AS AMENDED BY P.L.165-2003, SECTION 1, IS CORRECTED AND AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 12. (a) A special and distinct revolving fund is hereby created, to be known as the Indiana port fund. Expenditures from said fund shall be made only for the following:

- (2) Studies in connection with the port or project.
- (3) Studies in connection with transportation by water, intermodal transportation, and other modes of transportation.
- (4) ~~(5)~~ Transfers to the fund established by IC 14-13-2-19 to carry out the purposes of IC 14-13-2.
- (5) ~~(4)~~ Administrative expenses of the commission.

The fund shall be held in the name of the Indiana port commission, shall be administered by the commission, and all expenditures therefrom shall be made by the commission, subject, however, to the approval by governor and the state budget committee of all expenditures of moneys advanced to said fund by the state of Indiana. Requests for such approval shall be made in such form as shall be prescribed by the budget committee, but expenditures for acquisition of land including lands under water and riparian rights, or options for the purchase of such land, shall be specifically requested and approved as to the land to be acquired and the amount to be expended. No transfers from said fund to any other fund of the state shall be made except pursuant to legislative action. All unexpended funds appropriated to the Indiana board of public harbors and terminals by Acts 1957, c.286, s.6, are hereby transferred to and made a part of the Indiana port fund created by this section, and shall be expended for the purpose and in the manner provided by this chapter, subject only to the restrictions contained in this chapter and no others. ~~provided~~, However, ~~that~~ not to exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) shall be expended for any purpose other than the acquisition of land, including lands under water and riparian rights, or options for the purchase of such land for a port or project site, and incidental expenses incurred in connection with such acquisition.

(b) Upon the sale of port revenue bonds for any port or project, the funds expended from the Indiana port fund in connection with the development of such port or project and any obligation or expense incurred by the commission for surveys, preparation of plans and specifications, and other engineering or other services in connection with development of such port or project shall be reimbursed to the state general fund from the proceeds of such bonds.

SECTION 37. IC 9-17-3-3, AS AMENDED BY P.L.268-2003, SECTION 8, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 3. (a) If a vehicle for which a certificate of title has been issued is sold or if the ownership of the vehicle is otherwise transferred, the person who holds the certificate of title must do the following:

(1) Endorse on the certificate of title an assignment of the certificate of title with warranty of title, in a form printed on the certificate of title, with a statement describing all liens or encumbrances on the vehicle.

(2) Except as provided in subdivisions (3) and (4), deliver the certificate of title to the purchaser or transferee at the time of the sale or delivery to the purchaser or transferee of the vehicle, if the purchaser or transferee has made all agreed upon initial payments for the vehicle, including delivery of a trade-in vehicle without hidden or undisclosed statutory liens.

(3) In the case of a sale or transfer between vehicle dealers licensed by this state or another state, deliver the certificate of title within twenty-one (21) days after the date of the sale or transfer.

(4) Deliver the certificate of title to the purchaser or transferee within twenty-one (21) days after the date of sale or transfer to the purchaser or transferee of the vehicle, if all of the following conditions exist:

(A) The seller or transferor is a vehicle dealer licensed by the state under IC 9-23.

(B) The vehicle dealer is not able to deliver the certificate of title at the time of sale or transfer.

(C) The vehicle dealer reasonably believes that it will be able to deliver the certificate of title, without a lien or an encumbrance on the certificate of title, within the twenty-one (21) day period.

(D) The vehicle dealer provides the purchaser or transferee with an affidavit under section 3.1 of this chapter.

(E) The purchaser or transferee has made all agreed upon initial payments for the vehicle, including delivery of a trade-in vehicle without hidden or undisclosed statutory liens.

(b) A licensed dealer may offer for sale a vehicle for which the dealer does not possess a certificate of title, if the dealer can comply with subsection (a)(3) or (a)(4) at the time of the sale.

(c) ~~For purposes of this subsection "timely deliver", with respect to a third party, means to deliver with a postmark dated or hand delivered to the purchaser or transferee not more than ten (10) business days after there is no obligation secured by the vehicle.~~ A vehicle dealer who fails to deliver a certificate of title within the time specified under this section is subject to the following civil penalties:

(1) One hundred dollars ($100) for the first violation.

(2) Two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for the second violation.

(3) Five hundred dollars ($500) for all subsequent violations.

Payment shall be made to the bureau and deposited in the state general fund. In addition, if a purchaser or transferee does not receive a valid certificate of title within the time specified by this section, the purchaser or transferee shall have the right to return the vehicle to the vehicle dealer ten (10) days after giving the vehicle dealer written notice demanding delivery of a valid certificate of title and the dealer's failure to deliver a valid certificate of title within that ten (10) day period. Upon return of the vehicle to the dealer in the same or similar condition as delivered to the purchaser or transferee under this section, the vehicle dealer shall pay to the purchaser or transferee the purchase price plus sales taxes, finance expenses, insurance expenses, and any other amount paid to the dealer by the purchaser.

(d) For purposes of this subsection, "timely deliver", with respect to a third party, means to deliver to the purchaser or transferee with a postmark dated or hand delivered not more than ten (10) business days after there is no obligation secured by the vehicle. If the dealer's inability to timely deliver a valid certificate of title results from the acts or omissions of a third party who has failed to timely deliver a valid certificate of title to the dealer, the dealer is entitled to claim against the third party one hundred dollars ($100). If:

- (1) the dealer's inability to timely deliver a valid certificate of title results from the acts or omissions of a third party who has failed to timely deliver the certificate of title in the third party's possession to the dealer; and
- (2) the failure continues for ten (10) business days after the dealer gives the third party written notice of the failure;

the dealer is entitled to claim against the third party all damages sustained by the dealer in rescinding the dealer's sale with the purchaser or transferee, including the dealer's reasonable attorney's fees.

~~(d)~~ (e) If a vehicle for which a certificate of title has been issued by another state is sold or delivered, the person selling or delivering the vehicle must deliver to the purchaser or receiver of the vehicle a proper certificate of title with an assignment of the certificate of title in a form prescribed by the bureau.

~~(e)~~ (f) The original certificate of title and all assignments and subsequent reissues of the certificate of title shall be retained by the bureau and appropriately classified and indexed in the most convenient manner to trace title to the vehicle described in the certificate of title.

~~(f)~~ (g) A dealer shall make payment to a third party to satisfy any obligation secured by the vehicle within five (5) days after the date of sale.

The amount by which a school corporation's expenditures under subsection (l) in the 2004 calendar year may exceed one percent (1%) of the school corporation's 2003 calendar year distribution is the least of the following:

- (1) One percent (1%) of the school corporation's 2003 calendar year distribution.
 - (2) The greater of zero (0) or the difference between:
 - (A) the sum of:
 - (i) the school corporation's calendar year distribution;

 - for the immediately preceding calendar year; minus
 - (B) the school corporation's calendar year distribution for the calendar year.

SECTION 81. IC 21-3-1.7-9.8, AS AMENDED BY P.L.224-2003, SECTION 166, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 9.8. (a) In addition to the distributions under sections 8.2, 9.5, 9.7, and 9.9 of this chapter, a school corporation is eligible for an honors diploma award in the amount determined under STEP TWO of the following formula:

STEP ONE: Determine the number of the school corporation's eligible pupils who successfully completed an academic honors diploma program in the school year ending in the previous calendar year.

STEP TWO: Multiply the STEP ONE amount by nine hundred sixty-three dollars ($963).

~~(c)~~ (b) Each year the governing body of a school corporation may use the money that the school corporation receives for an honors diploma award under this section to give nine hundred sixty-three dollars ($963) to each eligible pupil in the school corporation who successfully completes an academic honors diploma program in the school year ending in the previous calendar year.

SECTION 82. IC 22-4-15-1, AS AMENDED BY P.L.189-2003, SECTION 3, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 1. (a) With respect to benefit periods

established on and after July 6, 1980, an individual who has voluntarily left the individual's most recent employment without good cause in connection with the work or who was discharged from the individual's most recent employment for just cause is ineligible for waiting period or benefit rights for the week in which the disqualifying separation occurred and until the individual has earned remuneration in employment equal to or exceeding the weekly benefit amount of the individual's claim in each of eight (8) weeks. If the qualification amount has not been earned at the expiration of an individual's benefit period, the unearned amount shall be carried forward to an extended benefit period or to the benefit period of a subsequent claim.

(b) When it has been determined that an individual has been separated from employment under disqualifying conditions as outlined in this section, the maximum benefit amount of the individual's current claim, as initially determined, shall be reduced by twenty-five percent (25%). If twenty-five percent (25%) of the maximum benefit amount is not an even dollar amount, the amount of such reduction will be raised to the next higher even dollar amount. The maximum benefit amount may not be reduced by more than twenty-five percent (25%) during any benefit period or extended benefit period.

(c) The disqualifications provided in this section shall be subject to the following modifications:

(1) An individual shall not be subject to disqualification because of separation from the individual's employment if:

(A) the individual left to accept with another employer previously secured permanent full-time work which offered reasonable expectation of continued covered employment and betterment of wages or working conditions; and thereafter was employed on said job;

(B) having been simultaneously employed by two (2) employers, the individual leaves one (1) such employer voluntarily without good cause in connection with the work but remains in employment with the second employer with a reasonable expectation of continued employment; or

(C) the individual left to accept recall made by a base period employer.

(2) An individual whose unemployment is the result of medically substantiated physical disability and who is involuntarily unemployed after having made reasonable efforts to maintain the employment relationship shall not be subject to disqualification under this section for such separation.

(3) An individual who left work to enter the armed forces of the United States shall not be subject to disqualification under this section for such leaving of work.

(4) An individual whose employment is terminated under the compulsory retirement provision of a collective bargaining agreement to which the employer is a party, or under any other plan, system, or program, public or private, providing for compulsory retirement and who is otherwise eligible shall not be deemed to have left the individual's work voluntarily without good cause in connection with the work. However, if such individual subsequently becomes reemployed and thereafter voluntarily leaves work without good cause in connection with the work, the individual shall be deemed ineligible as outlined in this section.

(5) An otherwise eligible individual shall not be denied benefits for any week because the individual is in training approved under Section 236(a)(1) of the Trade Act of 1974, nor shall the individual be denied benefits by reason of leaving work to enter such training, provided the work left is not suitable employment, or because of the application to any week in training of provisions in this law (or any applicable federal unemployment compensation law), relating to availability for work, active search for work, or refusal to accept work. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "suitable employment" means with respect to an individual, work of a substantially equal or higher skill level than the individual's past adversely affected employment (as defined for purposes of the Trade Act of 1974), and wages for such work at not less than eighty percent (80%) of the individual's average weekly wage as determined for the purposes of the Trade Act of 1974.

(6) An individual is not subject to disqualification because of separation from the individual's employment if:

- (A) the employment was outside the individual's labor market;
- (B) the individual left to accept previously secured full-time work with an employer in the individual's labor market; and

(C) the individual actually became employed with the employer in the individual's labor market.

(7) An individual who, but for the voluntary separation to move to another labor market to join a spouse who had moved to that labor market, shall not be disqualified for that voluntary separation, if the individual is otherwise eligible for benefits. Benefits paid to the spouse whose eligibility is established under this subdivision shall not be charged against the employer from whom the spouse voluntarily separated.

(8) An individual shall not be subject to disqualification if the individual voluntarily left employment or was discharged due to circumstances directly caused by domestic or family violence (as defined in IC 31-9-2-42). An individual who may be entitled to benefits based on this modification may apply to the office of the attorney general under IC 5-26.5 to have an address designated by the office of the attorney general to serve as the individual's address for purposes of this article. ~~under IC 5-26.5.~~

As used in this subsection, "labor market" means the area surrounding an individual's permanent residence, outside which the individual cannot reasonably commute on a daily basis. In determining whether an individual can reasonably commute under this subdivision, the department shall consider the nature of the individual's job.

(d) "Discharge for just cause" as used in this section is defined to include but not be limited to:

- (1) separation initiated by an employer for falsification of an employment application to obtain employment through subterfuge;
- (2) knowing violation of a reasonable and uniformly enforced rule of an employer;
- (3) unsatisfactory attendance, if the individual cannot show good cause for absences or tardiness;
- (4) damaging the employer's property through willful negligence;
- (5) refusing to obey instructions;
- (6) reporting to work under the influence of alcohol or drugs or consuming alcohol or drugs on employer's premises during working hours;
- (7) conduct endangering safety of self or coworkers; or
- (8) incarceration in jail following conviction of a misdemeanor or felony by a court of competent jurisdiction or for any breach of duty in connection with work which is reasonably owed an employer by an employee.

(e) To verify that domestic or family violence has occurred, an individual who applies for benefits under subsection (c)(8) shall provide one (1) of the following:

- (1) A report of a law enforcement agency (as defined in ~~IC 5-2-5-1~~; IC 10-13-3-10).
- (2) A protection order issued under IC 34-26-5.
- (3) A foreign protection order (as defined in IC 34-6-2-48.5).
- (4) An affidavit from a domestic violence service provider verifying services provided to the individual by the domestic violence service provider.

SECTION 83. IC 22-4-15-2, AS AMENDED BY P.L.189-2003, SECTION 4, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 2. (a) With respect to benefit periods established on and after July 3, 1977, an individual is ineligible for waiting period or benefit rights, or extended benefit rights, if the department finds that, being totally, partially, or part-totally unemployed at the time when the work offer is effective or when the individual is directed to apply for work, the individual fails without good cause:

- (1) to apply for available, suitable work when directed by the commissioner, the deputy, or an authorized representative of the department of workforce development or the United States training and employment service;
- (2) to accept, at any time after the individual is notified of a separation, suitable work when found for and offered to the individual by the commissioner, the deputy, or an authorized representative of the department of workforce development or the United States training and employment service, or an employment unit; or
- (3) to return to the individual's customary self-employment when directed by the commissioner or the deputy.

(b) With respect to benefit periods established on and after July 6, 1980, the ineligibility shall continue for the week in which the failure occurs and until the individual earns remuneration in employment equal to or exceeding the weekly benefit amount of the individual's claim in each of eight (8) weeks. If the qualification amount has not been earned at the expiration of an individual's benefit period, the unearned amount shall be carried forward to an extended benefit period or to the benefit period of a subsequent claim.

(c) With respect to extended benefit periods established on and after July 5, 1981, the ineligibility shall continue for the week in which the failure occurs and until the individual earns remuneration in employment equal to or exceeding the weekly benefit amount of the individual's claim in each of four (4) weeks.

(d) If an individual failed to apply for or accept suitable work as outlined in this section, the maximum benefit amount of the individual's current claim, as initially determined, shall be reduced by twenty-five percent (25%). If twenty-five percent (25%) of the maximum benefit amount is not an even dollar amount, the amount of such reduction shall be raised to the next higher even dollar amount. The maximum benefit amount of the individual's current claim may not be reduced by more than twenty-five percent (25%) during any benefit period or extended benefit period.

(e) In determining whether or not any such work is suitable for an individual, the department shall consider:

- (1) the degree of risk involved to such individual's health, safety, and morals;
- (2) the individual's physical fitness and prior training and experience;
- (3) the individual's length of unemployment and prospects for securing local work in the individual's customary occupation; and
- (4) the distance of the available work from the individual's residence.

However, work under substantially the same terms and conditions under which the individual was employed by a base-period employer, which is within the individual's prior training and experience and physical capacity to perform, shall be considered to be suitable work unless the claimant has made a bona fide change in residence which makes such offered work unsuitable to the individual because of the distance involved. For an individual who is ~~not disqualified under~~ subject to section 1(c)(8) of this chapter, the determination of suitable work for the individual must reasonably accommodate the individual's need to address the physical, psychological, legal, and other effects of domestic or family violence.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this article, no work shall be considered suitable and benefits shall not be denied under this article to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions:

- (1) If the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout, or other labor dispute.
- (2) If the remuneration, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are substantially less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality.
- (3) If as a condition of being employed the individual would be required to join a company union or to resign from or refrain from joining a bona fide labor organization.
- (4) If as a condition of being employed the individual would be required to discontinue training into which the individual had entered with the approval of the department.

(g) Notwithstanding subsection (e), with respect to extended benefit periods established on and after July 5, 1981, "suitable work" means any work which is within an individual's capabilities. However, if the individual furnishes evidence satisfactory to the department that the individual's prospects for obtaining work in the individual's customary occupation within a reasonably short period are good, the determination of whether any work is suitable work shall be made as provided in subsection (e).

(h) With respect to extended benefit periods established on and after July 5, 1981, no work shall be considered suitable and extended benefits shall not be denied under this article to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions:

- (1) If the gross average weekly remuneration payable to the individual for the position would not exceed the sum of:
 - (A) the individual's average weekly benefit amount for the individual's benefit year; plus
 - (B) the amount (if any) of supplemental unemployment compensation benefits (as defined in Section 501(c)(17)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code) payable to the individual for such week.
- (2) If the position was not offered to the individual in writing or was not listed with the department of workforce development.

(3) If such failure would not result in a denial of compensation under the provisions of this article to the extent that such provisions are not inconsistent with the applicable federal law.

(4) If the position pays wages less than the higher of:

(A) the minimum wage provided by 29 U.S.C. 206(a)(1) (The Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938), without regard to any exemption; or

(B) the state minimum wage (IC 22-2-2).

(i) The department of workforce development shall refer individuals eligible for extended benefits to any suitable work (as defined in subsection (g)) to which subsection (h) would not apply.

SECTION 84. IC 22-4-17-2, AS AMENDED BY P.L.273-2003, SECTION 5, AND AS AMENDED BY P.L.189-2003, SECTION 5, IS CORRECTED AND AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 2. (a) When an individual files an initial claim, the department shall promptly make a determination of the individual's status as an insured worker in a form prescribed by the board. A written notice of the determination of insured status shall be furnished to the individual promptly. Each such determination shall be based on and include a written statement showing the amount of wages paid to the individual for insured work by each employer during the individual's base period and shall include a finding as to whether such wages meet the requirements for the individual to be an insured worker, and, if so, the week ending date of the first week of the individual's benefit period, the individual's weekly benefit amount, and the maximum amount of benefits that may be paid to the individual for weeks of unemployment in the individual's benefit period. (b) Except as provided in subsection (i), the department shall promptly furnish each employer in the base period whose experience or reimbursable account is potentially chargeable with benefits to be paid to such individual with a notice in writing of the employer's benefit liability. Such notice shall contain the date, the name and social security account number of the individual, the ending date of the individual's base period, and the week ending date of the first week of the individual's benefit period. Such notice shall further contain information as to the proportion of benefits chargeable to the employer's experience or reimbursable account in ratio to the earnings of such individual from such employer. Unless the employer, within ~~twenty (20)~~ ten (10) days after such notice of benefit liability was mailed to the employer's last known address, or otherwise delivered to the employer, asks a hearing thereon before an administrative law judge, such determination shall be final and benefits paid shall be charged in accordance therewith.

(c) An employing unit, including an employer, having knowledge of any facts which may affect an individual's eligibility or right to waiting period credits or benefits, shall notify the department of such facts within ~~twenty (20)~~ ten (10) days after the mailing of notice that a former employee has filed an initial or additional claim for benefits on a form prescribed by the board.

(d) In addition to the foregoing determination of insured status by the department, the deputy shall, throughout the benefit period, determine the claimant's eligibility with respect to each week for which the claimant claims waiting period credit or benefit rights, the validity of the claimant's claim therefor, and the cause for which the claimant left the claimant's work, or may refer such claim to an administrative law judge who shall make the initial determination with respect thereto in accordance with the procedure in IC 22-4-17-3.

claimant or the employer, asks a hearing before an administrative law judge thereon, such decision shall be final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance therewith. With respect to notice of disputed administrative determination or decision mailed or otherwise delivered to the claimant or employer either of whom is located in Alaska, Hawaii, or Puerto Rico, unless such claimant or employer, within ~~twenty-five (25)~~ fifteen (15) days after such notification was mailed to the claimant's or employer's last known address or otherwise delivered to the claimant or employer, asks a hearing before an administrative law judge thereon, such decision shall be final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance therewith. If such hearing is desired, the request therefor shall be filed with the commissioner in writing within the prescribed periods as above set forth in this subsection and shall be in such form as the board may prescribe. In the event a hearing is requested by an employer or the department after it has been administratively determined that benefits should be allowed to a claimant, entitled benefits shall continue to be paid to said claimant unless said administrative determination has been reversed by a due process hearing. Benefits with respect to any week not in dispute shall be paid promptly regardless of any appeal.

(g) Solely on the ground of obvious administrative error appearing on the face of an original determination, and within the benefit year of the affected claims, the commissioner, or a representative authorized by the commissioner to act in the commissioner's behalf, may reconsider and direct the deputy to revise the original determination so as to correct the obvious error appearing therein. Time for filing an appeal and requesting a hearing before an administrative law judge regarding the determinations handed down pursuant to this subsection shall begin on the date following the date of revision of the original determination and shall be filed with the commissioner in writing within the prescribed periods as above set forth in subsection (c).

All carriers, health maintenance organizations, limited service health maintenance organizations, and self-insurers providing health insurance or health care services in Indiana must be members of the association. The association shall operate under a plan of operation established and approved under subsection (c) and shall exercise its powers through a board of directors established under this section.

(b) The board of directors of the association consists of ~~seven (7)~~ nine (9) members whose principal residence is in Indiana selected as follows:

(1) ~~Three (3)~~ Four (4) members to be appointed by the commissioner from the members of the association, one (1) of which must be a representative of a health maintenance organization.

(2) Two (2) members to be appointed by the commissioner shall be consumers representing policyholders.

(3) Two (2) members shall be the state budget director or designee and the commissioner of the department of insurance or designee.

(4) One (1) member to be appointed by the commissioner must be a representative of health care providers.

The commissioner shall appoint the chairman of the board, and the board shall elect a secretary from its membership. The term of office of each appointed member is three (3) years, subject to eligibility for reappointment. Members of the board who are not state employees may be reimbursed from the association's funds for expenses incurred in attending meetings. The board shall meet at least semiannually, with the first meeting to be held not later than May 15 of each year.

(c) The association shall submit to the commissioner a plan of operation for the association and any amendments to the plan necessary or suitable to assure the fair, reasonable, and equitable administration of the association. The plan of operation becomes effective upon approval in writing by the commissioner consistent with the date on which the coverage under this chapter must be made available. The commissioner shall, after notice and hearing, approve the plan of operation if the plan is determined to be suitable to assure the fair, reasonable, and equitable administration of the association and provides for the sharing of association losses on an equitable, proportionate basis among the member carriers, health maintenance organizations, limited service health maintenance organizations, and self-insurers. If the association fails to submit a suitable plan of operation within one hundred eighty (180) days after the appointment of the board of directors, or at any time thereafter the association fails to submit suitable amendments to the plan, the commissioner shall adopt rules under IC 4-22-2 necessary or advisable to implement this section. These rules are effective until modified by the commissioner or superseded by a plan submitted by the association and approved by the commissioner. The plan of operation must:

- (1) establish procedures for the handling and accounting of assets and money of the association;
- (2) establish the amount and method of reimbursing members of the board;
- (3) establish regular times and places for meetings of the board of directors;
- (4) establish procedures for records to be kept of all financial transactions, and for the annual fiscal reporting to the commissioner;
- (5) establish procedures whereby selections for the board of directors will be made and submitted to the commissioner for approval;
- (6) contain additional provisions necessary or proper for the execution of the powers and duties of the association; and
- (7) establish procedures for the periodic advertising of the general availability of the health insurance coverages from the association.

(d) The plan of operation may provide that any of the powers and duties of the association be delegated to a person who will perform functions similar to those of this association. A delegation under this section takes effect only with the approval of both the board of directors and the commissioner. The commissioner may not approve a delegation unless the protections afforded to the insured are substantially equivalent to or greater than those provided under this chapter.

(e) The association has the general powers and authority enumerated by this subsection in accordance with the plan of operation approved by the commissioner under subsection (c). The association has the general powers and authority granted under the laws of Indiana to carriers licensed to transact the kinds of health care services or health insurance described in section 1 of this chapter and also has the specific authority to do the following:

- (1) Enter into contracts as are necessary or proper to carry out this chapter, subject to the approval of the commissioner.
- (2) Sue or be sued, including taking any legal actions necessary or proper for recovery of any assessments for, on behalf of, or against participating carriers.

(3) Take legal action necessary to avoid the payment of improper claims against the association or the coverage provided by or through the association.

(4) Establish a medical review committee to determine the reasonably appropriate level and extent of health care services in each instance.

(5) Establish appropriate rates, scales of rates, rate classifications and rating adjustments, such rates not to be unreasonable in relation to the coverage provided and the reasonable operational expenses of the association.

(6) Pool risks among members.

(7) Issue policies of insurance on an indemnity or provision of service basis providing the coverage required by this chapter.

(8) Administer separate pools, separate accounts, or other plans or arrangements considered appropriate for separate members or groups of members.

(9) Operate and administer any combination of plans, pools, or other mechanisms considered appropriate to best accomplish the fair and equitable operation of the association.

(10) Appoint from among members appropriate legal, actuarial, and other committees as necessary to provide technical assistance in the operation of the association, policy and other contract design, and any other function within the authority of the association.

(11) Hire an independent consultant.

(12) Develop a method of advising applicants of the availability of other coverages outside the association. and may promulgate a list of health conditions the existence of which would deem an applicant eligible without demonstrating a rejection of coverage by one (1) carrier.

(13) Provide for the use of managed care plans for insureds, including the use of:

(A) health maintenance organizations; and

(B) preferred provider plans.

(14) Solicit bids directly from providers for coverage under this chapter.

(f) The board shall obtain an actuarial recommendation for development of an equitable methodology for determination of member assessments.

(g) Rates for coverages issued by the association may not be unreasonable in relation to the benefits provided, the risk experience, and the reasonable expenses of providing the coverage. Separate scales of premium rates based on age apply for individual risks. Premium rates must take into consideration the extra morbidity and administration expenses, if any, for risks insured in the association. The rates for a given classification may ~~not~~ be:

(1) not more than one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the average premium rate for that class charged by the five (5) carriers with the largest premium volume in the state during the preceding calendar year for an insured whose family income is less than three hundred fifty-one percent (351%) of the federal income poverty level for the same size family; and

(2) an amount equal to:

(A) not less than one hundred fifty-one percent (151%); and of the average premium rate for that class charged by the five (5) carriers with the largest premium volume in the state during the preceding calendar year, for an insured whose family income is more than three hundred fifty percent (350%) of the federal income poverty level for the same size family.

(B) not more than two hundred percent (200%);

In determining the average rate of the five (5) largest carriers, the rates charged by the carriers shall be actuarially adjusted to determine the rate that would have been charged for benefits identical to those issued by the association. All rates adopted by the association must be submitted to the commissioner for approval.

~~(g)~~ (h) Following the close of the association's fiscal year, the association shall determine the net premiums, the expenses of administration, and the incurred losses for the year. Any net loss shall be assessed by the association to all members in proportion to their respective shares of total health insurance premiums, excluding premiums for Medicaid contracts with the state of Indiana, received in Indiana during the calendar year (or with paid losses in the year) coinciding with or ending during the fiscal year of the association or any other equitable basis as may be provided in the plan of operation.

For self-insurers, health maintenance organizations, and limited service health maintenance organizations that are members of the association, the proportionate share of losses must be determined through the application of an equitable formula based upon claims paid, excluding claims for Medicaid contracts with the state of Indiana, or the value of services provided. In sharing losses, the association may abate or defer in any part the assessment of a member, if, in the opinion of the board, payment of the assessment would endanger the ability of the member to fulfill its contractual obligations. The association may also provide for interim assessments against members of the association if necessary to assure the financial capability of the association to meet the incurred or estimated claims expenses or operating expenses of the association until the association's next fiscal year is completed. Except as provided in sections 12 and 13 of this chapter, net gains, if any, must be held at interest to offset future losses or allocated to reduce future premiums. Assessments must be determined by the board members specified in subsection (b)(1), subject to final approval by the commissioner.

~~(h)~~ (i) The association shall conduct periodic audits to assure the general accuracy of the financial data submitted to the association, and the association shall have an annual audit of its operations by an independent certified public accountant.

~~(i)~~ (j) The association is subject to examination by the department of insurance under IC 27-1-3.1. The board of directors shall submit, not later than March 30 of each year, a financial report for the preceding calendar year in a form approved by the commissioner.

~~(j)~~ (k) All policy forms issued by the association must conform in substance to prototype forms developed by the association, must in all other respects conform to the requirements of this chapter, and must be filed with and approved by the commissioner before their use.

~~(k)~~ (l) The association may not issue an association policy to any individual who, on the effective date of the coverage applied for, does not meet the eligibility requirements of section 5.1 of this chapter.

~~(l)~~ The association shall pay an agent's insurance producer's referral fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) to each insurance agent producer who refers an applicant to the association if that applicant is accepted.

(m) The association and the premium collected by the association shall be exempt from the premium tax, the adjusted gross income tax, or any combination of these upon revenues or income that may be imposed by the state.

(n) Members who after July 1, 1983, during any calendar year, have paid one (1) or more assessments levied under this chapter may either:

(1) take a credit against premium taxes, adjusted gross income taxes, or any combination of these, or similar taxes upon revenues or income of member insurers that may be imposed by the state, up to the amount of the taxes due for each calendar year in which the assessments were paid and for succeeding years until the aggregate of those assessments have been offset by either credits against those taxes or refunds from the association; or

(2) any member insurer may include in the rates for premiums charged for insurance policies to which this chapter applies amounts sufficient to recoup a sum equal to the amounts paid to the association by the member less any amounts returned to the member insurer by the association, and the rates shall not be deemed excessive by virtue of including an amount reasonably calculated to recoup assessments paid by the member.

(o) The association shall provide for the option of monthly collection of premiums.

SECTION 100. IC 27-8-10-5.1, AS AMENDED BY P.L.193-2003, SECTION 7, AND AS AMENDED BY P.L.211-2003, SECTION 5, IS CORRECTED AND AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 5.1. (a) A person is not eligible for an association policy if the person is eligible for Medicaid. A person other than a federally eligible individual may not apply for an association policy unless the person has applied for Medicaid not more than sixty (60) days before applying for the association policy.

(b) Except as provided in ~~subsections (b), and~~ subsection (c), a person is not eligible for an association policy if, at the effective date of coverage, the person has or is eligible for coverage under any insurance plan that equals or exceeds the minimum requirements for accident and sickness insurance policies issued in Indiana as set forth in IC 27. However, an offer of coverage described in IC 27-8-5-2.5(e) or IC 27-8-5-19.2(e) does not affect an individual's eligibility for an association policy under this subsection. Coverage under any association policy is in excess of, and may not duplicate, coverage under any other form of health insurance.

~~(b)~~ (c) Except as provided in IC 27-13-16-4 and subsection (a), a person is eligible for an association policy upon a showing that:

- (1) the person has been rejected by one (1) carrier for coverage under any insurance plan that equals or exceeds the minimum requirements for accident and sickness insurance policies issued in Indiana, as set forth in IC 27, without material underwriting restrictions;
- (2) an insurer has refused to issue insurance except at a rate exceeding the association plan rate; or
- (3) the person is a federally eligible individual.

For the purposes of this subsection, eligibility for Medicare coverage does not disqualify a person who is less than sixty-five (65) years of age from eligibility for an association policy.

~~(c)~~ The board of directors may establish procedures that would permit:

- ~~(1) an association policy to be issued to persons who are covered by a group insurance arrangement when that person or a dependent's health condition is such that the group's coverage is in jeopardy of termination or material rate increases because of that person's or dependent's medical claims experience; and~~
- ~~(2) an association policy to be issued without any limitation on preexisting conditions to a person who is covered by a health insurance arrangement when that person's coverage is scheduled to terminate for any reason beyond the person's control.~~

(d) Coverage under an association policy terminates as follows:

- (1) On the first date on which an insured is no longer a resident of Indiana.
- (2) On the date on which an insured requests cancellation of the association policy.
- (3) On the date of the death of an insured.
- (4) At the end of the policy period for which the premium has been paid.
- (5) On the first date on which the insured no longer meets the eligibility requirements under this section.

~~(d)~~ (e) An association policy must provide that coverage of a dependent unmarried child terminates when the child becomes nineteen (19) years of age (or twenty-five (25) years of age if the child is enrolled full-time in an accredited educational institution). The policy must also provide in substance that attainment of the limiting age does not operate to terminate a dependent unmarried child's coverage while the dependent is and continues to be both:

- (1) incapable of self-sustaining employment by reason of mental retardation or mental or physical disability; and
- (2) chiefly dependent upon the person in whose name the contract is issued for support and maintenance.

However, proof of such incapacity and dependency must be furnished to the carrier within one hundred twenty (120) days of the child's attainment of the limiting age, and subsequently as may be required by the carrier, but not more frequently than annually after the two (2) year period following the child's attainment of the limiting age.

~~(e)~~ (f) An association policy that provides coverage for a family member of the person in whose name the contract is issued must, as to the family member's coverage, also provide that the health insurance benefits applicable for children are payable with respect to a newly born child of the person in whose name the contract is issued from the moment of birth. The coverage for newly born children must consist of coverage of injury or illness, including the necessary care and treatment of medically diagnosed congenital defects and birth abnormalities. If payment of a specific premium is required to provide coverage for the child, the contract may require that notification of the birth of a child and payment of the required premium must be furnished to the carrier within thirty-one (31) days after the date of birth in order to have the coverage continued beyond the thirty-one (31) day period.

~~(f)~~ (g) Except as provided in subsection ~~(g)~~; (h), an association policy may contain provisions under which coverage is excluded during a period of three (3) months following the effective date of coverage as to a given covered individual for preexisting conditions, as long as medical advice or treatment was recommended or received within a period of three (3) months before the effective date of coverage. This subsection may not be construed to prohibit preexisting condition provisions in an insurance policy that are more favorable to the insured.

~~(g)~~ (h) If a person applies for an association policy within six (6) months after termination of the person's coverage under a health insurance arrangement and the person meets the eligibility requirements of subsection ~~(b)~~, (c), then an association policy may not contain provisions under which:

- (1) coverage as to a given individual is delayed to a date after the effective date or excluded from the policy; or
- (2) coverage as to a given condition is denied;

on the basis of a preexisting health condition. This subsection may not be construed to prohibit preexisting condition provisions in an insurance policy that are more favorable to the insured.

~~(h)~~ (i) For purposes of this section, coverage under a health insurance arrangement includes, but is not limited to, coverage pursuant to the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985.

SECTION 101. IC 27-8-10-14, AS ADDED BY P.L.193-2003, SECTION 11, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 14. (a) Notwithstanding section 2.1 of this chapter, for the period beginning July 1, 2003, and ending March 15, 2004:

- (1) fifty percent (50%) of any net loss determined under section ~~2.1(g)~~ 2.1(h) of this chapter shall be assessed by the association to all members in proportion to their respective shares of total health insurance premiums, excluding premiums for Medicaid contracts with the state, received in Indiana during the calendar year (or with paid losses in the year) coinciding with or ending during the fiscal year of the association; and
- (2) fifty percent (50%) of any net loss determined under section ~~2.1(g)~~ 2.1(h) of this chapter shall be assessed by the association to all members in proportion to their respective shares of the number of individuals in Indiana who are covered under health insurance provided by a member, excluding individuals who are covered under Medicaid contracts with the state during the calendar year coinciding with or ending during the fiscal year of the association.

SECTION 110. IC 32-34-1-31, AS AMENDED BY P.L. 107-2003, SECTION 5, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 31. (a) Except as provided in subsections (b), (c), and (f), the attorney general, not later than three (3) years after the receipt of abandoned property, shall sell the property to the highest bidder at a commercially reasonable public sale that, in the judgment of the attorney general, affords the most favorable market for the property. The attorney general may decline the highest bid and reoffer the property for sale if, in the judgment of the attorney general, the bid is insufficient. If, in the judgment of the attorney general, the probable cost of the sale exceeds the value of the property, the attorney general is not required to offer the property for sale. A sale held under this section must be preceded, at least three (3) weeks before the sale, by one (1) publication of notice in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the property is to be sold.

(b) If the property is of a type that is customarily sold on a recognized market or that is subject to widely distributed standard price quotations, and if, in the opinion of the attorney general, the probable cost of a public sale to the highest bidder would:

Other securities may be sold over the counter at prices prevailing at the time of sale or by any other method the attorney general considers reasonable.

(d) A purchaser of property at a sale conducted by the attorney general under this chapter takes the property free of all claims of the owner or previous holder and of all persons claiming through or under them. The attorney general shall execute all documents necessary to complete the transfer of ownership.

(e) A person does not have a claim against the attorney general for any appreciation of property after the property is delivered to the attorney general, except in a case of intentional misconduct or malfeasance by the attorney general.

(f) If property is forwarded to the attorney general and the report concerning the property does not have ~~any~~ all of the information required under section 26(b)(1) of this chapter or the total value of the property is ten dollars ($10) or less, the attorney general may immediately:

- (1) sell the property and transmit the proceeds; or

(k) A person has not been convicted of a crime of domestic violence for purposes of subsection (h) if the conviction has been expunged or if the person has been pardoned.

(l) The right to possess a firearm shall be restored to a person whose conviction is reversed on appeal or on post-conviction review at the earlier of the following:

(B) The annexation will have a significant financial impact on the residents or owners of land.

P.L.98-2004

[S.263. Approved March 9, 2004.]

AN ACT to amend the Indiana Code concerning courts and court officers.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. IC 33-22 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW ARTICLE TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004]:

ARTICLE 22. EFFECT OF RECODIFICATION OF TITLE 33

Chapter 1. Effect of Recodification by the Act of the 2004 Regular Session of the General Assembly

Sec. 1. As used in this chapter, "prior law" refers to the statutes concerning courts and court officers that are repealed or amended in the recodification act of the 2004 regular session of the general assembly as the statutes existed before the effective date of the applicable or corresponding provision of the recodification act of the 2004 regular session of the general assembly.

Sec. 2. The purpose of the recodification act of the 2004 regular session of the general assembly is to recodify prior law in a style that is clear, concise, and easy to interpret and apply. Except to the extent that:

(1) the recodification act of the 2004 regular session of the general assembly is amended to reflect the changes made in a provision of another bill that adds to, amends, or repeals a provision in the recodification act of the 2004 regular session of the general assembly; or the substantive operation and effect of the prior law continue uninterrupted as if the recodification act of the 2004 regular session of the general assembly had not been enacted.

(2) the minutes of meetings of the code revision commission during 2003 expressly indicate a different purpose;

Sec. 3. Subject to section 2 of this chapter, sections 4 through 9 of this chapter shall be applied to the statutory construction of the recodification act of the 2004 regular session of the general assembly.

Sec. 4. (a) The recodification act of the 2004 regular session of the general assembly does not affect:

- (1) any rights or liabilities accrued;
- (2) any penalties incurred;
- (3) any violations committed;
- (4) any proceedings begun;
- (5) any bonds, notes, loans, or other forms of indebtedness issued, incurred, or made;
- (6) any tax levies made or authorized;
- (7) any funds established;
- (8) any patents issued;
- (9) the validity, continuation, or termination of any contracts, easements, or leases executed;
- (10) the validity, continuation, scope, termination, suspension, or revocation of:
 - (A) permits;
 - (B) licenses;
 - (C) certificates of registration;
 - (D) grants of authority; or
 - (E) limitations of authority; or
- (11) the validity of court decisions entered regarding the constitutionality of any provision of the prior law;

before the effective date of the recodification act of the 2004 regular session of the general assembly (July 1, 2004). Those rights, liabilities, penalties, violations, proceedings, bonds, notes, loans, other forms of indebtedness, tax levies, funds, patents, contracts, easements, leases, permits, licenses, certificates of registration, grants of authority, and limitations of authority continue and shall be imposed and enforced under prior law as if the recodification act of the 2004 regular session of the general assembly had not been enacted.

(b) The recodification act of the 2004 regular session of the general assembly does not:

- (1) extend or cause to expire a permit, license, certificate of registration, or other grant or limitation of authority; or
- (2) in any way affect the validity, scope, or status of a license, permit, certificate of registration, or other grant or limitation of authority;

issued under the prior law.

(c) The recodification act of the 2004 regular session of the general assembly does not affect the revocation, limitation, or suspension of a permit, license, certificate of registration, or other grant or limitation of authority based in whole or in part on violations of the prior law or the rules adopted under the prior law.

Sec. 5. The recodification act of the 2004 regular session of the general assembly shall be construed as a recodification of prior law. Except as provided in section 2(1) and 2(2) of this chapter, if the literal meaning of the recodification act of the 2004 regular session of the general assembly (including a literal application of an erroneous change to an internal reference) would result in a substantive change in the prior law, the difference shall be construed as a typographical, spelling, or other clerical error that must be corrected by:

(1) inserting, deleting, or substituting words, punctuation, or other matters of style in the recodification act of the 2004 regular session of the general assembly; or as necessary or appropriate to apply the recodification act of the 2004 regular session of the general assembly in a manner that does not result in a substantive change in the law. The principle of statutory construction that a court must apply the literal meaning of an act if the literal meaning of the act is unambiguous does not apply to the recodification act of the 2004 regular session of the general assembly to the extent that the recodification act of the 2004 regular session of the general assembly is not substantively identical to the prior law.

(2) using any other rule of statutory construction;

Sec. 6. Subject to section 9 of this chapter, a reference in a statute or rule to a statute that is repealed and replaced in the same or a different form in the recodification act of the 2004 regular session of the general assembly shall be treated after the effective date of the new provision as a reference to the new provision.

Sec. 7. The division may use its administrative fund to provide training services and communication services for local officials and local guardian ad litem and court appointed special advocate programs. The county fiscal body shall appropriate adequate funds for the county to be eligible for matching funds under this section.

(b) Matching funds provided to a county under this section shall be used for guardian ad litem and court appointed special advocate programs and may be deposited in the county's guardian ad litem or court appointed special advocate fund described in IC 31-40-3.

STEP THREE: Divide the result under STEP TWO by the total number of children in need of services in Indiana, as determined by the office of family and children, during the preceding fiscal year.

STEP FOUR: Multiply the result under STEP THREE by the remaining state match appropriation.

(b) If, under subsection (a), a county's grant would result in a grant of two thousand dollars ($2,000) or less, the county is entitled to receive a grant of two thousand dollars ($2,000). After subtracting the state match appropriation distributed to these counties from the total remaining state appropriation, the division of state court administration shall distribute the remaining state appropriation under the following formula:

STEP ONE: Subtract the total number of children in need of services in the counties covered under subsection (a) from the total number of children in need of services in Indiana as determined by the office of family and children during the preceding state fiscal year.

STEP TWO: Divide the number of children in need of services in each of the counties not covered under subsection (a) by the result under STEP ONE.

STEP THREE: Multiply the result under STEP TWO by the total remaining state match appropriation.

STEP FOUR: Distribute the result under STEP THREE to each county not covered under subsection (a).

Sec. 10. (a) The executive director shall, with the approval of the supreme court, divide the state geographically into at least eight (8) trial court districts.

(b) On the basis of relevant information compiled by the executive director concerning the volume and nature of judicial workload, the executive director shall recommend to the supreme court the temporary transfer of any judge or judges. The supreme court shall consider the recommendation and temporarily transfer any judge of a trial court of general or special jurisdiction to another court if the temporary transfer is determined to be beneficial to facilitate the judicial work of the court to which the judge is transferred without placing an undue burden on the court from which the judge is transferred. However, a judge may not be temporarily transferred to a court in another county within the district the judge normally serves that, at its nearest point, is more than forty (40) miles from the seat of the county the judge normally serves unless the judge consents to the transfer.

Sec. 11. Any judge transferred to a court in another county shall be paid travel and other necessary expenses by the county to which the judge is transferred. An allowance for expenses shall be certified by the chief justice in duplicate to the auditor of the county. The certificate of allowance is prima facie evidence of the correctness of the claims. An item of expenses certified to be correct must be allowed by the board of commissioners of that county.

Sec. 12. (a) The judicial technology and automation project fund is established to fund the judicial technology and automation project. The division of state court administration shall administer the fund. The fund consists of the following:

(c) Money in the fund at the end of a state fiscal year does not revert to the state general fund.

(d) There is annually appropriated to the division of state court administration the money in the fund for the judicial technology and automation project.

Chapter 7. Supreme Court Records

The court shall make a reasonable allowance for the transcription to the clerk in an amount that the court considers just and proper. The allowance, when certified by a justice of the court, shall be audited by the auditor of state and paid as similar allowances in other cases.

(d) For all other unauthenticated copies of the opinions of the supreme court and the court of appeals furnished by the clerk of the supreme court to any person, firm, limited liability company, or corporation, the clerk shall charge one dollar ($1) per page.

(e) The fees and amounts charged under this section shall be deposited by the clerk of the supreme court into the state general fund in the manner and at the time provided for the making of the quarterly reports of other collected fees due the state.

Sec. 5. The quarterly report required to be made by the clerk of the supreme court under section 1 of this chapter must show the number and title of the cause and the amount due the state. Sec. 6. The tax court does not have jurisdiction over a case that is an appeal from a final determination made by the department of state revenue under IC 4-32 other than a final determination concerning the gaming card excise tax established under IC 4-32-15.

Chapter 4. Offices and Personnel

Sec. 1. (a) The tax court shall maintain its principal office in Indianapolis.

(b) The Indiana department of administration shall provide suitable facilities for the court in Indianapolis.

(c) If the court hears a case at a location outside Marion County, the executive of the county in which the court sits shall provide the court with suitable facilities.

Sec. 2. (a) The tax court may employ:

- (1) a bailiff;
- (2) a clerk;
- (3) a reporter;
- (4) a clerical assistant; or
- (5) any other personnel that the court needs to perform its duties.

(b) The clerk of the supreme court shall serve as the clerk of the tax court.

Chapter 5. Small Claims Docket

Sec. 1. The tax court shall establish a small claims docket for processing:

- (1) claims for refunds from the department of state revenue that do not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) for any year; and
- (2) appeals of final determinations of assessed value made by the Indiana board of tax review that do not exceed forty-five thousand dollars ($45,000).

Sec. 2. The tax court shall adopt rules and procedures under which cases on the small claims docket are heard and decided.

Chapter 6. Appellate Review; Rules and Procedures

Sec. 1. (a) The tax court shall try each original tax appeal without the intervention of a jury.

(b) The tax court shall adopt rules and procedures under which original tax appeals are heard and decided.

Sec. 2. (a) A taxpayer who wishes to initiate an original tax appeal must file a petition in the tax court to set aside the final determination of the department of state revenue or the Indiana board of tax review. If a taxpayer fails to comply with any statutory requirement for the initiation of an original tax appeal, the tax court does not have jurisdiction to hear the appeal.

(b) A taxpayer who wishes to enjoin the collection of a tax pending the original tax appeal must file a petition with the tax court to enjoin the collection of the tax. The petition must set forth a summary of:

- (1) the issues that the petitioner will raise in the original tax appeal; and
- (2) the equitable considerations for which the tax court should order the collection of the tax to be enjoined.

(c) After a hearing on the petition filed under subsection (b), the tax court may enjoin the collection of the tax pending the original tax appeal, if the tax court finds that:

- (1) the issues raised by the original tax appeal are substantial;
- (2) the petitioner has a reasonable opportunity to prevail in the original tax appeal; and
- (3) the equitable considerations favoring the enjoining of the collection of the tax outweigh the state's interests in collecting the tax pending the original tax appeal.

(d) This section does not apply to a final determination of the department of state revenue under IC 4-32 other than a final determination concerning the gaming card excise tax established under IC 4-32-15.

Sec. 3. (a) Subject to subsection (b), with respect to determinations as to whether any issues or evidence may be heard in an original tax appeal that was not heard in the administrative hearing or proceeding, the tax court is governed by the law that applied before the creation of the tax court to appeals to trial courts of final determinations made by the department of state revenue and the state board of tax commissioners.

(b) Judicial review of disputed issues of fact must be confined to:

- (1) the record of the proceeding before the Indiana board of tax review; and
- (2) any additional evidence taken under section 5 of this chapter.

The tax court may not try the case de novo or substitute its judgment for that of the Indiana board of tax review. Judicial review is limited to only those issues raised before the Indiana board of tax review, or otherwise described by the Indiana board of tax review, in its final determination.

(c) A person may obtain judicial review of an issue that was not raised before the Indiana board of tax review only to the extent that the:

- (1) issue concerns whether a person who was required to be notified of the commencement of a proceeding under this chapter was notified in substantial compliance with the applicable law; or
- (2) interests of justice would be served by judicial resolution of an issue arising from a change in controlling law occurring after the Indiana board of tax review's action.

Sec. 4. (a) The burden of demonstrating the invalidity of an action taken by the state board of tax commissioners is on the party to the judicial review proceeding asserting the invalidity.

(b) The validity of an action taken by the state board of tax commissioners shall be determined in accordance with the standards of review provided in this section as applied to the agency action at the time it was taken.

(c) The tax court shall make findings of fact on each material issue on which the court's decision is based.

(d) The tax court shall grant relief under section 7 of this chapter only if the tax court determines that a person seeking judicial relief has been prejudiced by an action of the state board of tax commissioners that is:

- (1) arbitrary, capricious, an abuse of discretion, or otherwise not in accordance with law;
- (2) contrary to constitutional right, power, privilege, or immunity;
- (3) in excess of or short of statutory jurisdiction, authority, or limitations;
- (4) without observance of procedure required by law; or
- (5) unsupported by substantial or reliable evidence.

(e) Subsection (d) may not be construed to change the substantive precedential law embodied in judicial decisions that are final as of January 1, 2002.

Sec. 5. (a) This section applies instead of IC 4-21.5-5-12 with respect to judicial review of final determinations of the Indiana board of tax review.

(b) The tax court may receive evidence in addition to that contained in the record of the determination of the Indiana board of tax review only if the evidence relates to the validity of the determination at the time it was taken and is needed to decide disputed issues regarding one (1) or both of the following:

- (1) Improper constitution as a decision making body or grounds for disqualification of those taking the agency action.
- (2) Unlawfulness of procedure or decision making process.

This subsection applies only if the additional evidence could not, by due diligence, have been discovered and raised in the administrative proceeding giving rise to a proceeding for judicial review.

(c) The tax court may remand a matter to the Indiana board of tax review before final disposition of a petition for review with directions that the Indiana board of tax review conduct further factfinding or that the Indiana board of tax review prepare an adequate record, if:

- (1) the Indiana board of tax review failed to prepare or preserve an adequate record;
- (2) the Indiana board of tax review improperly excluded or omitted evidence from the record; or
- (3) a relevant law changed after the action of the Indiana board of tax review and the tax court determines that the new provision of law may control the outcome.

(d) This subsection applies if the record for a judicial review prepared under IC 6-1.1-15-6 contains an inadequate record of a site inspection. Rather than remand a matter under subsection (c), the tax court may take additional evidence not contained in the record relating only to observations and other evidence collected during a site inspection conducted by a hearing officer or other employee of the Indiana board of tax review. The evidence may include the testimony of a hearing officer only for purposes of verifying or rebutting evidence regarding the site inspection that is already contained in the record.

Sec. 6. (a) This section applies instead of IC 4-21.5-5-14 with respect to judicial review of final determinations of the Indiana board of tax review.

(b) The burden of demonstrating the invalidity of an action taken by the Indiana board of tax review is on the party to the judicial review proceeding asserting the invalidity.

(c) The validity of an action taken by the Indiana board of tax review shall be determined in accordance with the standards of review provided in this section as applied to the agency action at the time it was taken.

(d) The tax court shall make findings of fact on each material issue on which the court's decision is based.

(e) The tax court shall grant relief under section 7 of this chapter only if the tax court determines that a person seeking judicial relief has been prejudiced by an action of the Indiana board of tax review that is:

- (1) arbitrary, capricious, an abuse of discretion, or otherwise not in accordance with law;
- (2) contrary to constitutional right, power, privilege, or immunity;
- (3) in excess of statutory jurisdiction, authority, or limitations, or short of statutory jurisdiction, authority, or limitations;
- (4) without observance of procedure required by law; or
- (5) unsupported by substantial or reliable evidence.

(f) Subsection (e) may not be construed to change the substantive precedential law embodied in judicial decisions that are final as of January 1, 2002.

Sec. 7. (a) The tax court shall render its decisions in writing.

(b) Written decisions of the tax court may be published and distributed in the manner prescribed by the supreme court.

(c) A decision of the tax court remanding the matter of assessment of property under IC 6-1.1-15-8 to the Indiana board of tax review shall specify the issues on remand on which the Indiana board of tax review is to act.

(d) The decisions of the tax court may be appealed directly to the supreme court.

Chapter 7. Representation by Attorney General

Sec. 1. The office of the attorney general shall represent a township assessor, a county assessor, a county auditor, a member of a county property tax assessment board of appeals, or a county property tax assessment board of appeals that:

- (1) made an original determination that is the subject of a judicial proceeding in the tax court; and
- (2) is a defendant in a judicial proceeding in the tax court.

Sec. 2. Notwithstanding representation by the office of the attorney general, the duty of discovery is on the parties to the judicial proceeding.

Sec. 3. Discovery conducted under section 2 of this chapter is limited to production of documents from the administrative law judge presiding over the review under IC 6-1.1-15-3. The administrative law judge may not be summoned to testify before the tax court unless verified proof is offered to the tax court that the impartiality of the administrative law judge was compromised concerning the review.

Sec. 4. A township assessor, a county assessor, a county auditor, a member of a county property tax assessment board of appeals, or a county property tax assessment board of appeals:

(1) may seek relief from the tax court to establish that the Indiana board of tax review rendered a decision that was:

- (A) an abuse of discretion;
- (B) arbitrary and capricious;
- (C) contrary to substantial or reliable evidence; or
- (D) contrary to law; and

(2) may not be represented by the office of the attorney general in an action initiated under subdivision (1).

- (8) Any county official in a qualifying county who has control, review, or other responsibilities related to paying claims of a contractor submitted for payment under IC 6-1.1-4-32.

Sec. 4. Upon petition from the department of local government finance or a contractor, the tax court may order a qualifying official to produce information requested in writing from the qualifying official by the department of local government finance or the contractor.

Sec. 5. If the tax court orders a qualifying official to provide requested information as described in section 4 of this chapter, the tax court shall order production of the information not later than fourteen (14) days after the date of the tax court's order.

Sec. 6. The tax court may find that any willful violation of this chapter by a qualifying official constitutes a direct contempt of the tax court.

Chapter 9. Fees

Sec. 1. When a complaint is filed, a taxpayer who initiates an original tax appeal shall pay to the clerk of the tax court the same fee as provided in IC 33-37-4-7 for actions in probate court.

SECTION 6. IC 33-27 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW ARTICLE TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004]:

ARTICLE 27. JUDICIAL NOMINATING COMMISSION

Chapter 1. Definitions

Sec. 1. The definitions in this chapter apply throughout this article.

Sec. 2. "Attorney commissoners" means the three (3) individuals admitted to the practice of law who are elected to the judicial nominating commission by the electors.

Sec. 3. "Electors" means individuals who are attorneys in good standing admitted to the practice of law in Indiana.

Sec. 4. "Mail" includes ordinary mail or personal delivery.

Sec. 5. "Nonattorney commissioners" means the three (3) individuals not admitted to the practice of law who are appointed to the judicial nominating commission by the governor.

Sec. 1. (a) The governor shall appoint three (3) nonattorney citizens of Indiana, one (1) each from the First District, the Second District, and the Third District of the court of appeals, as commissioners of the judicial nominating commission.

(b) One (1) month before the expiration of a term of office of a nonattorney commissioner, the governor shall either reappoint the commissioner as provided in section 5 of this chapter or appoint a new nonattorney commissioner. All appointments made by the governor to the judicial nominating commission shall be certified to the secretary of state and to the clerk of the supreme court not later than ten (10) days after the appointment.

(c) Except as provided in subsection (e), the governor shall appoint each nonattorney commissioner for a term of three (3) years.

(d) An appointed nonattorney commissioner must reside in the court of appeals district for which the nonattorney commissioner was appointed. (e) When a vacancy occurs in the office of a nonattorney commissioner, the chairman of the commission shall promptly notify the governor in writing. Vacancies in the office of nonattorney commissioners shall be filled by appointment by the governor not later than sixty (60) days after the governor receives notice of the vacancy. The term of the nonattorney commissioner appointed to fill the vacancy is for the unexpired term of the member whose vacancy the new nonattorney commissioner has filled.

Sec. 2. (a) For purposes of electing attorney members to the judicial nominating commission, the state shall be divided into three (3) districts, corresponding to the First District, the Second District, and the Third District of the court of appeals.

The term of office of each elected member is three (3) years, beginning on the first day of January following the election. During the month before the expiration of an elected member's term of office, an election shall be held to fill the succeeding three (3) year term of office. Attorney commissioners on the commission must reside for the term of their office in the district from which they were elected. An attorney commissioner is considered to have resigned the position if the residency of the attorney commissioner changes from the court of appeals district for which the attorney commissioner was elected.

(d) Except when a term of office has less than ninety (90) days remaining, vacancies in the office of an attorney commissioner to the judicial nominating commission shall be filled for the unexpired term of the member creating the vacancy by a special election. An attorney commissioner who is elected to fill an unexpired term shall commence the attorney commissioner's duties immediately upon the certification of the new attorney commissioner's election to the secretary of state.

Sec. 3. The attorney commissioners of the judicial nominating commission shall be elected by the following process:

(1) The clerk of the supreme court shall, at least ninety (90) days before the date of an election, send a notice by mail to the address for each qualified elector shown on the records of the clerk informing the electors that nominations for the election must be made to the clerk of the supreme court at least sixty (60) days before the election.

(2) A nomination in writing accompanied by a signed petition of thirty (30) electors from the nominee's district, and the written consent of the nominee shall be filed, by mail or otherwise, by any electors or group of electors admitted to the practice of law in Indiana who reside in the same district as the nominee, in the office of the clerk of the supreme court at least sixty (60) days before the election.

(5) In each district, the nominee receiving the most votes from the district shall be elected.

(6) The clerk shall also supply with each ballot distributed a certificate, to be completed and signed and returned by the elector voting the ballot, certifying that the voter is registered with the clerk of the supreme court as an attorney in good standing under the requirements of the supreme court, and that the voter voted the ballot returned. A ballot not accompanied by the signed certificate of the voter shall not be counted.

(7) To maintain the secrecy of each vote, a separate envelope shall be provided by the clerk for the ballot, in which only the voted ballot may be placed. This envelope shall not be opened until the counting of the ballots.

(11) The clerk of the supreme court, with the assistance of the secretary of state and the attorney general, shall open and canvass all ballots after 4 p.m. on the last day of the election period in the office of the clerk of the supreme court. A ballot received after 4 p.m. may not be counted unless the chief justice orders an extension of time because of unusual circumstances. Upon canvassing the ballots, the clerk of the supreme court shall place all ballots back in their packages. These, along with the certificates, shall be retained in the clerk's office for six (6) months, and the clerk may not permit anyone to inspect them except upon an order of the supreme court.

(12) Not later than ten (10) days after the election, the clerk shall certify the results to the secretary of state.

(13) In an election held for selection of attorney commissioners of the judicial nominating commission, if two (2) or more nominees are tied, the canvassers shall resolve the tie by lot in a manner that they shall determine, and the winner of the lot is considered elected.

Sec. 4. After the attorney commissioners have been elected, and after the names of the nonattorney commissioners appointed by the governor have been certified to the secretary of state as provided in this chapter, the clerk shall notify, by regular mail, the members of the commission of their election or appointment.

Sec. 5. A member of the judicial nominating commission may serve until the member's successor is appointed or elected. An attorney commissioner or a nonattorney commissioner is not eligible for successive reelection or reappointment. However, an attorney commissioner or a nonattorney commissioner who has been appointed or elected to fill a vacancy on the commission for less than one (1) year is eligible upon the expiration of that term, if otherwise qualified, for a succeeding term.

Sec. 6. A member of the judicial nominating commission shall serve without compensation for the member's services, except for per diem and travel expenses and other necessary and reasonable expenses.

Sec. 7. (a) The judicial nominating commission may employ investigators and other experts that the commission determines are necessary to carry out its functions and purposes. The commission may employ special counsel in a proceeding if the commission determines the employment is advisable.

(b) The division of state court administration shall serve the judicial nominating commission in performing the commission's statutory and constitutional functions.

(c) The general assembly may appropriate the sums it considers necessary for expenses that may be incurred in the administration of this article.

Sec. 8. (a) The staff of the judicial nominating commission shall make the findings of fact concerning individuals eligible to fill a vacancy in a judicial office as the commission directs.

(b) The staff shall compile biographical sketches of each nominee running for election to the judicial nominating commission. The information compiled shall be submitted to the clerk of the supreme court for mailing, along with the ballots, to qualified electors. The biographical sketches prepared under this subsection must include the following information for each nominee:

- (1) Name and address.
- (2) Legal background, including:
 - (A) type of practice;
 - (B) law firm; and
 - (C) law school year of graduation, honors, other pertinent information.
- (3) General educational background.
- (4) A short statement by the nominee stating the nominee's efforts and achievements in bringing about improvement and betterment of the administration of justice.

(5) Public offices or positions, including:

(A) all public salaried positions; and

(B) all services contributed to a public or charitable organization.

(6) Business and civic affairs.

(7) Any other pertinent information that the commission considers important.

(c) The staff shall carry out any other duties assigned to it by the general assembly and by the judicial nominating commission when acting in that capacity and in its capacity as the commission on judicial qualifications.

Sec. 9. The commissioners, employees, and staff of the judicial nominating commission are immune from civil liability for any act or proceeding taken, or communication or statement made, relevant to the evaluation of a candidate under IC 33-27-3-2.

Sec. 10. An agency, an organization, a person, or an association described in IC 33-27-3-2(c) is immune from civil liability for providing information or assistance in an investigation under IC 33-27-3-2 or for testifying before the judicial nominating commission if:

(1) the information or testimony is relevant to the evaluation of a candidate under IC 33-27-3-2(a); and

(2) the information or testimony is:

(A) an expression of opinion; or

(B) a statement of fact made without:

(i) knowledge that the statement is false; or

(ii) reckless disregard for the truth.

Chapter 3. Duties of the Commission; Appointments to Judicial Office

Sec. 1. (a) When a vacancy occurs in the supreme court, the court of appeals, or the tax court, the clerk of the court shall promptly notify the chairman of the commission of the vacancy.

(b) The chairman shall call a meeting of the commission not later than twenty (20) days after receiving the notice.

(c) The commission shall submit the nominations of three (3) candidates for the vacancy and certify them to the governor as promptly as possible, but not later than seventy (70) days after the time the vacancy occurs.

(d) When it is known that a vacancy will occur at a definite future date, but the vacancy has not yet occurred, the clerk shall notify the commission immediately of the future vacancy, and the commission may, not later than sixty (60) days after receiving the notice of the vacancy, make nominations and submit to the governor the names of three (3) persons nominated for the future vacancy.

Sec. 2. (a) The judicial nominating commission shall submit to the governor, from those names the commission considers for a vacancy, the names of only the three (3) most highly qualified candidates. In determining which candidates are most highly qualified each commission member shall evaluate each candidate, in writing, on the following considerations:

- (1) Legal education, including law schools attended and education after law school, and any academic honors and awards achieved.
- (2) Legal writings, including legislative draftings, legal briefs, and contributions to legal journals and publications.
- (3) Reputation in the practice of law, as evaluated by attorneys and judges with whom the candidate has had professional contact, and the type of legal practice, including experience and reputation as a trial lawyer or trial judge.
- (4) Physical condition, including general health, stamina, vigor, and age.
- (5) Financial interests, including any interest that might conflict with the performance of judicial responsibilities.
- (6) Activities in public service, including writings and speeches concerning public affairs and contemporary problems, and efforts and achievements in improving the administration of justice.
- (7) Any other pertinent information that the commission feels is important in selecting the most highly qualified individuals for judicial office.

(b) The commission may not make an investigation to determine these considerations until the individual states in writing that the individual desires to hold a judicial office that has been or will be created by a vacancy and that the individual consents to the public disclosure of information under subsections (d) and (g).

(c) The commission shall inquire into the personal and legal backgrounds of each candidate by investigations made independent from the statements on an application of the candidate or in an interview with the candidate. In completing these investigations, the commission may use information or assistance provided by:

- (1) a law enforcement agency;
- (2) any organization of lawyers, judges, or individual practitioners; or
- (3) any other person or association.

(d) The commission shall publicly disclose the names of all candidates who have filed for judicial appointment after the commission has received the consent required by subsection (b) but before the commission has begun to evaluate any of the candidates. If the commission's screening of the candidates for judicial appointment occurs in an executive session conducted under IC 5-14-1.5-6.1(b)(10), the screening may not reduce the number of candidates for further consideration to fewer than ten (10) individuals unless there are fewer than ten (10) individuals from which to choose before the screening. When the commission's screening has reduced the number of candidates for further consideration to not less than ten (10) or it has less than ten (10) eligible candidates otherwise from which to choose, the commission shall:

- (1) publicly disclose the names of the individuals and their applications before taking any further action; and
- (2) give notice of any further action in the same manner that notice is given under IC 5-14-1.5.

(e) Information described in subsection (d)(1) is identifying information for the purposes of IC 5-14-1.5-6.1(b)(10).

(f) The commission shall submit with the list of three (3) nominees to the governor its written evaluation of each nominee, based on the considerations set forth in subsection (a). The list of names submitted to the governor and the written evaluation of each nominee shall be publicly disclosed by the commission.

(g) Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4, all public records (as defined in IC 5-14-3-2) of the judicial nominating commission are subject to IC 5-14-3-3, including records described in IC 5-14-3-4(b)(12). However, the following records are excepted from public inspection and copying at the discretion of the judicial nominating commission:

(1) Personnel files of commission employees and files of applicants for employment with the commission to the extent permitted under IC 5-14-3-4(b)(8).

(2) Records specifically prepared for discussion or developed during discussion in an executive session under IC 5-14-1.5-6.1, unless the records are prepared for use in the consideration of a candidate for judicial appointment.

(3) Investigatory records prepared for the commission under subsection (c) until:

(A) the records are filed or introduced into evidence in connection with the consideration of a candidate;

(B) the records are publicly discussed by the commission in connection with the consideration of a candidate;

(C) a candidate elects to have the records released by the commission; or

(D) the commission elects to release the records that the commission considers appropriate in response to publicly disseminated statements relating to the activities or actions of the commission;

whichever occurs first.

(4) Applications of candidates for judicial appointment who are not among the applicants eligible for further consideration following the commission's screening under subsection (d).

(5) The work product of an attorney (as defined in IC 5-14-3-2) representing the commission.

(h) When an event described by subsection (g)(3) occurs, the investigatory record becomes available for public inspection and copying under IC 5-14-3-3.

(i) As used in this subsection, "attributable communication" refers to a communication containing the sender's name, address, and telephone number. The commission shall provide a copy of all attributable communications concerning a candidate for judicial appointment to each member of the commission. An attributable communication becomes available for public inspection and copying under IC 5-14-3-3 after a copy is provided to each member of the commission. The commission may not consider a communication other than an attributable communication in evaluating a candidate for judicial appointment.

(j) The commission shall release the investigatory records prepared for the commission under subsection (c) to the candidate for judicial appointment described by the records.

Sec. 3. If a nominee dies or requests in writing that the nominee's name be withdrawn, the commission shall nominate another person to replace the nominee from the list of nominees previously provided. Whenever two (2) or more vacancies exist, the commission shall nominate three (3) different persons for each vacancy and submit a list of the persons nominated to the governor.

Sec. 4. (a) If the governor fails to make an appointment not later than sixty (60) days after the date the names of the nominees are submitted to the governor, the chief justice shall make the appointment from the nominees.

(b) A change in a list submitted to the governor under section 3 of this chapter requires a resubmission of the altered list to the governor, and the sixty (60) day period in which the governor must make the appointment begins on the date of resubmission.

Sec. 5. An individual appointed to the supreme court, the court of appeals, or the tax court by the governor shall commence the duties of the individual's office immediately upon the effective date of the appointment. An appointment to a judicial office does not take effect until a vacancy for the office exists.

Sec. 6. (a) The judicial nominating commission shall meet as necessary to discharge the commission's responsibilities under the Constitution of the State of Indiana and the state laws. Meetings of the commission shall be called by the chairman, or if the chairman fails to call a meeting when a meeting is necessary, upon the call of any four (4) members of the commission. When a meeting is called, the chairman shall give each member of the commission at least five (5) days written notice by mail of the time and place of the meeting unless the commission at its previous meeting designated the time and place of the next meeting.

(b) Meetings of the commission must be held at a place in Indiana, as arranged by the chairman of the commission.

(c) The commission shall act only at a meeting and may act only on the concurrence of a majority of the members attending a meeting. The commission may not vote to reduce the number of candidates for further consideration or to submit or not submit the list of nominees under subsection (e) during an executive session. Four (4) members constitute a quorum.

(d) The commission may adopt reasonable and proper rules for the conduct of its proceedings and the discharge of its duties. The rules must comply with this chapter and include procedures by which eligible candidates for a vacancy in the supreme court or court of appeals may submit their names to the commission. The rules are public records, and the meetings of the commission at which the rules are considered for initial adoption or amendment must be publicly announced and open to the public.

(e) Notwithstanding IC 5-14-1.5-2, the commission is a public agency for the purposes of IC 5-14-1.5. The commission may meet in executive session under IC 5-14-1.5-6.1 for the consideration of a candidate for judicial appointment if:

- (1) notice of the executive session is given in the manner prescribed by IC 5-14-1.5-5;
- (2) all interviews of candidates are conducted at meetings open to the public; and
- (3) copies of all attributable communications (as defined in section 2(i) of this chapter) concerning the candidates have been provided to all commission members and made available for public inspection and copying.

Chapter 4. Appointment of Senior Judges

Sec. 1. A person who desires to serve as a senior judge under IC 33-23-3 may apply to the judicial nominating commission for certification to the supreme court as a senior judge.

Sec. 2. The judicial nominating commission shall certify to the supreme court a person desiring to serve as a senior judge if the person meets requirements for service as a senior judge set by the supreme court under IC 33-24-3-7.

Sec. 3. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), a person may not be certified under this section if:

- (1) the person:
 - (A) has not served as a judge or justice; or
 - (B) is still serving as a judge or justice; of a court of record in Indiana;
- (2) the person is not available for the minimum period of commitment for service as a senior judge specified by the supreme court under IC 33-24-3-7; or

(3) the combination of:

(A) the compensation for senior judges set under IC 33-23-3-5; and

(B) any retirement benefits that the person is receiving or is entitled to receive; exceeds the minimum compensation to which judges of the circuit court are entitled under IC 33-38-5.

(b) A person who elects to forgo retirement benefits during the period of commitment as a senior judge may be certified as a senior judge under section 2 of this chapter upon verification by the judicial nominating commission of the availability to the person of the election.

ARTICLE 28. CIRCUIT COURTS

Chapter 1. Jurisdiction, Duties, and Powers

Sec. 1. The circuit court shall be held in the respective counties at times as may be fixed by law. The court shall be styled "_____ Circuit Court", according to the name of the county in which it may be held.

Sec. 2. (a) The circuit court has original jurisdiction in all civil cases and in all criminal cases, except where exclusive jurisdiction is conferred by law upon other courts of the same territorial jurisdiction.

(b) The circuit court also has the appellate jurisdiction that may be conferred by law upon it.

Sec. 3. The judge of a circuit court, within the judge's district, shall take all necessary recognizances to keep the peace, or to answer any criminal charge, or offense, in the court having jurisdiction.

Sec. 4. If there is a process for which a form is not prescribed by law, a circuit court shall frame a new writ in conformity with the principles of the process.

Sec. 5. A circuit court may do the following:

(1) Issue and direct all processes necessary to the regular execution of the law to the following:

(A) A court of inferior jurisdiction.

(B) A corporation.

(C) An individual.

(2) Make all proper judgments, sentences, decrees, orders, and injunctions, issue all processes, and do other acts as may be proper to carry into effect the same, in conformity with Indiana laws and Constitution of the State of Indiana.

(3) Administer all necessary oaths.

(4) Punish, by fine or imprisonment, or both, all contempts of the court's authority.

(5) Proceed in any matter before the court, or in any matter in which the proceedings of the court, or the due course of justice, is interrupted.

(6) Grant commissions for the examination of witnesses according to the regulations of law.

Sec. 6. When the subject matter of a circuit court is situated in two (2) or more counties, the court that takes cognizance of the matter first shall retain the matter.

Sec. 7. The circuit court of each county shall have a seal. A description of the seal must be signed by the judge devising the seal. The seal must be filed by the clerk and recorded.

Sec. 8. (a) This section applies to a new county in which a seal has not been devised for the county's circuit court.

(b) The clerk of a circuit court located in a county subject to this section may seal all papers required by law to be sealed with the seal of the circuit court with the clerk's private seal. Papers sealed with the clerk's seal under this section are considered to have been sealed with a seal devised by the circuit court.

Sec. 9. A suit, process, matter, or proceeding returnable to or pending in any circuit court may not be discontinued by reason of a failure of the judge to attend on the first or any other day of the term.

Sec. 10. If, at any time both the sheriff and the coroner are unable to attend, or if the sheriff and coroner are both incapacitated from serving, the board of county commissioners may appoint an elisor to serve during the pendency of the matter in which the sheriff and coroner are disabled from serving.

Sec. 11. An elisor appointed under section 10 of this chapter shall take the same oath and give the same bond and surety that are required of sheriffs. The elisor has the same authority to perform all the duties of the sheriff that relate to the service for which the elisor is specially appointed. The elisor is governed by the same rules and subject to the same penalties and liabilities as the sheriff.

Chapter 2. Election of Judges

Sec. 1. (a) A judge of the circuit court shall be elected under IC 3-10-2-11 by the voters of each circuit.

Sec. 2. In any circuit for which IC 33-33 provides more than one (1) judge of the circuit court, the county election board shall assign a number to each seat on the court. After that, any candidate for judge of the circuit court must file a declaration of candidacy under IC 3-8-2 or petition of nomination under IC 3-8-6 for one (1) specified seat of the court. Each seat on the court shall be listed separately on the election ballot in the form prescribed by IC 3-10-1-19 and IC 3-11-2.

Chapter 3. Small Claims and Misdemeanors Division

Sec. 1. This chapter applies to each circuit court for which this title provides a standard small claims and misdemeanor division.

Sec. 2. The small claims and misdemeanor division of the court has the following dockets:

- (1) A small claims docket.
- (2) A minor offenses and violations docket.

Sec. 3. (a) The small claims docket has jurisdiction over the following:

- (1) Civil actions in which the amount sought or value of the property sought to be recovered is not more than three thousand dollars ($3,000). The plaintiff in a statement of claim or the defendant in a counterclaim may waive the excess of any claim that exceeds three thousand dollars ($3,000) in order to bring it within the jurisdiction of the small claims docket.
- (2) Possessory actions between landlord and tenant in which the rent due at the time the action is filed does not exceed three thousand dollars ($3,000).
- (3) Emergency possessory actions between a landlord and tenant under IC 32-31-6.

(b) This section expires July 1, 2005.

Sec. 4. (a) This section applies after June 30, 2005.

(b) The small claims docket has jurisdiction over the following:

(1) Civil actions in which the amount sought or value of the property sought to be recovered is not more than six thousand dollars ($6,000). The plaintiff in a statement of claim or the defendant in a counterclaim may waive the excess of any claim that exceeds six thousand dollars ($6,000) in order to bring it within the jurisdiction of the small claims docket.

(2) Possessory actions between landlord and tenant in which the rent due at the time the action is filed does not exceed six thousand dollars ($6,000).

(3) Emergency possessory actions between a landlord and tenant under IC 32-31-6.

Sec. 5. (a) The exceptions provided in this section to formal practice and procedure apply to all cases on the small claims docket.

(b) A defendant is considered to have complied with the statute and rule requiring the filing of an answer upon entering an appearance personally or by attorney. The appearance constitutes a general denial and preserves all defenses and compulsory counterclaims, which may then be presented at the trial of the case.

(c) If, at the trial of the case, the court determines:

(1) that the complaint is so vague or ambiguous that the defendant was unable to determine the nature of the plaintiff's claim; or

(2) that the plaintiff is surprised by a defense or compulsory counterclaim raised by the defendant that the plaintiff could not reasonably have anticipated;

the court shall grant a continuance.

(d) The trial shall be conducted informally, with the objective of dispensing speedy justice between the parties according to the rules of substantive law. The trial is not bound by the statutes or rules governing practice, procedure, pleadings, or evidence except for provisions relating to privileged communications and offers of compromise.

Sec. 6. There is no change of venue from the county as of right in cases on the small claims docket. However, a change of venue from the judge shall be granted as provided by statute and by rules of the supreme court.

Sec. 7. (a) The filing of a claim on the small claims docket is considered a waiver of trial by jury.

(b) The defendant may, not later than ten (10) days following service of the complaint in a small claims case, demand a trial by jury by filing an affidavit that:

- (1) states that there are questions of fact requiring a trial by jury;
- (2) specifies those questions of fact; and
- (3) states that the demand is in good faith.

(c) Notice of the defendant's right to a jury trial, and the ten (10) day period in which to file for a jury trial, must be clearly stated on the notice of claim or on an additional sheet to be served with the notice of claim on the defendant.

(d) Upon the deposit of seventy dollars ($70) in the small claims docket by the defendant, the court shall transfer the claim to the plenary docket. Upon transfer, the claim then loses its status as a small claim.

Sec. 8. (a) The minor offenses and violations docket has jurisdiction over the following:

- (1) All Class D felony cases.
- (2) All misdemeanor cases.
- (3) All infraction cases.
- (4) All ordinance violation cases.

(b) The court shall establish a traffic violations bureau in the manner prescribed by IC 34-28-5-7 through IC 34-28-5-10.

Sec. 9. (a) The court shall provide by rule for an evening session to be held once each week.

(b) The court shall hold additional sessions in the evening and on holidays as necessary to ensure the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of every action.

Sec. 10. The court shall comply with all requests made under IC 33-24-6-3 by the executive director of the division of state court administration concerning the small claims and misdemeanor division.

Chapter 4. Jury Commissioners and Jury Service

Sec. 1. (a) This chapter does not apply to a county that chooses under subsection (b) to follow the procedure for jury selection and service set out in IC 33-28-5.

(b) The court administrator or the clerk of the circuit and superior courts of a county may choose to follow the procedure for jury selection and service set out in IC 33-28-5 instead of the procedure set out in this chapter. The court administrator shall serve as the jury commissioner under IC 33-28-5. If the decision to follow IC 33-28-5 is made, all the provisions of IC 33-28-5 must be followed.

Sec. 2. (a) The circuit court shall, during November, appoint for the next calendar year two (2) persons, at least one (1) of whom shall be a resident of the town or city in which the court shall be held, as jury commissioners.

(b) The jury commissioners appointed under subsection (a) must be freeholders and voters of the county, well known to be of opposite politics, and of good character for intelligence, morality, and integrity.

(c) The circuit court shall cause the jury commissioners to appear and take an oath or affirmation in open court, to be entered of record in the order book of the court in the following form: "You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will honestly, and without favor or prejudice, perform the duties of jury commissioners during your term of office, that, in selecting persons to be drawn as jurors, you will select none but persons whom you believe to be of good repute for intelligence and honesty, that you will select none whom you have been or may be requested to select, and that, in all of your selections, you will endeavor to promote only the impartial administration of justice.".

(d) After entering the oath required under subsection (c), the court shall instruct the jury commissioners concerning their duties.

Sec. 3. (a) The jury commissioners shall immediately, from the names of legal voters and citizens of the United States on the latest tax duplicate and the tax schedules of the county, examine for the purpose of determining the sex, age, and identity of prospective jurors, and proceed to select and deposit, in a box furnished by the clerk for that purpose, the names, written on separate slips of paper of uniform shape, size, and color, of twice as many persons as will be required by law for grand and petit jurors in the courts of the county, for all the terms of the courts, to begin with the following calendar year.

(b) Each selection shall be made as nearly as possible in proportion to the population of each county commissioner's district. In making the selections, the jury commissioners shall in all things observe their oaths. The jury commissioners shall not select the name of any person who is to them known to be interested in or has case pending that may be tried by a jury to be drawn from the names so selected.

(c) The jury commissioners shall deliver the locked box to the clerk of the circuit court, after having deposited into the box the names as directed under this section. The key shall be retained by one (1) of the jury commissioners, who may not be an adherent of the same political party as the clerk.

(d) In a county containing a consolidated city, the jury commissioners may, upon an order made by the judge of the circuit court and entered in the records of the circuit court of the county, make the selections and deposits required under this section monthly instead of annually. The jury commissioners may omit the personal examination of prospective jurors, the examination of voters lists, and make selection without reference to county commissioners' districts. The judge of the circuit court in a county containing a consolidated city may do the following:

(1) Appoint a secretary for the jury commissioners, and sufficient stenographic aid and clerical help to properly perform the duties of the jury commissioners.

(2) Fix the salaries of the commissioners, the secretary, and stenographic and clerical employees.

(3) Provide office quarters and necessary supplies for the jury commissioners and their employees.

The expenses incurred under this subsection shall be paid for from the treasury of the county upon the order of the court.

(e) Subject to appropriations made by the county fiscal body, the jury commissioners may use a computerized jury selection system. However, the system used for the selection system must be fair and may not violate the rights of persons with respect to the impartial and random selection of prospective jurors. The jurors selected under the computerized jury selection system must be eligible for selection under this chapter. The commissioners shall deliver the names of the individuals selected to the clerk of the circuit court. The commissioners shall observe their oath in all activities taken under this subsection.

(f) The jury commissioners may supplement voter registration lists and tax schedules under subsection (a) with names from lists of persons residing in the county that the jury commissioners may designate as necessary to obtain a cross-section of the population of each county commissioner's district. The lists designated by the jury commissioners under this subsection must be used for the selection of jurors throughout the entire county.

(g) The supplemental sources designated under subsection (f) may consist of such lists as those of utility customers, persons filing income tax returns, motor vehicle registrations, city directories, telephone directories, and driver's licenses. These supplemental lists may not be substituted for the voter registration list. The jury commissioners may not draw more names from supplemental sources than are drawn from the voter registration lists and tax schedules.

Sec. 4. When a court believes that by reason of numerous challenges in any cause, a special venire should issue for jurors, the court shall direct the clerk to draw from the box described in section 3 of this chapter the number of names considered proper. The persons drawn under this section shall be summoned by virtue of the special venire. If:

- (1) the names in the box are exhausted for any reason; and
- (2) a court of the county cannot be furnished with juries at any term during the calendar year;

the circuit court, or judge of the circuit court in vacation, shall by order require the jury commissioners at a time to be fixed, to deposit in the box the additional number of names as the court or judge shall name in the order. Additional jurors shall be selected under the rules and regulations prescribed in section 3 of this chapter. The box shall then be delivered to the clerk, as provided under section 3 of this chapter, to be drawn by the clerk as may be necessary under section 9 of this chapter.

Sec. 5. The box described in section 3 of this chapter shall remain in possession of the clerk, securely locked. The only key to the box must remain in the possession of the jury commissioner, of opposite politics from the clerk. The clerk shall be present each time the box is opened, for any purpose under this chapter.

Sec. 6. (a) A person may not be appointed a jury commissioner if, at the time of the appointment, the person is:

- (1) a party to; or
- (2) interested in;

a case pending in the county that may be tried by a jury to be drawn during the calendar year following the year of the appointment.

(b) A person appointed a jury commissioner, who fails to take the office, or having accepted the office, fails without good cause, to discharge any of the duties of the office, is guilty of contempt of the court. A person guilty of contempt under this section shall be summarily punished by fine of at least five dollars ($5) and not more than one hundred dollars ($100).

Sec. 7. (a) The circuit court shall appoint a person to fill a vacancy, or to act for a jury commissioner, as the case may require, if:

- (1) a vacancy occurs in the office of jury commissioner;
- (2) a jury commissioner fails to act when required; or
- (3) illness or any other cause renders a jury commissioner unable to act.

(b) A person appointed under subsection (a):

- (1) must possess the qualifications required for jury commissioners;
- (2) must be an adherent of the same political party as is the commissioner in whose stead the person is appointed to serve;
- (3) shall take the oath required by this chapter.

(c) For the time actually employed in the performance of jury commissioner's duties, each jury commissioner shall be allowed a per diem to be fixed by the court and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

Sec. 8. (a) A person shall be excused from acting as a juror if the person:

- (1) is at least sixty-five (65) years of age;
- (2) is a member in active service of the armed forces of the United States;
- (3) is an elected or appointed official of the executive, legislative, or judicial branches of government of:
 - (A) the United States;
 - (B) Indiana; or
 - (C) a unit of local government; who is actively engaged in the performance of the person's official duties;

- (4) is a member of the general assembly who makes the request to be excused before being sworn as a juror;

(5) is an honorary military staff officer appointed by the governor under IC 10-16-2-5;

(6) is an officer or enlisted person of the guard reserve forces authorized by the governor under IC 10-16-8;

(7) is a veterinarian licensed under IC 15-5-1.1;

(8) is serving as a member of the board of school commissioners of the city of Indianapolis under IC 20-3-11-2;

(9) is a dentist licensed under IC 25-14-1;

(10) is a member of a police or fire department or company under IC 36-8-3 or IC 36-8-12; or

(11) would serve as a juror during a criminal trial and the person is:

(A) an employee of the department of correction whose duties require contact with inmates confined in a department of correction facility; or

(B) the spouse or child of a person described in clause (A); and desires to be excused for that reason.

(b) A prospective juror is disqualified to serve on a jury if any of the following conditions exist:

(1) The person is not a citizen of the United States, at least eighteen (18) years of age, and a resident of the county.

(2) The person is unable to read, speak, and understand the English language with a degree of proficiency sufficient to fill out satisfactorily a juror qualification form.

(3) The person is incapable of rendering satisfactory jury service due to physical or mental disability. However, a person claiming this disqualification may be required to submit a physician's or authorized Christian Science practitioner's certificate confirming the disability, and the certifying physician or practitioner is then subject to inquiry by the court at the court's discretion.

(4) The person is under a sentence imposed for an offense.

(5) A guardian has been appointed for the person under IC 29-3 because the person has a mental incapacity.

(6) The person has had rights revoked by reason of a felony conviction and the rights have not been restored.

(c) A person may not serve as a petit juror in any county if the person served as a petit juror in the same county within the previous three hundred sixty-five (365) days. The fact that a person's selection as a juror would violate this subsection is sufficient cause for challenge.

(d) A grand jury, a petit jury, or an individual juror drawn for service in one (1) court may serve in another court of the county, in accordance with orders entered on the record in each of the courts.

(e) The same petit jurors may be used in civil cases and in criminal cases.

(f) A person may not be excluded from jury service on account of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, or economic status.

(g) Notwithstanding IC 35-47-2, IC 35-47-2.5, or the restoration of the right to serve on a jury under this section and except as provided in subsections (c), (d), and (l), a person who has been convicted of a crime of domestic violence (as defined in IC 35-41-1-6.3) may not possess a firearm:

(1) after the person is no longer under a sentence imposed for an offense; or

(2) after the person has had the person's rights restored following a conviction.

(h) Not earlier than five (5) years after the date of conviction, a person who has been convicted of a crime of domestic violence (as defined in IC 35-41-1-6.3) may petition the court for restoration of the person's right to possess a firearm. In determining whether to restore the person's right to possess a firearm, the court shall consider the following factors:

(1) Whether the person has been subject to:

(A) a protective order;

(B) a no contact order;

(C) a workplace violence restraining order; or

(D) any other court order that prohibits the person from possessing a firearm.

(2) Whether the person has successfully completed a substance abuse program, if applicable.

(3) Whether the person has successfully completed a parenting class, if applicable.

(4) Whether the person still presents a threat to the victim of the crime.

(5) Whether there is any other reason why the person should not possess a firearm, including whether the person failed to complete a specified condition under subsection (i) or whether the person has committed a subsequent offense.

(i) The court may condition the restoration of a person's right to possess a firearm upon the person's completion of specified conditions.

(j) If the court denies a petition for restoration of the right to possess a firearm, the person may not file a second or subsequent petition until one (1) year has elapsed.

(k) A person has not been convicted of a crime of domestic violence for purposes of subsection (h) if the conviction has been expunged or if the person has been pardoned.

(l) The right to possess a firearm shall be restored to a person whose conviction is reversed on appeal or on post-conviction review at the earlier of the following:

(1) At the time the prosecuting attorney states on the record that the charges that gave rise to the conviction will not be refiled.

(2) Ninety (90) days after the final disposition of the appeal or the post-conviction proceeding.

Sec. 9. (a) During the month of December, and at other times the judge considers necessary, the judge of any court of record in which jury trials are had shall by written order direct the clerk of the circuit court to draw grand jurors or petit jurors from the names selected by the jury commissioners. The names shall be drawn by the clerk in the presence of the jury commissioners, in a number equal to the number of jurors to be summoned according to the judge's orders. The names of jurors for each court having criminal jurisdiction shall be drawn first.

(b) At the time of the drawing, the clerk shall enter in the order book of the court a list of the names drawn, in the order in which they were drawn. The clerk shall attach the clerk's certificate to attest to the accuracy of the list. The clerk shall issue venires for the jurors as the courts direct. However, the jurors called to service shall be identified long enough before the trial or grand jury session to permit counsel to study their backgrounds.

(c) Notice to or summons of persons for jury duty shall be served by the clerk of the circuit court upon order of the court.

(d) The sheriff or bailiff shall call the jurors to the jury box in the same order in which their names were drawn. Jurors shall serve for three (3) months, or for a shorter period if a shorter period is specified in the judge's written order.

(e) This section shall be construed to supplement IC 34-36-2, and IC 34-36-3-5 through IC 34-36-3-7, and other statutory provisions for special juries, for juries by agreement, for juries from other counties, for struck juries, and for special venires. This section shall be construed liberally, to the effect that no indictment shall be quashed, and no trial, judgment, order, or proceeding shall be reversed or held invalid on the ground that the terms of this section have not been followed, unless it appears that the noncompliance was either in bad faith or was objected to promptly upon discovery and was probably harmful to the substantial rights of the objecting party.

Chapter 5. Circuit and Superior Court Jury Selection and Service

Sec. 1. As used in this chapter, "courts" means the circuit and superior courts of a county that choose to follow the procedure for jury selection and service set out in this chapter.

Sec. 2. As used in this chapter, "juror qualification form" means the form prescribed for use by the courts and mailed to each prospective juror, or an electronic data processing facsimile of the form that may be created on magnetic tape, punched cards, or computer discs.

Sec. 3. As used in this chapter, "jury commissioner" means the court administrator or the clerk of the court and includes a deputy court administrator designated by the jury commissioner periodically to act in the jury commissioner's place.

that fosters the policy and protects the rights secured by this chapter, contains all current, up-to-date voter registration lists for each precinct in the county, and is supplemented by names derived from other sources identified under this chapter.

Sec. 6. As used in this chapter, "qualified jury wheel" means the jury wheel in which there are placed the names or identifying numbers of prospective jurors drawn at random from the master list and who are not disqualified.

Sec. 7. As used in this chapter, "supervising judge" means a judge of the courts who is designated by the judges of the courts to supervise the jury selection process.

Sec. 8. As used in this chapter, "voter registration lists" means the official records of persons registered to vote.

Sec. 9. The jury commissioner and supervising judge under the plan required by section 13 of this chapter shall provide a uniform system of jury selection for the courts ensuring that:

- (1) persons selected for jury service are selected at random from a fair cross-section of the population of the area served by the courts; and
- (2) qualified citizens have the opportunity under this chapter to:
 - (A) be considered for jury service in the county; and
 - (B) fulfill their obligation to serve as jurors when summoned for that purpose.

Sec. 10. (a) The supervising judge is responsible for the selection of jurors as prescribed by this section.

(b) The supervising judge may authorize use of a computerized jury selection system under this chapter.

(c) A system authorized under subsection (b) must be fair and may not violate the rights of persons with respect to impartial and random selection of prospective jurors. Jurors selected under a computerized selection system must be eligible for selection under this chapter.

Sec. 11. (a) The court administrator shall serve as the jury commissioner for the county and has the powers and shall perform the duties prescribed in this chapter for the jury commissioner under the direction of the supervising judge.

(b) When acting as jury commissioner, the court administrator may not receive any compensation in addition to the court administrator's regular salary.

(c) The court administrator may delegate certain duties of the jury commissioner to a deputy court administrator with the approval of the supervising judge.

Sec. 12. (a) Under the supervision of the supervising judge, the jury commissioner shall prepare a written plan for the selection of grand and petit jurors in the county. The plan must be designed to achieve the objectives of, and otherwise comply with, this chapter. The plan must specify the following:

- (1) Source of names for the master list.
- (2) Form of the master list.
- (3) Method of selecting names from the master list.

- (5) Method of drawing names of qualified jurors for prospective service.
- (6) Procedures to be followed by prospective jurors in requesting to be excused from jury service.
- (7) Number of petit jurors that constitutes a panel for civil and criminal cases or a description of the uniform manner in which this determination is made.

(b) The plan must be placed into operation after approval by the judges of the courts. The judges of the courts shall examine the plan to determine whether it complies with this chapter. If the plan is found not to comply, the court shall order the jury commissioner to make the necessary changes to bring the plan into compliance.

(c) The plan may be modified at any time according to the procedure specified under this chapter.

(d) The plan must be submitted by the jury commissioner to the judges of the courts. The judges of the courts shall approve or direct modification of the plan not later than sixty (60) days after its receipt. The approved plan must go into effect not later than sixty (60) days after approval by the judges of the courts.

(e) The plan is a public document on file in the office of the jury commissioner and must be available for inspection at all reasonable times.

Sec. 13. (a) The jury commissioner shall compile and maintain a master list consisting of all the voter registration lists for the county, supplemented with names from other lists of persons resident in the county that the supreme court shall periodically designate as necessary to obtain the broadest cross-section of the county, having determined that use of supplemental lists is feasible. The supreme court may designate supplemental lists for use by the courts periodically in a manner that fosters the policy and protects the rights secured by this chapter. Supplemental sources may consist of lists of:

- (1) utility customers;
- (2) property taxpayers; and
- (3) persons filing income tax returns, motor vehicle registrations, city directories, telephone directories, and driver's licenses.

Supplemental lists may not be substituted for the voter registration list. In drawing names from supplemental lists, the jury commissioner shall avoid duplication of names.

(b) A person who has custody, possession, or control of any of the lists making up or used in compiling the master list, including those designated under subsection (a) by the supreme court as supplementary sources of names, shall furnish the master list to the jury commissioner for inspection, reproduction, and copying at all reasonable times.

(c) When a copy of a list maintained by a public official is furnished, only the actual cost of the copy may be charged to the courts.

(d) The master list of names is open to the public for examination as a public record. However, the source of names and any information other than the names contained in the source is confidential.

Sec. 14. (a) Names must be drawn for juror service quarterly, based on a calendar year commencing in January. A public drawing of names for the next quarter must be held during the first week of the second month of the quarter next preceding that for which names are being drawn, at a time and place prescribed by the jury commissioner.

(b) The jury commissioner shall create and file an alphabetical list of names drawn under this section. The alphabetical list may be in the form of a serial listing or discreet records (such as punched cards, addressograph plates, or computer records) filed together to constitute the alphabetical list. Names may not be added to the alphabetical list, except by order of the court. The names drawn or any list compiled from the alphabetical list may not be disclosed to any person other than under this chapter or by order of the supervising judge.

(c) The number of names required to be drawn each quarter must be determined by the jury commissioner after consultation with all judges of the courts who may conduct jury trials during the quarter, taking into consideration the number of jurors required for the grand jury.

(d) The frequency of the drawing of names may be increased by the jury commissioner if the jury commissioner determines it necessary for purposes of fairness, efficiency, or to ensure compliance with this chapter.

(e) Names must be drawn randomly under section 16 of this chapter.

(f) Names drawn from the master list may not be returned to the master list until all nonexempt persons on the master list have been called.

Sec. 15. Assuming the master list contains names in some sequential order, such as an alphabetical or a numeric sequence, the drawing of names from the master list must be performed in the following manner:

(1) The total number of names on the master list is divided by the number of names to be drawn. The next whole number greater than the resulting quotient is the key number, except that the key number is never less than two (2).

(2) A starting name for making the selection is determined by randomly choosing a number between one (1) and the key number, inclusive.

(3) The required number of names is selected beginning with the starting name selected under subdivision (2) and proceeding to successive names appearing in the master list at intervals equal to the key number, recommencing at the beginning of the list until the required number of names is selected.

(4) Upon recommencing at the beginning of the list, or if additional names are subsequently ordered to be drawn from the master list, names previously selected in the process described in subdivision (3) must be disregarded in selecting the additional names.

(5) An electronic or a mechanical system may be used to draw names from the master list.

Sec. 16. (a) Not later than seven (7) days after the date of the drawing of names from the master list, the jury commissioner shall mail to each person whose name is drawn a juror qualification form. The form must be accompanied by instructions to fill out and return the form by mail to the jury commissioner not later than ten (10) days after its receipt. The instructions must state that requests for excuse from jury service during the next jury term should accompany the return of the qualification form.

(b) The juror qualification form must be designed by the jury commissioner and subject to approval by the judges of the courts as to matters of content and must elicit:

- (1) the prospective juror's name, address, and age; and
- (2) whether the prospective juror:
 - (A) is a citizen of the United States and a resident of the county;
 - (B) is able to read, speak, and understand English;
 - (C) has any physical or mental disability impairing the person's capacity to render satisfactory jury service; or
 - (D) has had rights revoked by reason of a felony conviction and not restored.

The juror qualification form must contain the prospective juror's declaration that the responses are true to the best of the prospective juror's knowledge. Notarization of the juror qualification form is not required.

(c) If a prospective juror is unable to fill out the form, another person may fill out the form for the prospective juror. If the form is completed by a person other than a prospective juror, the form must indicate that another person has done so and the reason for doing so.

(d) If it appears there is an omission, ambiguity, or error in a returned form, the jury commissioner shall resend the form, instructing the prospective juror to make the necessary addition, clarification, or correction and to return the form to the jury commissioner not later than ten (10) days after its second receipt.

(e) A prospective juror who fails to return a completed juror qualification form as instructed must be directed by the jury commissioner to immediately appear before the jury commissioner to fill out a juror qualification form.

(f) When a prospective juror appears for jury service, or when there is an official conversation with the supervising judge or jury commissioner, a prospective juror may be required to fill out another juror qualification form in the presence of the supervising judge or jury commissioner. At this time, the prospective juror may be questioned, but only with regard to responses to questions contained on the form and grounds for the prospective juror's excuse or disqualification. Information acquired under this subsection by the supervising judge or jury commissioner must be noted on the juror qualification form.

Sec. 17. (a) A prospective juror who fails to appear as directed by the jury commissioner under section 16 of this chapter must be ordered by the supervising judge to appear and show cause for the failure to appear as directed. If the prospective juror fails to appear under the supervising judge's order or fails to show good cause for the failure to appear as directed by the jury commissioner, the prospective juror is guilty of criminal contempt.

(b) A person who knowingly misrepresents a material fact on a juror qualification form for the purpose of avoiding or securing service as a juror commits a Class C misdemeanor.

Sec. 18. (a) The supervising judge or the jury commissioner shall determine solely on the basis of information provided on a juror qualification form or interview with a prospective juror whether the prospective juror is disqualified for jury service. The jury commissioner shall enter this determination in the space provided on the juror qualification form or electronic data processing facsimile and on the alphabetical list of names drawn from the master list.

(b) A person may not be automatically excused under this chapter. Upon request of a prospective juror, the supervising judge or jury commissioner shall determine on the basis of information provided on:

- (1) the juror qualification form;
- (2) correspondence from the prospective juror; or
- (3) an interview with the prospective juror;

whether the prospective juror may be excused from jury service. The jury commissioner shall enter this determination in the space provided on the juror qualification form.

(c) A person who is not disqualified for jury service may be excused from jury service only upon a showing of:

- (1) undue hardship;
- (2) extreme inconvenience; or
- (3) public necessity;

until the time of the next drawing when the person is resummoned. Appropriate records must be maintained by the jury commissioner to facilitate resummoning.

(d) Requests for excuse, other than those accompanying the return of the qualification form, must be made by the prospective juror in writing to the jury commissioner not later than three (3) days before the date when the prospective juror has been summoned to appear.

Sec. 19. (a) The jury commissioner shall maintain a qualified jury wheel and shall place in the jury wheel the names or identifying numbers of all prospective jurors drawn from the master list who are not disqualified or excused.

(b) The judges of the courts shall, by local court rule, specify the procedure to be used for:

- (1) the selection of qualified prospective jurors under this section; and
- (2) summoning qualified prospective jurors whose names are drawn from the qualified jury wheel.

(c) Upon receipt of an order for a grand jury, the jury commissioner shall publicly, and in accordance with section 20 of this chapter, draw at random from the qualified jury wheel twelve (12) qualified jurors and direct them to appear before the supervising judge. The supervising judge shall randomly select six (6) jurors after:

- (1) explaining to the twelve (12) prospective jurors the duties and responsibilities of a grand jury; and
- (2) excusing jurors under section 18 of this chapter.

(d) Whenever there is an unanticipated shortage of available petit jurors drawn from a qualified jury wheel, the supervising judge may require the jury commissioner to draw additional jurors at random from the qualified jury wheel. Talesmen may not be solicited from among bystanders or from any source except from among names drawn from the qualified jury wheel.

(e) The names of qualified jurors drawn from the qualified jury wheel and the contents of jury qualification forms completed by those jurors may not be made available to the public until the period of service of those jurors has expired. However, attorneys in any cases in which these jurors may serve may have access to the information.

Sec. 20. The same method described in section 15 of this chapter for drawing names from the master list must be followed for drawing names from the qualified jury wheel unless the names in the qualified jury wheel are not in some sequential order as described in section 15 of this chapter. The key number system is not necessary if the names are in the form of ballots or in some other form requiring them to be blindly drawn from a container by hand.

Sec. 21. (a) Not later than seven (7) days after a moving party discovers or by the exercise of diligence could have discovered grounds, but before a petit jury is sworn to try a case, a party may:

- (1) in a civil case move to stay the proceedings; and
- (2) in a criminal case move:
 - (A) to dismiss the indictment (if the case has been brought by indictment);
 - (B) to stay the proceedings; or
 - (C) for other appropriate relief; on the ground of substantial failure to comply with this chapter in selecting the prospective grand or petit jurors.

(b) Upon a motion filed under subsection (a) containing a sworn statement of facts that, if true, would constitute a substantial failure to comply with this chapter, the moving party may present in support of the motion:

- (1) the testimony of the jury commissioner;
- (2) relevant records and papers not public or otherwise available used by the jury commissioner; and
- (3) other relevant evidence.

(c) If the court determines that in selecting either a grand jury or a petit jury there has been a substantial failure to comply with this chapter, the court:

- (1) shall stay the proceedings pending the selection of the jury in conformity with this chapter; and
- (2) may dismiss an indictment (if the case was brought by indictment) or grant other appropriate relief.

(d) The procedures required by this section are the exclusive means by which the state, a person accused of an offense, or a party in a civil case may challenge a jury on the ground that the jury was not selected in conformity with this chapter.

(e) The parties to the case may inspect, reproduce, and copy the records or papers of the jury commissioner at all reasonable times during the preparation and pendency of a motion under subsection (a).

Sec. 22. After the period of service for which names were drawn from the master jury list has expired, and all persons selected to serve as jurors have been discharged, all records and papers compiled and maintained by the jury commissioner or the clerk must be preserved by the clerk of the courts for the period prescribed by rule of the supreme court. The records and papers must be available for public inspection at all reasonable times.

Sec. 23. (a) A person who appears for service as a petit or grand juror serves until the conclusion of the first trial in which the juror is sworn, regardless of the length of the trial or the manner in which the trial is disposed. A person who appears for service but is not selected and sworn as a juror completes the person's service at the end of one (1) day.

(b) A person who:

(1) serves as a juror under this chapter; or

(2) completes one (1) day of jury selection but is not chosen to serve as a juror;

may not be selected for another jury panel until all nonexempt persons on the master list have been called for jury duty.

Sec. 24. A person summoned for jury service who fails to appear or complete jury service as directed must be ordered by the court to immediately appear and show cause for the person's failure to comply with the summons. If the person fails to show good cause for noncompliance with the summons, the person is guilty of criminal contempt and upon conviction may be fined not more than one hundred dollars ($100) or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than three (3) days, or both.

Sec. 25. The supreme court may adopt rules, not inconsistent with this chapter, regulating the selection and service of jurors.

Chapter 6. Lake County Jury Selection and Service Provisions

Sec. 1. The policy of this chapter is to provide a uniform system of jury selection for all courts so that:

- (1) all persons selected for jury service shall be selected at random from a fair cross-section of the population of the area served by the court; and
- (2) all qualified citizens have the opportunity in accordance with this chapter to be considered for jury service in this county and an obligation to serve as jurors when summoned for that purpose.

Sec. 2. (a) As used in this chapter, "court" means the superior court of a county having a population of more than four hundred thousand (400,000) but less than seven hundred thousand (700,000).

(b) The term includes all other courts in the counties.

Sec. 3. As used in this chapter, "juror qualification form" means the form prescribed for use by the court and mailed to each prospective juror, or an electronic data processing facsimile of that form that might be created on magnetic tape, punched cards, or computer discs.

Sec. 4. As used in this chapter, "jury commissioner" includes any deputy court administrator designated by the jury commissioner from time to time to act in the jury commissioner's place.

Sec. 5. As used in this chapter, "jury wheel" means any list, physical device, or electronic system for the storage of the names or identifying numbers of prospective jurors.

Sec. 6. As used in this chapter, "master list" means all current, up-to-date voter registration lists for each precinct in the county supplemented with names from other sources prescribed pursuant to this chapter, in order to foster the policy and protect the rights secured by this chapter. The master list may be in the form of a serially printed list, a magnetic tape, an addressograph file, punched cards, or such other form considered by the chief judge to be consistent with this chapter.

Sec. 7. As used in this chapter, "qualified jury wheel" means the jury wheel in which there are placed the names or identifying numbers of prospective jurors drawn at random from the master list and who are not disqualified.

Sec. 8. As used in this chapter, "voter registration lists" means the official records of persons registered to vote in the most recent general election.

Sec. 9. A citizen may not be excluded from jury service in counties affected by this chapter on account of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, or economic status.

Sec. 10. (a) The chief judge of the superior court within counties affected by this chapter is responsible for the selection of jurors as prescribed by this section.

(b) The chief judge of the superior court may authorize the use of a computerized jury selection system under this chapter. However, the system used for the selection system must be fair and may not violate the rights of persons with respect to the impartial and random selection of prospective jurors. The jurors selected under the computerized selection system must be eligible for selection under this chapter.

Sec. 11. (a) The court administrator of the court shall also serve as the jury commissioner for the county, and has the powers and shall perform the duties prescribed in this chapter for jury commissioners, under the direction of the chief judge.

(b) The court administrator in the court administrator's role as jury commissioner shall not receive any compensation in addition to the court administrator's regular salary.

(c) Performance of certain duties of the jury commissioner may be delegated to a deputy court administrator with the express approval of the chief judge.

(d) The jury commissioner may choose to follow the procedure for jury selection and service set out in IC 33-28-5 instead of the procedure set out in this chapter. If the decision to follow IC 33-28-5 is made, all the provisions of IC 33-28-5 must be followed.

Sec. 12. (a) The jury commissioner, under the supervision of the chief judge, shall prepare a written plan for the selection of grand and petit jurors in this county designed to achieve the objectives of, and otherwise comply with the provisions of, this chapter. This plan must specify the following:

- (1) The source of names for the master list.
- (2) The form of the list.
- (3) The method of selecting names from the list.
- (4) The forms of, and method for, maintaining records of names drawn, jurors qualified, and juror's excuses and reasons therefore.

(5) The method of drawing names of qualified jurors for prospective service.

(6) The procedures to be followed by prospective jurors in requesting excuse from jury service.

The plan must either specify the number of petit jurors that constitute a panel for civil and criminal cases or describe the uniform manner in which this determination shall be made.

(b) The plan shall be placed into operation after approval by the court. The judges of the court shall examine the plan to ascertain that it complies with the intent and provisions of this chapter. If the plan is found not to comply, the court shall order the jury commissioner to make the necessary changes.

(c) The plan may be modified at any time under the procedure specified under this chapter.

(d) The plan shall be submitted by the jury commissioner to the court. The court shall approve or direct modification of the plan within sixty (60) days after its receipt. The approved plan shall go into effect not more than sixty (60) days after approval by the court.

(e) The plan is a public document on file in the office of the jury commissioner and available for inspection at all reasonable times.

Sec. 13. (a) The jury commissioner shall compile and maintain a master list consisting of all the voter registration lists for the county, supplemented with names from other lists of persons resident in the county that the supreme court shall periodically designate as necessary to obtain the broadest cross-section of the county, having determined that use of the supplemental lists is feasible. The supreme court shall exercise the authority to designate supplemental lists periodically in order to foster the policy and protect the rights secured by this article. The supplemental sources may include lists of utility customers, property taxpayers, and persons filing income tax returns, motor vehicle registrations, city directories, telephone directories, and driver's licenses. Supplemental lists may not be substituted for the voter registration list. In drawing names from supplemental lists, the jury commissioner shall avoid duplication of names.

(b) Whoever has custody, possession, or control of any of the lists making up or used in compiling the master list, including those designated under subsection (a) by the supreme court as supplementary sources of names, shall furnish the list to the jury commissioner for inspection, reproduction, and copying at all reasonable times.

(c) When a copy of a list maintained by a public official is furnished, only the actual cost of the copy may be charged to the court.

(d) The master list of names shall be open to the public for examination as a public record, except that the source of names and any information other than the names contained in that source may not be public information.

Sec. 14. (a) Names shall be drawn for juror service quarterly, based on a calendar year commencing in January. A public drawing shall be held of names for the next quarter during the first week of the second month of the quarter next preceding that for which names are being drawn, at a time and place prescribed by the jury commissioner.

(b) An alphabetic list of names so drawn shall be created and filed in the office of the jury commissioner. The list may be in the form of a serial listing or discreet records (such as punched cards or addressograph plates) filed together to constitute the list. Names may not be added to this list, except by order of the court. The names drawn or any list compiled from the names drawn may not be disclosed to any person other than under this chapter or specific order of the chief judge.

(c) The number of names required to be drawn each quarter shall be determined by the jury commissioner after consultation with all judges who may conduct jury trials during the quarter, taking into consideration the number of jurors required for the grand jury.

(d) The frequency of drawing of names may be increased by the jury commissioner without amendment to this chapter when the jury commissioner considers it necessary for purposes of fairness or efficiency or to ensure compliance with this chapter.

(e) Names shall be drawn randomly in the manner prescribed in section 15 of this chapter.

(f) Names drawn from the master list may not be returned to the list until one (1) year after the date of the drawing of the name.

Sec. 15. (a) If the master list contains names in some sequential order, such as alphabetic or numeric sequence, the drawing of names from the master list shall be performed in the following manner:

STEP ONE: The total number of names on the master list shall be divided by the number of names desired to be drawn. The whole number next greater than the resulting quotient shall be the "key number" except that the key number may not be less than two (2).

STEP TWO: A "starting name" for making the selection shall then be determined by randomly choosing a number between one (1) and the "key number", inclusive.

STEP THREE: The required number of names shall then be selected beginning with the "starting name" selected under STEP TWO and proceeding to successive names appearing in the master list at intervals equal to the "key number", recommencing at the beginning of the list until the required number of names has been selected.

(b) Upon recommencing at the beginning of the list, or if additional names are subsequently ordered to be drawn from the master list, names previously selected in the process described in subsection (a) STEP THREE shall be disregarded in selecting the additional name.

(c) An electronic or a mechanical system may be used to draw names from the master list.

Sec. 16. (a) Not more than one (1) calendar week after the date of the drawing of names from the master list, the jury commissioner shall cause to be mailed to each person whose name is drawn a juror qualification form. The form shall be accompanied by instructions to fill out and return the form by mail to the jury commissioner within ten (10) days after its receipt. The instructions shall further state that requests for excuse from jury service during the next jury term should accompany return of the qualification form.

(b) The juror qualification form:

- (1) shall be designed by the jury commissioner subject to approval by the court as to matters of content; and
- (2) must elicit the name, address of residence, and age of the prospective juror and whether the prospective juror:

- (A) is a citizen of the United States and a resident of the county;
- (B) is able to read, speak, and understand the English language;
- (C) has any physical or mental disability impairing the prospective juror's capacity to render satisfactory jury service; or
- (D) has had rights revoked by reason of a felony conviction and not restored.

The juror qualification form must contain the prospective juror's declaration that the prospective juror's responses are true to the best of prospective juror's knowledge. Notarization of the juror qualification form is not required.

(c) If the prospective juror is unable to fill out the form, another person may do it for the prospective juror. A person filling out the form for a prospective juror shall indicate that the person has done so and the reason that the prospective juror was unable to fill out the form.

(d) If it appears there is an omission, ambiguity, or error in a returned form, the jury commissioner shall again send the form, instructing the prospective juror to:

- (1) make the necessary addition, clarification, or correction; and
- (2) return the form to the jury commissioner within ten (10) days after its second receipt.

(e) A prospective juror who fails to return a completed juror qualification form as instructed shall be directed by the jury commissioner to appear before the jury commissioner to fill out a juror qualification form.

(f) At the time of a prospective juror's appearance for jury service, or at the time of any official conversation with the court or jury commissioner, any prospective juror may be required to fill out another juror qualification form in the presence of the court or jury commissioner. At this time the prospective juror may be questioned, but only with regard to the prospective juror's responses to questions contained on the form and grounds for the prospective juror's excuse or disqualification. Any information thus acquired by the court or clerk shall be noted on the juror qualification form.

(g) A prospective juror who fails to appear as directed by the jury commissioner under this section shall be ordered by the court to appear and show cause for the prospective juror's failure to appear as directed. If the prospective juror fails to appear under the court's order or fails to show good cause for the prospective juror's failure to appear as directed by the jury commissioner, the prospective juror is guilty of criminal contempt.

(h) A person who knowingly misrepresents a material fact on a juror qualification form for the purpose of avoiding or securing service as a juror commits a Class C misdemeanor.

Sec. 17. (a) The court or the jury commissioner shall determine solely on the basis of information provided on the juror qualification form or interview with the prospective juror whether or not the prospective juror is disqualified for jury service. The jury commissioner shall enter this determination in the space provided on the juror qualification form or electronic data processing facsimile and on the alphabetical list of names drawn from the master list.

(b) A prospective juror is disqualified to serve on a jury if the prospective juror:

- (1) is not a citizen of the United States, at least eighteen (18) years of age, and a resident of the county;
- (2) is unable to read, speak, and understand the English language with a degree of proficiency sufficient to fill out satisfactorily the juror qualification form;
- (3) is incapable, by reasons of a physical or mental disability, of rendering satisfactory jury service; or
- (4) has had the prospective juror's rights revoked by reason of a felony conviction and not restored.

(c) A person claiming a disqualification under subsection (b)(3) may be required to submit a physician's or an authorized Christian Science practitioner's certificate as to the disability. The court may subject the certifying physician or practitioner to inquiry.

Sec. 18. (a) The jury commissioner shall maintain a qualified jury wheel and shall place in the jury wheel the names or identifying numbers of all prospective jurors drawn from the master list who are not disqualified or excused.

(b) A judge of any court or any other state or county official having the authority to conduct a trial or hearing with a jury within the county by order may direct the jury commissioner to draw and assign to that court or official the number of qualified jurors necessary for one (1) or more petit jury panels. Upon receipt of the order and in a manner prescribed in section 20 of this chapter, the jury commissioner shall publicly draw at random from the qualified jury wheel the number of qualified jurors required by the order and assign the qualified jurors so drawn to the court's jury panel.

(c) Upon receipt of an order for a grand jury, the jury commissioner shall publicly and in a manner prescribed in section 20 of this chapter draw at random from the qualified jury wheel twelve (12) qualified jurors who shall be directed to appear before the chief judge. The chief judge shall randomly select six (6) jurors and one (1) alternate juror after having explained to the twelve (12) prospective jurors the duties and responsibilities of a grand jury and having excused jurors as prescribed in section 21 of this chapter.

(d) An alphabetical listing of grand and petit jurors assigned to each court location shall be maintained by the jury commissioner and a copy transmitted to the judge for whom the names have been drawn.

(e) If a grand, petit, or other jury is ordered to be drawn, the clerk shall cause each person drawn for jury service to be served with a summons either personally or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the person at the person's usual residence, business, or post office address. The summons requires the person to report for jury service at a specified time and place.

(f) If there is an unanticipated shortage of available petit jurors drawn from a qualified jury wheel, the court may require the jury commissioner to:

- (1) draw additional jurors at random from the qualified jury wheel; or
- (2) send available jurors from another panel to the court location requiring additional jurors.

Talesmen may not be solicited from among bystanders or from any source except from among names drawn from the qualified jury wheel.

(g) The names of qualified jurors drawn from the qualified jury wheel and the contents of jury qualification forms completed by those jurors may not be made available to the public until the period of service of those jurors has expired, except that attorneys in any cases in which these jurors may serve shall have access to the information.

Sec. 19. A qualified prospective juror is not exempt from jury service except for the following:

(1) Members in active service of the Armed Forces of the United States who are actively engaged in the performance of their official duties.

(2) Elected or appointed officials of the executive, legislative, or judicial branches of government of the:

(A) United States;

(B) State of Indiana; or

(C) counties affected by this chapter; who are actively engaged in the performance of their official duties.

(3) A person who:

(A) would serve as a juror during a criminal trial; and

(B) is:

(i) an employee of the department of correction whose duties require contact with inmates confined in a department of correction facility; or

(ii) the spouse or child of a person described in item (i); and desires to be excused for that reason.

Sec. 20. The same method described in section 15 of this chapter for drawing names from the master list shall be followed for drawing names from the qualified wheel unless the names in the qualified wheel are not in some sequential order as described in section 15 of this chapter. If the names are in the form of ballots or in some other form in which they must be blindly drawn from a container by hand, the key number system is not necessary.

Sec. 21. (a) Except as provided in section 19 of this chapter, a person may not be automatically excused under this chapter. The chief judge or jury commissioner, upon request of a prospective juror, shall determine on the basis of information provided on the juror qualification form, correspondence from the prospective juror, or interview with the prospective juror whether the prospective juror should be excused from jury service. The jury commissioner shall enter this determination in the space provided on the juror qualification form.

(b) A person who is not disqualified for jury service may be excused from jury service only upon a showing of undue hardship, extreme inconvenience, or public necessity, until the time of the next drawing at which time the person will be resummoned. Appropriate records shall be maintained by the jury commissioner to facilitate a resummoning.

(c) Requests for excuse, other than those accompanying return of the qualification form, shall be made by the prospective juror in writing to the presiding judge not later than three (3) weeks before the date upon which the prospective juror has been summoned to appear.

Sec. 22. (a) Not more than seven (7) days after the moving party discovered or by the exercise of diligence could have discovered the grounds and before the petit jury is sworn to try the case, a party may move to stay the proceedings, and in a criminal case, to dismiss the indictment (if the case has been brought by indictment) or stay the proceedings or for other appropriate relief, on the ground of substantial failure to comply with this chapter in selecting the prospective grand or petit jurors.

(b) Upon motion filed under subsection (a) containing a sworn statement of facts which, if true, would constitute a substantial failure to comply with this chapter, the moving party is entitled to present in support of the motion the testimony of the jury commissioner any relevant records and papers not public or otherwise available used by the jury commissioner and any other relevant evidence. If the court determines that in selecting either a grand jury or a petit jury there has been a substantial failure to comply with this chapter, the court shall stay the proceedings pending the selection of the jury in conformity with this article, and may dismiss an indictment (if the instant case was brought by indictment) or grant other appropriate relief.

(c) The procedures prescribed by this section are the exclusive means by which the state, a person accused of an offense, or a party in a civil case may challenge a jury on the ground that the jury was not selected in conformity with this chapter.

(d) The parties to the case may inspect, reproduce, and copy the records or papers of the jury commissioner at all reasonable times during the preparation and pendency of a motion under subsection (a).

Sec. 23. After the period of service for which names were drawn from the master jury list has expired, and all persons elected to serve as jurors have been discharged, all records and papers compiled and maintained by the jury commissioner or the clerk shall be preserved by the clerk for a period as prescribed by rule of the supreme court and must be available for public inspection at all reasonable times.

Sec. 24. In any one (1) year period, a person may not be eligible or required to be available for service as a petit or grand juror for more than one (1) term of service, except when necessary to complete service in a particular case. The term of service shall be three (3) months unless a shorter jury term is ordered by the chief judge due to a sustained increase in frequency or length of jury trials that would result in a requirement for jurors to be present at court more than ten (10) court days during the quarter, except as necessary to complete service in a particular case.

Sec. 25. A person summoned for jury service who fails to appear or to complete jury service as directed shall be ordered by the court to appear and show cause for the person's failure to comply with the summons. If the person fails to show good cause for noncompliance with the summons, the person is guilty of criminal contempt and upon conviction may be fined not more than one hundred dollars ($100) or imprisoned in the county jail not more than three (3) days, or both.

Sec. 26. The supreme court may make and amend rules, not inconsistent with this chapter, regulating the selection and service of jurors.

A ballot not accompanied by the signed certificate of the voter may not be counted.

(5) A separate envelope shall be provided by the clerk for the ballot, in which only the voted ballot is to be placed. This envelope may not be opened until the counting of the ballots.

(6) The clerk of the superior court shall mail a ballot and its accompanying material to all qualified electors at least two (2) weeks before the date of election.

(7) Upon receiving the completed ballots and the accompanying certificates, the clerk shall ensure that the certificates have been completed in compliance with this chapter. All ballots that are accompanied by a valid certificate

A ballot received after 4 p.m. may not be counted unless the chairman of the judicial nominating commission orders an extension of time because of extraordinary circumstances. Upon canvassing the ballots the clerk shall place all ballots in their package. These, along with the certificates, shall be retained in the clerk's office for six (6) months, and the clerk may not permit anyone to inspect them except upon an order of the court of appeals.

(9) If two (2) or more nominees are tied so that one (1) additional vote cast for one (1) of them would give that nominee a plurality, the canvassers shall resolve the tie by lot, and the winner of the lot is considered to have been elected.

Sec. 37. After:

(1) the attorney members of the commission have been elected; and

(2) the names of the nonattorney commissioners appointed by the governor have been certified to the secretary of state, the clerk of the supreme court, and the clerk of Allen superior court;

a judge in another division may not more than thirty (30) days after the vacancy occurs transfer to the vacant position for the remainder of the transferring judge's term. A judge who has made one (1) transfer is ineligible to make any other transfers. If more than one (1) judge desires to transfer, the most senior of these judges is entitled to transfer. After a transfer, or the thirty (30) day period if a transfer is not made, the commission shall meet to nominate three (3) candidates to fill the unexpired term of the vacancy caused by the transferring judge or the original vacancy if a transfer is not made.

(b) The clerk shall promptly notify the members of the commission of a vacancy that the commission must fill under subsection (a), and the chairman shall call a meeting of the commission within ten (10) days following that notice. The commission shall submit its nominations of three (3) candidates for the vacancy and shall certify them to the governor not later than sixty (60) days after the vacancy occurred. When it is known that a vacancy will occur at a definite future date within the term of the governor then serving:

- (1) the clerk shall notify the chairman and each member of the commission immediately; and
- (2) the chairman shall call a meeting of the commission within ten (10) days following that notice.

The commission may then submit its nominations of three (3) candidates for each impending vacancy and shall certify them to the governor.

(c) Meetings of the commission shall be called by its chairman, or, if the chairman fails to call a necessary meeting, upon the call of any four (4) members of the commission. Written notice of a meeting shall be given by mail to each member of the commission at least five (5) days before the meeting, unless the commission at its previous meeting designated the time and place of its next meeting.

(d) Meetings of the commission may be held in the Allen County courthouse or in another public building in Allen County designated by the commission.

(e) The commission shall act only at a meeting and may act only by the concurrence of a majority of its members attending a meeting. The commission may adopt rules for the conduct of its proceedings and the discharge of its duties.

(4) The political affiliations of a candidate may not be considered.

Sec. 41. The commission shall submit to the governor, with its list of nominees, its written evaluation of the qualifications of each nominee.

Sec. 42. (a) After the commission has nominated and submitted to the governor the names of three (3) nominees:

(1) a name may be withdrawn for a cause considered by the commission to substantially affect the nominee's qualifications to hold office; and

(b) If a nominee dies or requests in writing that the nominee's name be withdrawn, the commission shall nominate another person to replace the nominee.

(c) If two (2) or more vacancies exist, the commission shall nominate and submit to the governor a list of three (3) different persons for each of the vacancies. However, the superior court may order the day the jurors are summoned to attend the court, and any judge of the court may order the selection and summoning of other jurors for the court whenever necessary. Sec. 26. The judge of the circuit court may, with the consent of the chief judge, transfer any action, cause, or proceeding filed and docketed in the circuit court to the superior court by transferring all original papers and instruments filed in the action, cause, or proceeding without further transcript to be redocketed and disposed of as if originally filed with the superior court.

Sec. 27. The chief judge of the superior court may, with the consent of the judge of the circuit court, transfer any action, cause, or proceeding filed and docketed in the superior court to the circuit court by transferring all original papers and instruments filed in the action, cause, or proceeding without further transcript to be redocketed and disposed of as if originally filed with the circuit court.

Sec. 28. The judge of the St. Joseph circuit court at the circuit court judge's discretion, may sit as a judge of the superior court, with the chief judge's permission, in all matters pending before the superior court, without limitation and without any further order, in the same manner as if the judge of the circuit court were a judge of the superior court with all the rights and powers as if the judge of the circuit court were an elected judge of the superior court.

Sec. 29. (a) There is established a judicial nominating commission for the St. Joseph superior court, the functions, responsibilities, and procedures of which are set forth in sections 30 through 40 of this chapter.

(b) The board of county commissioners of St. Joseph County shall provide all facilities, equipments, supplies, and services necessary for the administration of the duties imposed upon the commission. The members of this commission shall serve without compensation. However, the board of county commissioners of St. Joseph County shall reimburse members of this commission for their actual expenses incurred in performing their duties.

Sec. 30. (a) The judicial nominating commission (referred to as the "commission" in this chapter) consists of seven (7) members, the majority of whom shall form a quorum. The chief justice shall appoint a justice of the supreme court or a judge of the court of appeals to serve as a member and chairman of the commission until a successor is appointed. Those admitted to the practice of law in Indiana and residing in St. Joseph County or maintaining their principal law office in St. Joseph County shall elect, under sections 32 and 33 of this chapter, three (3) of their number to serve as attorney members of the commission. If any attorney member of the commission terminates residence in St. Joseph County or discontinues the maintenance of a principal law office in St. Joseph County, the member shall be considered to have resigned from the commission. The three (3) remaining members of the commission must be persons not admitted to the practice of law (referred to as "nonattorney members" in this chapter) and residents of St. Joseph County. However, not more than two (2) of the nonattorney members may be from the same political party and that the appointment of the nonattorney members of the commission shall be made under section 31 of this chapter. Not more than four (4) commission members may be from the same political party.

(b) A member of the commission may not hold any other salaried public office nor an office in a political party organization.

A member of the commission is not eligible for appointment to a judicial office in St. Joseph County who has, within four (4) years immediately preceding an appointment, served on the commission. If any nonattorney member of the commission terminates residence in St. Joseph County, the member is considered to have resigned from the commission.

Sec. 31. (a) The appointment to membership on the commission of the nonattorney members shall be made by a selection committee consisting of the judge of the St. Joseph circuit court, the president of the board of St. Joseph County commissioners, and mayors in each of the two (2) cities having the largest populations in St. Joseph County. These appointments shall be made by a majority vote of the selection committee. If a vacancy occurs on the commission among the nonattorney members, that fact shall be reported to the judge of the St. Joseph circuit court by the commission. Upon notification, the judge of the St. Joseph circuit court shall call into session the selection committee, which shall, by majority vote, select a person or persons not admitted to the practice of law, who shall serve the unexpired term of the vacant commission membership position and that this selection and appointment by the selection committee shall be made within sixty (60) days after the date the St. Joseph circuit court is notified of the creation of the vacancy. If the selection committee fails to act to fill an unexpired term of a nonattorney member of the commission within sixty (60) days after the notification that the vacancy exists, the vacancy shall be filled by a majority vote of the remaining members of the commission.

(b) Not less than sixty (60) days before the expiration of the term of a nonattorney member of the commission, the judge of the St. Joseph circuit court shall call into session the selection committee that shall appoint, by a majority vote, a person to the commission to serve a new term. If the selection committee fails to act to fill an expired term of a nonattorney member of the commission by the date of expiration of the term of a nonattorney member of the commission, the remaining members on the commission shall, by majority vote, appoint a person to serve for the succeeding term. All appointments made to the commission shall be certified within ten (10) days to the clerk of the St. Joseph superior court.

(c) Each appointee of a nonattorney member to the commission, except those who fill a vacancy, shall serve for four (4) years.

Sec. 32. (a) Each year in which an attorney member's term expires, those admitted to the practice of law in Indiana and residing in St. Joseph County (referred to as "attorney electors" in this chapter) shall elect three (3) of their number to serve on the commission. Each attorney member of the commission shall serve for four (4) years. The term of each attorney member begins on the first day of October following the member's election. The election day is the date on which the ballots are counted. During the month before the expiration of each attorney commissioner's term of office, an election shall be held to fill the succeeding four (4) year term of office.

(b) Except when a term of office has less than ninety (90) days remaining, vacancies in the office of an attorney commissioner to the commission shall be filled for the unexpired term of the member creating the vacancy by a special election.

Sec. 33. The attorney members of the commission shall be elected by the following process:

(1) The clerk of the St. Joseph superior court shall at least ninety (90) days before the date of election notify all attorneys in St. Joseph County of the upcoming election by mail, informing them that nominations must be made to the clerk of the superior court at least sixty (60) days before the election. The clerk shall secure a list of all attorneys in the county and their correct addresses from the clerk of the supreme court.

(2) A nomination in writing accompanied by a signed petition of ten (10) attorney electors, and the written consent of the qualified nominee shall be filed by an attorney elector or group of attorney electors residing in St. Joseph County, by mail or otherwise, in the office of the clerk of St. Joseph superior court at least sixty (60) days before the election.

(3) The clerk of St. Joseph superior court shall prepare and print ballots containing the names and residence addresses of all attorney nominees whose written nominations, petitions and written statements of consent have been received sixty (60) days before the election.

To be counted, this ballot must be completed, the accompanying certificate completed and signed, and both together mailed or delivered to the clerk of St. Joseph superior court not later than _____ (insert date).

DESTROY BALLOT IF NOT USED".

- (4) The nominee receiving the most votes is elected.
- (5) The clerk shall also supply with each ballot distributed by the clerk a certificate, to be completed and signed and returned by the attorney elector voting that ballot, certifying that the attorney elector is admitted to the practice of law in Indiana, resides in St. Joseph County, and voted the ballot returned. A ballot not accompanied by the signed certificate of the voter may not be counted.
- (6) To maintain the secrecy of each vote, a separate envelope shall be provided by the clerk for the ballot, in which only the voted ballot is to be placed. This envelope may not be opened until the counting of the ballots.
- (7) The clerk of St. Joseph superior court shall mail a ballot and its accompanying material to all qualified attorney electors at least two (2) weeks before the date of election.
- (8) Upon receiving the completed ballots and the accompanying certificates, the clerk shall insure that the certificates have been completed in compliance with this chapter. All ballots that are accompanied by a valid certificate shall be placed in a package designated to contain ballots. All accompanying certificates shall be placed in a separate package.
- (9) The clerk of St. Joseph superior court, with the assistance of the St. Joseph County election board, shall open and canvass all ballots at 4 p.m. on the day of election in the office of the clerk of St. Joseph superior court. Ballots received after 4 p.m. may not be counted. Upon canvassing the ballots the clerk shall place all ballots back in their package. These, along with the certificates, shall be retained in the clerk's office for six (6) months. The clerk may not allow a person to inspect them except upon an order of the court of appeals.

(10) In any election held for selection of attorney members of the commission, in case two (2) or more nominees are tied so that one (1) additional vote cast for one (1) of them would give that nominee a plurality, the canvassers shall resolve the tie by lot, and the winner of the lot is considered elected.

Sec. 34. After:

(1) the attorney members of the commission have been elected; and

(2) the names of the nonattorney commissioners appointed by the selection committee have been certified to the secretary of state, clerk of the supreme court, and the clerk of St. Joseph superior court under this chapter;

the clerk of St. Joseph superior court shall by regular mail notify the members of the commission of their election or appointment, and shall notify the chairman of the commission of the same.

Sec. 35. A person who has been elected or appointed to a full four (4) year term upon the commission may not succeed himself or herself or be eligible for election or appointment to the commission for four (4) years after the expiration of the term to which the person was elected or appointed.

Sec. 36. (a) When a vacancy occurs in the St. Joseph superior court, the clerk of the court shall promptly notify the chairman of the commission of the vacancy. The chairman shall call a meeting of the commission within ten (10) days following this notice. The commission shall submit its nominations of five (5) candidates for each vacancy and certify them to the governor as promptly as possible, and not later than sixty (60) days after the vacancy occurs. When it is known that a vacancy will occur at a definite future date within the term of the serving governor, but the vacancy has not yet occurred, the clerk shall notify the commission immediately. The commission may within fifty (50) days of the notice of vacancy make its nominations and submit to the governor the names of five (5) persons nominated for the forthcoming

(b) Meetings of the commission shall be called by the chairman or, if the chairman fails to call a necessary meeting, upon the call of any four (4) members of the commission. The chairman, whenever the chairman considers a meeting necessary, or upon the request by any four (4) members of the commission for a meeting, shall give each member of the commission at least five (5) days written notice by mail of the time and place of every meeting unless the commission at its previous meeting designated the time and place of its next meeting.

(c) Meetings of the commission must be held at a place in the St. Joseph County courthouse in South Bend as the clerk of the St. Joseph superior court may arrange.

(d) The commission shall act only at a meeting and may act only by the concurrence of a majority of its members attending a meeting. Four (4) members are required to constitute a quorum at a meeting. The commission may adopt reasonable and proper rules and regulations for the conduct of its proceedings and the discharge of its duties.

Sec. 37. (a) The commission shall submit only the names of the five (5) most highly qualified candidates from among those eligible individuals considered. To be eligible for nomination as a judge of the St. Joseph superior court, a person must be domiciled in the county of St. Joseph, a citizen of the United States, and admitted to the practice of law in the courts of Indiana.

(b) In abiding by the mandate in subsection (a), the commission shall evaluate in writing each eligible individual on the following factors:

- (1) Law school record, including any academic honors and achievements.
- (2) Contribution to scholarly journals and publications, legislative draftings, and legal briefs.
- (3) Activities in public service, including:
 - (A) writings and speeches concerning public or civic affairs which are on public record, including but not limited to campaign speeches or writing, letters to newspapers, and testimony before public agencies;
 - (B) efforts and achievements in improving the administration of justice; and

(C) other conduct relating to the individual's profession.

(4) Legal experience, including the number of years of practicing law, the kind of practice involved, and reputation as a trial lawyer or judge.

(5) Probable judicial temperament.

(6) Physical condition, including age, stamina, and possible habitual intemperance.

(7) Personality traits, including the exercise of sound judgment, ability to compromise and conciliate patience, decisiveness, and dedication.

(8) Membership on boards of directors, financial interest, and any other consideration that might create conflict of interest with a judicial office.

(9) Any other pertinent information that the commission feels is important in selecting the best qualified individuals for judicial office.

(c) Written evaluations may not be made on an individual until the individual states in writing that the individual desires to hold a judicial office that is or will be created by vacancy.

(d) The political affiliations of any candidate may not be considered by the commission in evaluating and determining which eligible candidates shall be recommended to the governor for a vacancy on the St. Joseph superior court.

Sec. 38. The commission shall submit with the list of five (5) nominees to the governor its written evaluation of the qualifications of each candidate, and the names and written evaluations shall be publicly disclosed. Every eligible candidate whose name was not submitted to the governor is entitled to access to any evaluation of the candidate by the commission and the right to make the evaluation public. Otherwise, the evaluation, including the names of the candidates applying for the office, shall remain confidential. If the commission determines that there are less than five (5) persons qualified under section 40 of this chapter, the commission must submit a lesser number under section 40 of this chapter.

Sec. 39. (a) After the commission has nominated and submitted to the governor the names of five (5) persons for appointment to fill a vacancy of the St. Joseph superior court:

(1) any name may be withdrawn for a cause considered by the commission to be of a substantial nature affecting the nominee's qualifications to hold office; and

(2) another name may be substituted at any time before the appointment is made to fill the vacancy.

(b) If a nominee dies, or requests in writing that the nominee's name be withdrawn, the commission shall nominate another person to replace the nominee.

(c) If there are existing at the same time two (2) or more vacancies on the court, the commission shall nominate and submit to the governor a list of five (5) different persons for each of the vacancies. The commission may before an appointment is made:

(1) withdraw the lists of nominations;

(2) change the names of any persons nominated from one (1) list to another; and

(3) resubmit the lists as changed or substitute a new name for any of those previously nominated.

Sec. 40. (a) A vacancy occurring in the St. Joseph superior court shall be filled by appointment of the governor from a list of nominees presented to the governor by the judicial nominating commission. If the governor fails to make an appointment from the list within sixty (60) days from the day it is presented to the governor, the appointment shall be made by the chief justice or the acting chief justice of the supreme court from the same list presented to the governor.

(b) The governor shall make all appointments to the St. Joseph superior court without regard to the political affiliation of any of the nominees submitted to the governor. In the interest of justice, the governor shall consider only those qualifications of the nominees included in section 37 of this chapter.

(c) If the St. Joseph County judicial nominating commission, by a vote of any five (5) of its members, determines that, of the persons considered for any existing or expected vacancy in the St. Joseph superior court, less than five (5) are qualified for judicial office, within the scope of this chapter, the commission shall certify that determination to the governor together with the name or names of the person or persons found to be qualified under this chapter. In that event, the governor, chief justice, or acting chief justice shall make the selection or, if only one (1) name is submitted, make the appointment.

Sec. 41. An appointment by the governor, chief justice, or acting chief justice, as required by section 40 of this chapter, to the St. Joseph County superior court shall take effect immediately if a vacancy exists at the date of the appointment. The appointment shall take effect on the date the vacancy is created if a vacancy does not exist on the date of the appointment.

Sec. 42. (a) Each judge appointed serves an initial term that begins on the effective date of the judge's appointment and continues through December 31 in the year of the general election that follows the expiration of two (2) years after the effective date of the judge's appointment.

(b) Thereafter, unless rejected by the electorate of St. Joseph County under this chapter, each judge of the St. Joseph superior court serves successive six (6) year terms. Each successive six (6) year term begins on the first day of January following the expiration of the preceding initial term or the preceding six (6) year term and continues for six (6) years.

Sec. 43. (a) The question of the retention in office or rejection of each judge of the St. Joseph superior court shall be submitted to the electorate of St. Joseph County at the general election immediately preceding expiration of the term of that judge.

(b) If a judge subject to this chapter does not desire to serve a further term, the judge shall notify the judge's intention in writing to the clerk of the St. Joseph circuit court at least sixty (60) days before the general election immediately preceding expiration of the judge's term in which case the question of the judge's retention in office or rejection may not be submitted to the electorate, and the office is vacant at the expiration of the term.

(c) The St. Joseph County election board shall submit the question of the retention in office or rejection of any judge to the electorate of St. Joseph County. The submission of this question is subject to the provisions of IC 3 that are not inconsistent with this chapter.

(d) At the general election, the question of the retention in office or rejection of a judge shall be submitted to the electorate of St. Joseph County in the form prescribed by IC 3-11-2 and must state "Shall Judge (insert name) of the St. Joseph superior court be retained in office for an additional term?".

(e) If a majority of the ballots cast by the electors voting on the question is "No", the judge whose name appeared on such question is rejected. The office of the rejected judge is vacant on January 1 following the rejection. The vacancy shall be filled by appointment of the governor under section 40 of this chapter. The name of the rejected judge may not be included among those submitted to the governor. However, the judge's rejection does not disqualify a rejected judge from being considered for another judicial office that becomes vacant.

Sec. 44. (a) During a term of office, a judge of the St. Joseph superior court may not engage in the practice of law, run for an elective office other than a judicial office, or directly or indirectly make any contributions to or hold any office in a political party or organization. A judge may not take part in any political campaign except as a candidate for retention in judicial office and, in that event, the judge's campaign participation must be absolutely devoid of partisan association and be limited to activities designed to acquaint the electorate with the judge's judicial record.

(b) Failure to comply with this section is sufficient cause for the commission on judicial qualifications established by section 45 of this chapter to recommend to the supreme court that the judge be censured or removed from office.

Sec. 45. There is established a commission on judicial qualifications for the St. Joseph superior court, whose membership is the same as that of the judicial nominating commission under section 29 of this chapter. The commission on judicial qualifications may employ special counsel in any proceedings it undertakes under the responsibilities imposed upon it by this chapter.

Sec. 46. (a) On recommendation of the commission on judicial qualifications, the supreme court may suspend a judge of the St. Joseph superior court from office without salary when in any court in the United States the judge enters a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to, or is found guilty of, any crime punishable as a felony under the laws of Indiana or of the United States, or of any other crime that involves moral turpitude under that law. If the judge's conviction is reversed, suspension terminates, and the judge shall be paid the judge's salary for the period of suspension. If the judge is suspended and the judge's conviction is affirmed or otherwise becomes final, the supreme court shall remove the judge from office.

(b) On recommendation of the commission on judicial qualifications, the supreme court may:

(1) retire a judge of the St. Joseph superior court for disability that seriously interferes with the performance of the judge's duties and is likely to become permanent; and

(2) censure or remove a judge of the St. Joseph superior court for conduct occurring not more than six (6) years before the commencement of the judge's current term, when the conduct constitutes willful misconduct in office, willful and persistent failure to perform the judge's duties, habitual intemperance, or conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice or that brings or tends to bring judicial office into disrepute.

(c) When the supreme court receives any recommendation from the commission on judicial qualifications, it shall hold a hearing, at which the affected judge is entitled to attend, and shall make a determination as is required. The supreme court shall make rules regarding the convening and conduct of hearings, which shall, upon request of the judge whom it concerns, be public.

Sec. 47. (a) The commission on judicial qualifications shall meet periodically as necessary to discharge its statutory responsibilities. Meetings of the commission on judicial qualifications shall be called in the same manner as prescribed for the judicial nominating commission. A quorum for the transaction of business is four (4) members.

(b) The clerk of the St. Joseph circuit court shall make arrangements for a meeting place in St. Joseph County as the commission may request.

(c) The commission on judicial qualifications may act only at a meeting. The commission on judicial qualifications may adopt reasonable and proper rules and regulations for the conduct of its meetings and discharge of its duties.

Sec. 48. (a) All papers filed with and proceedings had before the commission on judicial qualifications before the institution of formal proceedings are confidential unless the judge against whom a complaint has been filed elects to have the information divulged or unless the commission elects to answer publicly disseminated statements issued by any complainant.

(b) All papers filed with the commission on judicial qualifications at the time of or after the institution of formal proceedings are open for public inspection at all reasonable times. Records of proceedings are open for public inspection at all reasonable times. All hearings and proceedings before the commission on judicial qualifications are open to the public.

Sec. 49. The filing of papers with or the giving of testimony before the commission on judicial qualifications under this chapter are absolutely privileged in any action for defamation.

Sec. 50. Complaints directed to the commission on judicial qualifications do not have to be in writing. A specified form of complaint may be required if presented in writing.

Sec. 51. (a) Any citizen of Indiana may complain to the commission on judicial qualifications with reference to the activities, fitness, or qualifications of any judge of the St. Joseph superior court. Upon receiving a complaint or request, the commission on judicial qualifications shall make an initial inquiry to determine if a complaint is founded and not frivolous. The commission on judicial qualifications, without receiving a complaint, may make an initial inquiry on its own motion.

(b) If the commission on judicial qualifications considers it necessary as a result of its initial inquiry to conduct further investigation, the judge involved may then be notified of the investigation, the nature of the charge, the complaint that must be in writing, the name of the person making the complaint, if any, or that the investigation is on the commission's own motion and the judge shall be afforded reasonable opportunity in the course of the investigation to present matters as the judge may choose. When this notice is given, it must be by prepaid registered or certified mail addressed to the judge at the judge's chambers and at the judge's last known address. If the investigation does not disclose sufficient cause to warrant further proceedings, the judge may be so notified. The commission on judicial qualifications may make investigations by members of the commission or by special investigators employed by the commission, hold confidential hearings with the person filing the complaint or with the person's agents or attorneys, and hold confidential hearings with the judge involved in the complaint.

(c) If the commission on judicial qualification's initial inquiry or investigation does not disclose sufficient cause to warrant further proceedings and if the complainant subsequently issues any statement or statements of any kind for public dissemination relating to the activities or actions of the commission, the commission may answer that statement by reference to as much of the record of its proceedings or results of its investigation as it considers necessary.

Sec. 52. (a) After the investigation is completed and if the commission on judicial qualifications concludes that formal proceedings should be instituted, the commission shall give written notice to the judge advising the judge of the institution of formal proceedings to inquire into the charges against the judge. These proceedings shall be entitled:

"BEFORE THE ST. JOSEPH COUNTY JUDICIAL

Inquiry Concerning a Judge, No. _____. "

(b) The notice must be issued in the name of the commission on judicial qualifications, specify in ordinary and concise language the charges against the judge and the alleged facts upon which the charges are based, and advise the judge of the judge's right to file a written answer to the charges against the judge within twenty (20) days after service of the notice upon the judge. A charge is not sufficient if it merely recites the general language of the original complaint. The charge must specify the facts relied upon to support a particular charge. A copy of the notice shall be filed in the office of the commission on judicial qualifications.

(c) The notice shall be made upon the judge by registered or certified mail addressed to the judge at the judge's chambers and the judge's last known address.

Sec. 53. Within twenty (20) days after service of the notice of formal proceedings, the judge may file with the commission on judicial qualifications a signed original and one (1) copy of an answer, and shall serve a copy on the counsel by mail.

Sec. 54. Upon filing an answer or upon the expiration of the time for its filing, the commission on judicial qualifications shall order a hearing to be held before it concerning the discipline, retirement, or removal of the judge. The commission on judicial qualifications shall set an approximate date, time, and place for a hearing and shall give notice of the hearing by registered or certified mail to the judge and to the counsel at least twenty (20) days before the date set.

Sec. 55. (a) At the date, time, and place set for hearing, the commission on judicial qualifications may proceed with the hearing whether or not the judge has filed an answer or appears at the hearing.

(b) The failure of the judge to answer or to appear at the hearing, standing alone, may not be taken as evidence of the truth of the facts alleged to constitute grounds for censure, retirement, or removal. In any proceeding for involuntary retirement for disability, the failure of the judge to testify in the judge's own behalf or to submit to a medical examination requested by the commission on judicial qualifications may be considered, unless the failure to appear was due to circumstances beyond the judge's control.

(c) The proceedings at the hearing shall be reported verbatim.

(d) At least four (4) members of the commission on judicial qualifications must be present when the evidence is produced.

Sec. 56. At a hearing before the commission on judicial qualifications the evidentiary rules of the courts of Indiana apply.

Sec. 57. (a) In formal proceedings involving the judge's discipline, retirement, or removal, a judge has the right and reasonable opportunity to defend against the charges by the introduction of evidence, to be represented by counsel, and to examine and cross-examine witnesses. The judge has the right to the issuance of subpoenas for attendance of witnesses to testify or produce books, papers, and other evidentiary matter.

(b) When a transcript of the testimony has been prepared at the expense of the commission on judicial qualifications, a copy shall be furnished without cost to the judge. The judge has the right, without any order or approval, to have all or any part of the testimony in the proceedings transcribed at the judge's expense.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, whenever provision is made for giving notice or sending any matter to the judge, that notice or matter must be mailed by registered or certified mail to the judge at the judge's office and residence unless the judge requests otherwise in writing, and a copy is mailed to the judge's attorney of record.

(d) If the judge has been adjudged incapacitated under IC 29-3, the guardian may claim and exercise any right and privilege and make any defense for the judge with the same force and effect as if claimed, exercised, or made by the judge, if competent, and whenever these rules provide for serving or giving notice or sending any matter to the judge, a copy of the notice or matter also shall be served, given, or sent to the guardian.

Sec. 58. At any time before determination of the issues, the commission on judicial qualifications may allow or require amendments to the notice of formal proceedings and may allow amendments to the answer. The notice may be amended to conform to proof or to set forth additional facts, whether occurring before or after the commencement of the hearing. If an amendment is made, the judge shall be given reasonable time both to answer the amendment and to prepare and present the judge's defense against the matters charged thereby.

Sec. 59. The commission on judicial qualifications may order a hearing for the taking of additional evidence at any time while the matter is pending before it. The order must set the date, time, and place of the hearing in St. Joseph County and must indicate the matters on which the evidence is to be taken. A copy of the order shall be sent by registered or certified mail to the judge and to the counsel at least ten (10) days before the date of the hearing.

Sec. 60. If the commission on judicial qualifications finds good cause, it shall recommend to the supreme court the censure, retirement, or removal of the judge. The affirmative vote of four (4) members of the commission on judicial qualifications, including a majority of those who were present at the hearing or hearings when the evidence was produced, is required for a recommendation of discipline, retirement, or removal of a judge.

Sec. 61. Upon making a determination recommending the censure, retirement, or removal of a judge, the commission on judicial qualifications shall promptly file a copy of the recommendation certified by the chairman or secretary of the commission, together with the transcript and findings and conclusions, with the clerk of the supreme court and shall promptly mail to the judge and to the counsel notice of the filing, together with a copy of the recommendation, finding, and conclusions.

Sec. 62. (a) A petition to the supreme court to modify or reject the recommendation of the commission on judicial qualifications for censure, retirement, or removal of a judge may be filed by the judge within thirty (30) days after the filing with the clerk of the supreme court of the certified copy of the commission's recommendation. The petition must:

- (1) be verified;
- (2) be based on the record;
- (3) specify the grounds relied on; and
- (4) be accompanied by petitioner's brief together with proof of service on the commission of two (2) copies, and on the counsel of one (1) copy, of the petition and the brief.

Within twenty (20) days after service of petitioner's brief the commission on judicial qualifications shall file a respondent's brief and serve a copy of the respondent's brief on the judge. Within twenty (20) days after service of the respondent's brief, the petitioner may file a reply brief, two (2) copies of which shall be served on the commission on judicial qualifications and one (1) copy shall be served on the counsel.

(b) Failure to file a petition within the time provided is considered a consent to the determination on the merits based upon the record filed by the commission on judicial qualifications.

(c) To the extent necessary to implement this section and if not inconsistent with this section, the Indiana Rules of Appellate Procedure are applicable to reviews by the supreme court of commission on judicial qualifications proceedings.

Sec. 63. The commission on judicial qualifications has jurisdiction and powers necessary to conduct the proper and speedy disposition of any investigation or hearing, including the power to compel the attendance of witnesses, to take or cause to be taken the deposition of witnesses, and to order the production of books, records, or other documentary evidence. Any member of the commission on judicial qualifications may administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses in any matter within the jurisdiction of the commission.

Sec. 64. Subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence between the commission on judicial qualifications or for discovery shall be issued by the chairman of the commission and shall be served in the manner provided by law for the service of process.

Sec. 65. If in any proceeding before the commission on judicial qualifications, any witness fails or refuses to attend upon subpoena issued by the commission or any of the commission's representatives, or appearing, refuses to testify or refuses to produce any books and papers the production of which is called for by the subpoena, the attendance of any witness and the giving of the witness's testimony and the production of the books and papers required shall be enforced by the St. Joseph circuit court.

Sec. 66. All papers and pleadings filed with the chairman of the commission on judicial qualifications at the chairman's office shall be considered filed with the commission.

Sec. 67. (a) In all formal proceedings, discovery shall be available to the commission on judicial qualifications and to the judge in accordance with the Indiana Rules of Civil Procedure. Any motions requesting court orders for discovery shall be made to the St. Joseph circuit court.

(b) In all formal proceedings before the commission on judicial qualifications, the counsel shall furnish to the judge not less than twenty (20) days before any hearing the following:

(1) The names and addresses of all witnesses whose testimony the counsel expects to offer at the hearing together with copies of all written statements and transcripts of testimony of the witnesses in the possession of the counsel or the commission that are relevant to the subject matter of the hearing and that have not previously been furnished the judge.

(2) Copies of all documentary evidence that the counsel expects to offer in evidence at the hearing. The testimony of any witness, except if offered in rebuttal or for impeachment, whose name and address have not been furnished to the judge, and documentary evidence, copies of which have not been furnished to the judge, as provided in this subsection, are not admissible in evidence at the hearing over the objection of the judge. After formal proceedings have been instituted, the judge may request in writing that the counsel furnish to the judge the names and addresses of all witnesses then or thereafter known to the counsel who have information that may be relevant to any charge against the judge and to any defense of the judge with respect to the charge. The counsel shall also furnish copies of such written statements, transcripts of testimony, and documentary evidence as are then or thereafter known to the counsel and are then or thereafter in the possession of the counsel or the commission that are relevant to any charges or defense and that have not previously been furnished the judge. The counsel shall comply with a request within ten (10) days after receipt of the request and thereafter within ten (10) days after any information or evidence becomes known to the counsel.

(c) During the course of an investigation by the commission on judicial qualifications, the judge whose conduct is being investigated may demand in writing that the commission either institute formal proceedings against the judge or enter a formal finding that there is not probable cause to believe that the judge is guilty of any misconduct. The commission on judicial qualifications shall within sixty (60) days after the judge's demand comply with the demand. A copy of the demand must be filed with the supreme court and is a matter of public record. If, after a demand, the commission on judicial qualifications finds that there is not probable cause, that finding must be filed with the supreme court and is a matter of public record.

Sec. 68. (a) Whenever a judge of a St. Joseph County court is retired by the supreme court under this chapter and on the grounds set forth in sections 44 and 46 of this chapter, the judge is considered to have retired voluntarily. In these situations, this chapter may not be construed to authorize any encroachment upon or impairment of any rights of the judge or the judge's surviving spouse under any constitutional or statutory retirement program.

(b) A judge of a St. Joseph County court who is removed from office by the supreme court on those grounds set forth in sections 44 and 46 of this chapter, is ineligible for judicial office and, pending further order of the supreme court, shall be suspended from the practice of law in Indiana.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a), in cases on the civil small claims docket, the following exceptions to the laws and rules described in subsection (a) apply:

- (1) A defendant is considered to have complied with the statute and rule requiring the filing of an answer upon entering the defendant's appearance personally or by attorney. An appearance is considered a general denial and preserves all defenses and compulsory counterclaims that may then be presented at the trial of the cause.

(2) If at the trial of the cause the court determines that the complaint is so vague and ambiguous that the defendant was unable to determine the nature of plaintiff's claim or that the plaintiff is surprised by a defense or compulsory counterclaim raised by the defendant that the plaintiff could not reasonably have anticipated, the court shall grant a continuance.

(3) The trial must be informal, with the sole objective of dispensing speedy justice between the parties according to the rules of substantive law, and may not be bound by the statutory provisions or rules of practice, procedure, pleadings, or evidence except provisions relating to privileged communications and offers of compromise.

Sec. 17. Whenever a trial by jury is demanded, a judge of the superior court may call a jury from the list provided and used by the circuit court, although the filing of a small claim shall be considered a waiver of trial by jury by the plaintiff. The defendant may, not later than ten (10) days after being served, make demand for a trial by jury by affidavit stating that there are questions of fact requiring a trial by jury, specifying them, and stating that the demand is intended in good faith. The court shall then cause the claim to be transferred to the regular docket and the defendant shall pay the filing fee charged for filing civil actions in circuit court. Upon transfer a claim loses its status as a small claim and is subject to all ordinary rules and procedure.

Sec. 18. When the judgment or order in the small claims division of the superior court is against the defendant, the defendant shall pay the judgment or order immediately or at any time and upon such terms and conditions as the judge prescribes. If the judge orders that the judgment shall be paid in specified installments, the judge may stay the issuance of execution and other supplementary process during compliance with the order. The stay may be modified or vacated by the court.

Sec. 19. All judgments rendered in the small claims division of a superior court shall be properly recorded in the judgment docket book of the court. The judgments are liens on real estate in the Sec. 20. IC 33-37-4-6.

(c) Money paid in advance for costs remaining unexpended at the time an action or a proceeding is terminated, whether by reason of dismissal or otherwise, shall be returned to the party or parties making payment. Chapter 5. Records; Procedures; Practices

Sec. 1. City courts are governed by the laws and rules governing the practice, pleading, and processes in circuit courts.

Sec. 2. A change of venue may not be taken from a city or town court. However, a defendant may take a change of venue from the judge of the court, with a special judge appointed as provided for the circuit court.

Sec. 3. All warrants or other processes issued by the city court must be:

- (1) directed to the chief of police of the city or any person specially deputized by the city court; and
- (2) executed, served, and returned by the chief, by any police officer of the city, or by the specially deputized person.

The members of the police force of the city shall cause all persons arrested by the police force for a violation of any law to be taken before the city court for trial or examination.

Sec. 4. (a) City courts of the three (3) cities having the largest populations in counties having a population of more than four hundred thousand (400,000) but less than seven hundred thousand (700,000) shall keep the following books of record on the civil side of the court:

- (1) A loose leaf minute book, similar to that kept by the circuit court, each case to be numbered consecutively in order of its filing.

(2) Index and cross-index book, containing the names of all parties to each action with the number of the case opposite the name.

(3) A fee book as is provided for city courts.

(4) An order book in which all orders of a cause are written consecutively when final judgment or order is entered.

(b) The case should bear the same number as originally given to the case when filed and must be arranged in the order book consecutively according to the original number given to the case when filed. All orders, proceedings, records of issuing execution, returns of execution, and satisfactions of execution shall be grouped together, if practical, on one (1) page or on consecutive pages when there is not sufficient room to group it on one (1) page. All costs in a cause shall be taxed on the margin of the page containing the final order or judgment. All orders not connected with a specific case, such as general appointments made by the judge, shall be entered in the minute book under a separate number and recorded in the record book under that number.

Sec. 5. All issues of fact pending in city courts shall be tried by the judge, unless either party demands a jury trial. The jury must consist of six (6) qualified voters of the city, to be summoned by the bailiff by venire issued by the judge.

Sec. 6. The style of the city or town court is "The (City or Town) Court of _____," according to the name of the city or town.

Sec. 7. (a) A city court is not a court of record.

(b) A town court is not a court of record.

(c) A person selected as judge of the following courts must be an attorney in good standing under the requirements of the supreme court:

(1) Anderson city court.

(2) Avon town court.

(3) Brownsburg town court.

(4) Carmel city court.

(5) A city or town court located in Lake County.

(6) Muncie city court.

(8) Plainfield town court.

(9) Greenwood city court.

(10) Martinsville city court.

Sec. 8. (a) All judgments, decrees, orders, and proceedings of city and town courts have the same force as those of the circuit court. A judgment becomes a lien on real estate when a transcript of the judgment is filed with the clerk of the circuit court.

(b) All orders of sale and executions affecting real estate from the city court of the three (3) cities having the largest populations in a county having a population of more than four hundred thousand (400,000) but less than seven hundred thousand (700,000) shall be issued by the clerk of the circuit court to the sheriff upon the filing of a certified copy of the judgment. When the copy is filed, the court rendering the judgment has no further jurisdiction of the case except to furnish a transcript for appeal. The life of a lien may be continued in force when the action is started in the city court, as though the action were filed in the circuit court, by filing with the clerk of the circuit court a certificate, certified to by the judge of the city court and containing:

- (1) the names of the parties to the suit;
- (2) the nature of the action;
- (3) the description of the property affected; and

Sec. 9. (a) An appeal from a judgment of a city court may be taken to the circuit or superior court of the county and tried de novo.

(c) A prisoner against whom punishment is adjudged by a city court may appeal to the circuit court of the county, within thirty (30) days after the judgment. If the prisoner, within the thirty (30) days, enters into recognizance for his appearance in court and causes to be filed in the court, within forty-five (45) days, all other papers, documents, and transcripts necessary to complete the appeal, the appeal stays all further proceedings on the judgment in the court below. However, the prisoner may remain in jail on the prisoner's sentence instead of furnishing a recognizance, and an appeal without recognizance does not stay the execution of the court below.

Sec. 10. (a) A party in a civil action who desires to take an appeal from the city court of the three (3) cities having the largest populations in a county having a population of more than four hundred thousand (400,000) but less than seven hundred thousand (700,000) shall file a bond, to the approval of the city court, within thirty (30) days after the date of rendition of final judgment, and the motion to correct errors within ten (10) days after the rendition of final judgment. The transcript and motion shall be filed in the court to which the appeal is taken within thirty (30) days after the motion has been signed by the court.

(b) All errors saved shall be reviewed as far as justice warrants, and for that purpose, a complete transcript of all the evidence is not required. An error occurring during the trial, not excepted to at the time, may be made available upon appeal by setting it forth in a motion for a new trial. Upon application within the time fixed, either of the parties to the suit may obtain either:

(1) a correct statement, to be prepared by the party requesting the signing of the same, of the facts in a narrative form appearing on the trial and of all questions of law involved in the case and the decisions of the court upon the questions of law; or

(2) a correct stenographic report;

and the expense of procuring the correct statement or correct stenographic report shall be paid by the party requesting the correct statement or correct stenographic report.

(c) The appeal shall be:

(1) submitted on the date filed in the court to which the appeal is taken;

(2) advanced on the docket of that court; and

(3) as determined at the earliest practical date, without any extension of time for filing of briefs;

but the court to which an appeal is taken may, on application, hear oral arguments.

(d) If judgment is affirmed on appeal, it may be increased by ten percent (10%), in addition to any interest that may be allowed, if the appeal is found to be frivolous.

(e) A change of venue may be taken from the judge to whom the case is appealed as provided by law for taking changes of venue from the judge of the circuit court.

(f) The court to which an appeal is taken shall render its opinion in abbreviated form by simply citing the controlling authorities in the case, unless it appears that some new question of practice, procedure, or law is involved that would warrant a more extensive opinion.

Sec. 3. If a person charged with a violation wants to exercise the right to trial, the person shall appear before the violations clerk and deny the violation or enter a written denial with the clerk.

the clerk shall report this fact to the official having the responsibility to prosecute ordinance violation cases for the municipal corporation.

(c) If, after a hearing under subsection (a), the court determines that a convicted person is able to pay part of the costs of representation, the court shall order the person to pay an amount of not more than the cost of the defense services rendered on behalf of the person. A person who is a judge on July 1, 1953, shall become a participant in the fund and be subject to this chapter, beginning on July 1, 1953, unless twenty (20) days before July 1, 1953, the judge files with the board a written notice of election not to participate in the fund.

(b) A person who:

(1) becomes a judge after July 1, 1953, and before September 1, 1985; and

(c) A person who irrevocably:

(1) elects not to participate in the fund; or

(2) withdraws from the fund under section 13 of this chapter; is ineligible to participate and to receive benefits under this chapter.

(d) Participation of a judge in the fund continues until the date on which the judge:

- (1) becomes an annuitant;
- (2) dies; or
- (3) accepts a refund;

but a person is not required to pay into the fund during any period that the person is not serving as a judge, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

(e) A participant is considered to have made a one (1) time irrevocable salary reduction agreement of six percent (6%) of each payment of salary that a participant would otherwise have received for services as a judge.

(f) The auditor of state and the county auditor shall pay and credit to the fund the amounts described in subsection (e) as provided in IC 33-38-6-21 and IC 33-38-6-22. However, no amounts shall be paid on behalf of a participant for more than twenty-two (22) years.

Sec. 11. (a) Benefits provided under this section are subject to IC 33-38-6-13 and section 16 of this chapter.

(b) A participant whose employment as judge is terminated, regardless of cause, is entitled to a retirement annuity beginning on the date specified by the participant in a written application, if the following conditions are met:

- (1) The date the annuity begins is not:
 - (A) before the date of final termination of employment by the participant; or
 - (B) the date thirty (30) days before the receipt of the participant's written application by the board.
- (2) The participant:
 - (A) is at least sixty-two (62) years of age and has at least eight (8) years of service credit;

 - (C) has become permanently disabled.

- (3) The participant is not receiving a salary from the state for services currently performed, except for services rendered in the capacity of judge pro tempore or senior judge.

(c) A participant:

(1) who:(A) elects to accept retirement after June 30, 1977; and*(B) is at least sixty-five (65) years of age; or*(2) who:(A) elects to accept retirement after June 30, 1999;(B) is at least fifty-five (55) years of age; and*(C) meets the requirements under subsection (b)(2)(B);is entitled to an annual retirement benefit as calculated in subsection (d).(d) The annual retirement benefit for a participant who meets the requirements of subsection (c) equals the product of:(1) the salary being paid for the office that the participant held at the time of the participant's separation from service; multiplied by(2) the percentage prescribed in the following table:*TABLE A

If a participant has a partial year of service in addition to at least eight (8) full years of service, an additional percentage shall be calculated by prorating between the applicable percentages, based on the number of months in the partial year of service. A participant who elects to accept retirement before July 1, 1977, is entitled to an annual retirement benefit that equals the average of the benefit computed under this subsection and the benefit the participant would have received under IC 33-38-6 as in effect on June 30, 1977.

(e) If the annual retirement benefit of a participant who began service as a judge before July 1, 1977, as computed under subsection (d), is less than the amount the participant would have received under IC 33-38-6 as in effect on June 30, 1977, the participant is entitled to receive the greater amount as the participant's annual retirement benefit instead of the benefit computed under subsection (d).

(f) Except as provided in subsections (b)(2)(B) and (d), if a participant who elects to accept retirement after June 30, 1977, has not attained sixty-five (65) years of age, the participant is entitled to receive a reduced annual retirement benefit that equals the benefit that would be payable if the participant were sixty-five (65) years of age reduced by one-tenth percent (0.1%) for each month that the participant's age at retirement precedes the participant's sixty-fifth birthday. This reduction does not apply to:

- (1) participants who are separated from service because of permanent disability;
- (2) survivors of participants who die while in service after August 1, 1992; or
- (3) survivors of participants who die while not in service but while entitled to a future benefit.

(g) A participant who is permanently disabled is entitled to an annual benefit equal to the product of:

- (1) the salary being paid for the office that the participant held at the time of separation from service; multiplied by
- (2) the percentage prescribed in the following table:

If a participant has a partial year of service in addition to at least eight (8) full years of service, an additional percentage shall be calculated by prorating between the applicable percentages, based on the number of months in the partial year of service.

(h) The surviving spouse or surviving child or children, as designated by the participant, of a participant who has qualified before July 1, 1977, to receive the retirement annuity under the provisions of this chapter, either by length of service or by being permanently disabled, shall, upon the death of such participant, be entitled to an annuity in an amount equal to the greater of:

- (1) the sum of:
 - (A) two thousand dollars ($2,000); plus
 - (B) fifty percent (50%) of the amount of retirement annuity the participant was drawing at the time of the participant's death, or to that which the participant would have been entitled had the participant retired and begun receiving retirement annuity benefits prior to the participant's death; or
- (2) the amount determined under the following table:

TABLE C

Year	Amount
July 1, 1995, to June 30, 1996	$10,000
July 1, 1996, to June 30, 1997	$11,000
July 1, 1997, and thereafter	$12,000

(i) If a participant who qualifies after June 30, 1977, and before July 1, 1983, to receive a retirement annuity under the provisions of this chapter, either by length of service or by being permanently disabled, dies, the participant's surviving spouse or surviving child or children, as designated by the participant, is or are entitled to an annuity in an amount equal to the greater of:

- (1) fifty percent (50%) of the amount of retirement annuity the participant was drawing at the time of death, or to that which the participant would have been entitled had the participant retired and begun receiving retirement annuity benefits before death; or

(2) the amount determined under TABLE C in subsection (h)(2).

(j) If a participant:

(1) dies after June 30, 1983; and

(2) on the date of the participant's death:

(A) was receiving benefits under this chapter;

(B) had completed at least eight (8) years of service and was in service as a judge;

(C) was permanently disabled; or

(D) had completed at least eight (8) years of service, was not still in service as a judge, and was entitled to a future benefit;

the participant's surviving spouse or surviving child or children, as designated by the participant, is or are entitled, regardless of the participant's age, to an annuity in an amount equal to the greater of the amount determined under TABLE C in subsection (h)(2) or fifty percent (50%) of the amount of retirement annuity the participant was drawing at the time of death, or to that which the participant would have been entitled had the participant retired and begun receiving retirement annuity benefits on the participant's date of death, with reductions as necessary under subsection (f).

(k) Notwithstanding subsection (j), if a participant:

(1) died after June 30, 1983, and before July 1, 1985; and

(2) was serving as a judge at the time of death;

the surviving spouse is entitled to the same retirement annuity as the surviving spouse of a permanently disabled participant entitled to benefits under subsection (i).

(l) The annuity payable to a surviving child or children under subsection (h), (i), or (j), is subject to the following:

(1) The total monthly benefit payable to a surviving child or children is equal to the same monthly annuity that was to have been payable to the surviving spouse.

(2) If there is more than one (1) child designated by the participant, then the children are entitled to share the annuity in equal monthly amounts.

(3) Each child entitled to an annuity shall receive that child's share until the child becomes eighteen (18) years of age or during the entire period of the child's physical or mental disability, whichever period is longer.

(4) Upon the cessation of payments to one (1) designated child, if there is at least one (1) other child then surviving and still entitled to payments, the remaining child or children shall share equally the annuity. If the surviving spouse of the participant is surviving upon the cessation of payments to all designated children, the surviving spouse will then receive the annuity for the remainder of the surviving spouse's life.

(5) The annuity shall be payable to the participant's surviving spouse if any of the following occur:

(A) No child named as a beneficiary by a participant survives the participant.

(B) No children designated by the participant are entitled to an annuity due to their age at the time of death of the participant.

(C) A designation is not made.

(6) An annuity payable to a surviving child or children may be paid to a trust or a custodian account under IC 30-2-8.5, established for the surviving child or children as designated by the participant.

Sec. 12. (a) Benefits provided under this section are subject to IC 33-38-6-13.

(b) A participant is considered permanently disabled if the board has received a written certificate by at least two (2) licensed and practicing physicians, appointed by the board, indicating that:

- (1) the participant is totally incapacitated, by reason of physical or mental infirmities, from earning a livelihood; and
- (2) the condition is likely to be permanent.

(c) The participant shall be reexamined by at least two (2) physicians appointed by the board at the times as the board designates but at intervals not to exceed one (1) year. If, in the opinion of these physicians, the participant has recovered from the participant's disability, then benefits cease to be payable as of the date of the examination unless, on that date, the participant is:

- (1) at least sixty-five (65) years of age; or
- (2) at least fifty-five (55) years of age and meets the requirements under section 11(b)(2)(B) of this chapter.

(d) To the extent required by the Americans with Disabilities Act, the transcripts, reports, records, and other material generated by the initial and periodic examinations and reviews to determine eligibility for disability benefits under this section shall be:

- (1) kept in separate medical files for each member; and
- (2) treated as confidential medical records.

Sec. 13. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a participant:

- (1) whose employment as a judge is terminated regardless of cause; and
- (2) who has less than twelve (12) years service;

is entitled to withdraw from the fund, beginning on the date specified by the participant in a written application. However, the date on which the withdrawal begins may not be before the date of final termination of employment of the participant, or the date thirty (30) days before the receipt of the application by the board.

(b) Upon the withdrawal, a participant is entitled to receive out of the fund an amount equal to the total sum contributed to the fund on behalf of the participant, payable within sixty (60) days after date of the withdrawal application or in monthly installments as the participant may elect.

Sec. 14. (a) Benefits provided under this section are subject to IC 33-38-6-13 and section 16 of this chapter.

(b) If annuities are not payable to the survivors of a participant who dies after July 1, 1983, the surviving spouse or child or children of the participant, if any, as determined by the participant, and if none survive, then any dependent or dependents surviving shall draw from the fund the amount that the participant paid into the fund plus interest as determined by the board. If no spouse, child or children, or other dependents survive, then the amount plus interest minus any payments made to the participant shall be paid to the executor or administrator of the participant's estate.

(c) The amount owed a spouse, child or children, or other dependent, or estate under this section is payable within sixty (60) days after date of the withdrawal application or in the monthly installments as the recipient may elect.

Sec. 15. (a) Benefits provided under this section are subject to IC 33-38-6-13 and section 16 of this chapter.

(b) If a participant's spouse does not survive the participant, and a child is not designated and entitled to receive an annuity under section 11 of this chapter, any surviving dependent child of a participant is, upon the death of the participant, entitled to an annuity in an amount equal to the annuity the participant's spouse would have received under section 11 of this chapter.

(c) If a surviving spouse of a decedent participant dies and a dependent child of the surviving spouse and the decedent participant survives them, then that dependent child is entitled to receive an annuity in an amount equal to the annuity the spouse was receiving or would have received under section 11 of this chapter.

(d) If there is more than one (1) dependent child, the dependent children are entitled to share the annuity equally.

(e) Each dependent child is entitled to receive that child's share until the child becomes eighteen (18) years of age or during the entire period of the child's physical or mental disability, whichever period is longer.

Sec. 16. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, and solely for the purposes of the benefits provided under this chapter, the benefit limitations of Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be determined by applying the provisions of Section 415(b)(10) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by the Technical and Miscellaneous Revenue Act of 1988 (P.L.100-647). This section constitutes an election under Section 415(b)(10)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code to have Section 415(b) of the Internal Revenue Code (other than Section 415(b)(2)(G)) applied without regard to Section 415(b)(2)(F) to anyone who did not first become a participant before January 1, 1990.

Sec. 17. (a) A judge is entitled to a month of service credit for services performed in any fraction of a calendar month. However, a judge is not entitled to more than one (1) month of credit for services performed in a calendar month.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, if a judge is elected or appointed and serves one (1) or more terms or part of a term then retires from office but at a later period or periods is appointed or elected and serves as judge, the judge shall pay into the fund during all the periods served as judge, whether the periods are served consecutively or not.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a judge is not required to pay into the fund:

- (1) at any time when the judge is not serving as judge; or
- (2) during any period of service as a senior judge under IC 33-23-3.

Sec. 18. (a) This section applies to a person who:

- (2) before becoming a judge was appointed by a court to serve as a full-time referee, full-time commissioner, or full-time magistrate;
- (3) was a member of the public employees' retirement fund during the employment described in subdivision (2); and
- (4) received credited service under the public employees' retirement fund for the employment described in subdivision (2).

(b) If a person becomes a participant in the judges' 1977 benefit system under section 1 of this chapter, credit for prior service by the judge as a full-time referee, full-time commissioner, or full-time magistrate shall be granted under this chapter by the board if:

- (1) the prior service was credited under the public employees' retirement fund;
- (2) the state contributes to the judges' 1977 benefit system the amount the board determines necessary to amortize the prior service liability over a period determined by the board, but not more than ten (10) years; and
- (3) the judge pays in a lump sum or in a series of payments determined by the board, not exceeding five (5) annual payments, the amount the judge would have contributed if the judge had been a member of the judges' 1977 benefit system during the prior service.

(c) If the requirements of subsection (b)(2) and (b)(3) are not satisfied, a participant is entitled to credit only for years of service after the date of participation in the 1977 benefit system.

(d) An amortization schedule for contributions paid under subsection (b)(2) or (b)(3) must include interest at a rate determined by the board.

(e) The following provisions apply to a person described in subsection (a):

(1) A minimum benefit applies to participants receiving credit in the judges' 1977 benefit system from service covered by the public employees' retirement fund. The minimum benefit is payable at sixty-five (65) years of age and equals the actuarial equivalent of the vested retirement benefit that is:

(A) payable to the member at normal retirement under IC 5-10.2-4-1 as of the day before the transfer; and

(B) based solely on:

(i) creditable service;

(ii) the average of the annual compensation; and

(iii) the amount credited under IC 5-10.2 and IC 5-10.3 to the annuity savings account of the transferring member as of the day before the transfer.

(2) If the requirements of subsection (b)(2) and (b)(3) are satisfied, the board shall transfer from the public employees' retirement fund to the judges' 1977 benefit system the amount credited to the annuity savings account and the present value of the retirement benefit payable at sixty-five (65) years of age that is attributable to the transferring participant.

(3) The amount the state and the participant must contribute to the judges' 1977 benefit system under subsection (b) shall be reduced by the amount transferred to the judges' 1977 benefit system by the board under subdivision (2).

(4) If the requirements of subsection (b)(2) and (b)(3) are satisfied, credit for prior service in the public employees' retirement fund as a full-time referee, full-time commissioner, or full-time magistrate is waived. Any credit for the prior service under the judges' 1977 benefit system may be granted only under subsection (b).

(5) Credit for prior service in the public employees' retirement fund for service other than as a full-time referee, full-time commissioner, or full-time magistrate remains under the public employees' retirement fund and may not be credited under the judges' 1977 benefit system.

(4) has not attained vested status under a public employees' retirement fund for the employment described in subdivision (2); and

(5) has at least eight (8) years of service credit in the judges' retirement system.

(b) If a person becomes a participant in the judges' 1977 benefit system under this chapter, credit for service described in subsection (a) shall be granted under this chapter by the board if:

(1) the prior service was credited under an Indiana public employees' retirement fund; and

(2) the judge pays in a lump sum or in a series of payments determined by the board, not exceeding five (5) annual payments, the amount determined by the actuary for the 1977 benefit system as the total actual cost of the service.

(g) If the requirements of subsection (b) are satisfied, credit for prior service in a public employees' retirement fund is waived.

Sec. 12. (a) A complaint filed with the commission must be in writing and directed to the commission or to any member of the commission.

(b) A specified form of complaint may not be required.

Sec. 13. (a) Any Indiana citizen may complain to the commission about the activities, fitness, or qualifications of a judge or justice. Upon receiving a complaint, the commission shall determine if the complaint is founded and not frivolous. If the commission determines that the complaint is frivolous or malicious, the commission shall file with the proper court charges against the complainant. The commission, without receiving a complaint, may conduct an initial inquiry on its own motion.

(b) If the commission determines it is necessary to investigate a justice or judge, the commission shall notify the justice or judge by prepaid registered or certified mail addressed to the justice or judge at the justice's or judge's chambers and last known residence. the commission may answer the statement by referring to the record of its proceedings or the results of its investigation.

Sec. 14. (a) If the commission concludes, after investigation, to institute formal proceedings against a justice or judge, the commission shall give written notice of the proceedings to the justice or judge by registered or certified mail addressed to the judge at the judge's chambers and last known residence. - (3) advise the justice or judge of the justice's or judge's right to file a written answer to the charges not more than twenty (20) days after service of the notice.

A charge is not sufficient if it merely recites the general language of the original complaint, but must specify the facts relied upon to support a particular charge.

(c) A copy of the notice shall be filed in the office of the commission.

Sec. 15. Not more than twenty (20) days after service of the notice of formal proceedings, the justice or judge:

- (1) may file with the commission a signed original and one (1) copy of an answer; and

(b) The failure of a justice or judge to answer or appear at the hearing may not be taken as evidence of the truth of the facts alleged to constitute grounds for censure, retirement, or removal. In a proceeding for involuntary retirement for disability, the failure of a justice or judge to testify in the justice's or judge's behalf or to submit to a medical examination requested by the commission or the masters may be considered, unless the failure was due to circumstances beyond the justice's or judge's control.

(c) The hearing shall be reported verbatim.

(d) At least four (4) commission members must be present when evidence is produced at a hearing before the commission.

Sec. 18. The Indiana Rules of Evidence apply at a hearing before the commission or the masters.

(d) If a justice or judge has been adjudged incapacitated under IC 29-3, the justice's or judge's guardian may claim and exercise any right and privilege and make any defense for the justice or judge with the same force and effect as if claimed, exercised, or made by the justice or judge if competent. If the rules provide for serving or giving notice or sending any matter to the justice or judge, a copy of any notice or other matter sent to the justice or judge also shall be served, given, or sent to the justice's or judge's guardian.

Sec. 20. The masters, at any time before the conclusion of the hearing, or the commission, at any time before its determination:

(1) may allow or require amendments to the notice of formal proceedings; and

(2) may allow amendments to the answer.

The notice may be amended to conform to proof or to set forth additional facts whether occurring before or after the commencement of the hearing. If an amendment is made, the justice or judge shall be given reasonable time both to answer the amendment and to prepare and present a defense.

Sec. 21. (a) After a hearing, the masters shall promptly prepare and transmit to the commission an original and four (4) copies of a transcript of the hearing and an original and four (4) copies of a report that contains a brief statement of the proceedings and the masters' recommended findings of fact. The recommended findings of facts are not binding upon the commission.

(b) Upon receiving the report of the masters, the commission shall mail a copy of the report and transcript to the justice or judge and the counsel.

Sec. 22. Not more than fifteen (15) days after the commission mails a copy of the report of the masters to the justice or judge, the counsel or the justice or judge may file with the commission an original and one (1) copy of objections to the report of masters. If the counsel files objections, the counsel shall mail a copy of the objections to the justice or judge. If the justice or judge files objections, the justice or judge shall send a copy of the objections by registered or certified mail to the counsel.

Sec. 23. If objections to a report of the masters under section 21 of this chapter are not timely filed, the commission may adopt the recommended findings of the masters without a hearing. If objections are timely filed, or if objections are not timely filed and the commission proposes to modify or reject the recommended findings of the masters, the commission shall give the justice or judge and the counsel an opportunity to be heard before the commission in the county in which the justice or judge resides. The commission shall mail written notice of the time and place of the hearing to the justice or judge and the counsel not less than ten (10) days before the hearing.

Sec. 24. (a) The chairman of the commission may extend the time for:

- (1) filing an answer;
- (2) conducting a hearing before the commission; and
- (3) filing objections to the report of the masters.

(b) The presiding master may, with the approval of the chairman of the commission, extend the time for conducting a hearing before the masters.

Sec. 25. The commission may order a hearing to take additional evidence at any time while a matter is pending before it. The hearing must be in the county in which the justice or judge resides. The order must set the time and place of the hearing and shall indicate the matters on which evidence will be taken. The commission shall send a copy of the order to the judge and the counsel not less than ten (10) days before the hearing. If masters have been appointed, the hearing shall be before the masters, and the hearing must conform with sections 18 through 24 of this chapter and this section.

Sec. 26. If the commission finds good cause, it shall recommend to the supreme court the censure, retirement, or removal of a justice or judge. If a hearing is before the masters, the affirmative vote of four (4) members of the commission is required to recommend censure, retirement, or removal of a justice or judge. If a hearing is before the commission, the affirmative vote of four (4) members of the commission, including a majority of the members who were present at the hearing, is required to recommend censure, retirement, or removal of a justice or judge.

Sec. 27. The commission shall keep a record of all formal proceedings concerning a judge. The commission shall record its determination and mail notice of the determination to the justice or judge and the counsel. If the commission recommends censure, retirement, or removal, the commission shall prepare a transcript of the evidence and proceedings and shall make written findings of fact and conclusions of law.

Sec. 28. Upon recommending the censure, retirement, or removal of a justice or judge, the commission shall promptly file the following with the clerk of the supreme court:

- (1) A copy of the recommendation certified by the chairman or secretary of the commission.
- (2) A transcript of the evidence.
- (3) Findings of fact and conclusions of law.

The commission shall promptly mail to the justice or judge and the counsel notice of the filing and copies of the filed documents.

Sec. 29. (a) Not more than thirty (30) days after a certified copy of the commission's recommendation is filed with the clerk of the supreme court, a justice or judge may petition the supreme court to modify or reject the commission's recommendation.

(b) The justice or judge shall verify the petition. The petition must be based on the record. The petition must specify the grounds relied on and must be accompanied by the petitioner's brief and proof of service of two (2) copies of the petition and brief on the commission and one (1) copy of the petition and brief on the counsel.

(c) Not more than twenty (20) days after service of the petitioner's brief, the commission shall file a respondent's brief and serve a copy on the justice or judge. Not more than twenty (20) days after service of respondent's brief, the petitioner may file a reply brief and shall serve two (2) copies on the commission and one (1) copy on the counsel.

(d) Failure to timely file a petition is considered consent to the determination on the merits based upon the record filed by the commission.

(e) To the extent necessary and not inconsistent with this section, the Indiana Rules of Appellate Procedure apply to reviews by the supreme court of commission proceedings.

Sec. 30. The commission has jurisdiction and powers necessary to conduct the proper and speedy disposition of any investigation or hearing, including the powers to depose witnesses and to order the production of documentary evidence. A member of the commission or a master may administer oaths to witnesses in a matter under the commission's jurisdiction.

Sec. 31. (a) A master may issue a subpoena for:

- (1) the attendance of witnesses;

- (3) discovery;

in a proceeding before the masters. The master shall serve the subpoena in the manner provided by law.

(b) The chairman of the commission may issue a subpoena for:

The counsel shall provide to the justice or judge copies of documentary evidence that:

(1) are known at any time to the counsel or in the possession at any time of the counsel or the commission;

If the commission finds that there is not probable cause, the commission shall file the finding with the supreme court. A document filed with the supreme court under this subsection is a matter of public record.

Sec. 35. This chapter does not encroach upon or impair the vested rights of a justice or judge or the surviving spouse of a justice or judge under any constitutional or statutory retirement program.

Chapter 14. The Commission on Judicial Qualifications and the Discipline of Judges of Superior, Probate, Juvenile, and Criminal Courts

Sec. 1. It is the purpose of this chapter to provide that judges of superior, probate, juvenile, or criminal courts in counties described in section 9 of this chapter are subject to disciplinary action on the grounds and in the manner set forth in this chapter.

Sec. 2. As used in this chapter, "commission" means the commission on judicial qualifications described in Article 7, Section 9 of the Constitution of the State of Indiana.

Sec. 3. As used in this chapter, "counsel" means the lawyer designated by the commission to:

- (1) gather and present evidence before the masters or the commission with respect to the charges against a judge; and
- (2) represent the commission before the supreme court in connection with any proceedings before the court.

Sec. 4. As used in this chapter, "judge" means a judge of a superior or probate court.

Sec. 5. As used in this chapter, "mail" includes ordinary mail or personal delivery.

commission on judicial qualifications for the court of appeals and the supreme court are the members of the commission on judicial qualifications for judges of the superior and probate courts.

Sec. 9. (a) The commission shall exercise disciplinary jurisdiction over judges.

(b) In a county in which a commission on judicial qualifications operated by virtue of law before July 26, 1973, the county commission on judicial qualifications ceases to exercise disciplinary jurisdiction over the county courts and the commission shall exercise disciplinary jurisdiction. However, if the law creating a county commission on judicial qualifications in a county before July 26, 1973, precluded judges subject to its disciplinary jurisdiction from participating in political activities because the judges are selected by a merit system, the judges are precluded from participating in political activities.

(c) The operation and function of a judicial nominating commission operating in a county by virtue of law before July 26, 1973, is not affected by this chapter.

Sec. 10. (a) A judge is disqualified from acting as a judicial officer, without loss of salary, while there is pending:

- (1) an indictment or information charging the judge in a United States court with a crime punishable as a felony under Indiana or federal law; or
- (2) a recommendation to the supreme court by the commission for the judge's removal or retirement.

(b) On recommendation of the commission or on its own motion, the supreme court may suspend a judge from office without salary if in a United States court the judge pleads guilty or no contest or is found guilty of a crime that:

- (1) is punishable as a felony under Indiana or federal law; or
- (2) involves moral turpitude under the law.

If the judge's conviction is reversed, the suspension terminates and the judge shall be paid the judge's salary for the period of suspension. If the judge's conviction becomes final, the supreme court shall remove the judge from office.

(c) On recommendation of the commission, the supreme court may:

- (1) retire a judge for a disability that:
 - (A) seriously interferes with the performance of the judge's duties; and

(B) is or is likely to become permanent; and

(2) censure or remove a judge for an action that:

(B) constitutes at least one (1) of the following:

(i) Willful misconduct in office.

(ii) Willful or persistent failure to perform the judge's duties.

(iii) Habitual intemperance.

(iv) Conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice that brings the judicial office into disrepute.

A judge retired under this subsection is considered to have retired voluntarily. A judge removed under this subsection is ineligible for judicial office and, pending further order of the supreme court, is suspended from the practice of law in Indiana.

Sec. 11. (a) The commission shall meet as necessary to discharge its statutory responsibilities. Meetings of the commission shall be called in the same manner as prescribed for the judicial nominating commission. Four (4) members of the commission constitute a quorum.

(b) Commission meetings are to be held in Indiana on the call of the chairman.

(c) The commission may act only at a meeting. The commission may adopt rules and regulations to conduct its meetings and discharge its duties.

Sec. 12. (a) Papers filed with and proceedings before the commission before the institution of formal proceedings are confidential unless:

(1) the judge against whom a recommendation is filed elects to have the information divulged; or

(2) the commission elects to answer public statements by a complainant.

(b) Papers filed with the commission during or after the institution of formal proceedings are open for public inspection at all reasonable times. Records of commission proceedings are open for public inspection at all reasonable times. All hearings and proceedings before the commission, after the institution of formal proceedings, are open to the public.

Sec. 13. Filing papers with or giving testimony before the commission or the masters under this chapter is privileged.

Sec. 14. (a) Any citizen of Indiana may file with the commission a written and verified complaint on the judicial fitness of a judge of a superior, criminal, juvenile, or probate court of Indiana.

(b) A specified form of complaint may not be required.

Sec. 15. (a) A judge may request retirement due to disability.

(b) A citizen of Indiana may complain to the commission about the activities, fitness, or qualifications of a judge. Upon receipt of a complaint, the commission shall determine if the complaint is frivolous. The commission may, on its own motion, inquire into the activities, fitness, or qualifications of a judge.

(c) If the commission determines it is necessary to investigate a judge, the commission shall notify the judge by prepaid registered or certified mail addressed to the judge at the judge's chambers and last known residence of the following:

(1) The investigation.

(2) The nature of the complaint.

(3) The origin of the complaint, including the name of the complainant or that the investigation is on the commission's motion.

(d) The commission may do the following:

(1) Conduct investigations.

(2) Employ special investigators.

(3) Hold confidential hearings with the judge's or commission's agents or attorneys.

(4) Hold confidential hearings with any judge involved.

(e) If:

(1) the commission's initial inquiry or investigation does not disclose sufficient cause to warrant further proceedings; and

(2) the complainant subsequently issues any public statement relating to the activities or actions of the commission;

the commission may answer the statement by referring to the record of proceedings or the results of the investigations.

Sec. 16. (a) If the commission decides to institute formal proceedings, the commission shall give written notice to the judge advising the judge of the institution of formal proceedings to inquire into the charges against judge. The proceedings must be entitled:

"BEFORE THE INDIANA JUDICIAL QUALIFICATIONS COMMISSION

Inquiry Concerning a Judge, No. _____".

(b) The notice must:

(1) specify in ordinary and concise language the charges against the judge and the alleged facts upon which the charges are based; and

(2) advise the judge of the judge's right to file a written answer not more than twenty (20) days after service of notice.

A charge is not sufficient if it recites the general language of the original complaint.

(c) The notice shall be made upon the judge by registered or certified mail addressed to the judge at the judge's chambers and last known residence.

Sec. 17. Not more than twenty (20) days after service of the notice of formal proceedings, the judge:

(1) may file with the commission a signed original and one (1) copy of an answer; and

(2) shall serve by mail a copy of the answer on the counsel.

Sec. 18. (a) Upon the filing of or the expiration of the time for filing an answer, the commission shall:

(1) order a hearing before the commission on the discipline, retirement, or removal of the judge; or

(2) request the supreme court to appoint three (3) active or retired judges of courts of record as special masters to hear and take evidence on the matter and to report to the commission.

(b) The commission shall:

(1) set a time and place in the state in which the judge involved resides for a hearing; and

(2) mail notice of the hearing to the judge, the masters, and the counsel at least twenty (20) days before the hearing date.

Sec. 19. (a) The commission, or the masters when the hearing is before the masters, may proceed with the hearing whether or not the judge files an answer or appears at the hearing.

(b) The failure of a judge to answer or to appear at the hearing by itself is not evidence of the facts alleged and does not constitute grounds for censure, retirement, or removal. In a proceeding for involuntary retirement for disability, the failure of a judge to testify in the judge's own behalf or to submit to a medical examination requested by the commission or the masters may be considered, unless the failure was due to circumstances beyond the judge's control.

(c) The hearing shall be reported verbatim.

(d) At a hearing before the commission, not less than four (4) members must be present when the evidence is produced.

Sec. 20. The Indiana Rules of Evidence apply at a hearing before the commission or the masters.

Sec. 21. (a) In formal proceedings involving the discipline, retirement, or removal of a judge, the judge may:

- (1) defend against the charges by introducing evidence;
- (2) be represented by counsel;
- (3) examine and cross-examine witnesses; and
- (4) issue subpoenas for attendance of witnesses to testify or produce evidentiary matter.

(b) If testimony is transcribed at the expense of the commission, a copy shall be provided to the judge at no cost. The judge is entitled to have testimony transcribed at the judge's expense.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, any notice or matter sent to the judge shall be mailed by registered or certified mail to the judge at the judge's office and residence unless the judge requests otherwise in writing. A copy of the notice or matter shall be mailed to the judge's counsel.

(d) If a judge has been adjudicated incapacitated under IC 29-3, the judge's guardian may exercise any right or privilege and make any defense for the judge as if exercised or made by the judge. If any notice or matter is sent to the judge, a copy of the notice or matter also shall be sent to the judge's guardian.

Sec. 22. The masters, before the conclusion of the hearing, or the commission, before its determination, may allow or require amendments to the notice of formal proceedings and may allow amendments to the answer. The notice may be amended to conform to proof or to set forth additional facts. If an amendment is made, the judge shall be given reasonable time to answer the amendment and to prepare and present a defense.

Sec. 23. (a) After a hearing before the masters, the masters shall promptly transmit to the commission an original and four (4) copies of:

- (1) a transcript of the hearing; and
- (2) a report that contains a brief statement of the proceedings and recommended findings of fact.

The recommended findings of facts are not binding on the commission.

(b) Upon receiving the report of the masters, the commission shall promptly mail a copy of the report and transcript to the judge and the judge's counsel.

Sec. 24. Not more than fifteen (15) days after a copy of the report of the masters is mailed to the judge, the counsel or the judge may file with the commission an original and one (1) copy of objections to the report of the masters. If the counsel files objections, the counsel shall mail a copy of the objections to the judge. If the judge files objections, the judge shall mail a copy of the objections to the counsel.

Sec. 25. If objections to the report of the masters are not timely filed, the commission may adopt the recommended findings of the masters without a hearing. If objections are timely filed, or if objections are not timely filed and the commission proposes to modify or reject the recommended findings of the masters, the commission shall give the judge and the counsel an opportunity to be heard in the county where the judge resides. The commission shall mail to the judge and the counsel written notice of the time and place of the hearing not less than ten (10) days before the hearing.

Sec. 26. (a) The chairman of the commission may extend the time for:

- (1) filing an answer;
- (2) commencing a hearing before the commission; or
- (3) filing objections to the report of the masters.

(b) The presiding master, with the approval of the chairman of the commission, may extend the time for commencing a hearing before the masters.

Sec. 27. (a) The commission may order a hearing to take additional evidence at any time while the matter is pending before the commission. The order must set the time and place of the hearing in the county in which the judge resides and must indicate the matters on which evidence will be taken. A copy of the order shall be mailed to the judge and the counsel at least ten (10) days before the hearing.

(b) If masters have been appointed, the hearing of additional evidence is before the masters in accordance with this chapter.

Sec. 28. If the commission finds good cause, it shall recommend to the supreme court the discipline, retirement, or removal of a judge. If a hearing is before the masters, the affirmative vote of four (4) commission members is required to recommend the discipline, retirement, or removal of a judge. If a hearing is before the commission, the affirmative vote of four (4) commission members, including a majority of the members present at the hearing, is required to recommend the discipline, retirement, or removal of a judge.

Sec. 29. The commission shall keep a record of all formal proceedings concerning a judge. The commission shall enter its determination in the record and mail notice to the judge and the counsel. Sec. 4. (a) The nine (9) classes of the several judicial circuits of the state as set out in this chapter are based on a unit factor system. The factors are determined by the relations of the judicial circuit to the state as established and certified to each county auditor by the state board of accounts not later than June 20 of any calendar year. They are as follows:

- (1) Population.

An election is effective for each successive year of the term unless it is revoked before June 30 of the year during which the prosecuting attorney wants to change the prosecuting attorney's status. However, only one (1) change in status may be made during the term. A revocation is made by the prosecuting attorney by filing a written notice with the circuit court of the prosecuting attorney's judicial circuit and the auditor of state.

(3) be paid by the county in which the duty arose that necessitated the travel.

(c) This chapter does not prohibit the payment of other expenses as may be allowed by law.

(d) If a board of county commissioners does not furnish the prosecuting attorney with office space, the county council shall appropriate a reasonable amount of money per year to the prosecuting attorney for office space.

Sec. 9. The classification of salary schedules for prosecuting attorneys may not be lowered below the classification first fixed by the state board of accounts under IC 33-14-7 (before its repeal).

(d) The members shall, by a majority vote, elect one (1) member to serve as chairperson.

(e) Meetings shall be held at least quarterly and may be held at other times during the year at the call of the:

(f) A county executive may terminate the board by giving at least ninety (90) days written notice to the judges described in subsection (a).

Sec. 4. A member is entitled to reimbursement from the county for traveling expenses and other expenses actually incurred in connection with the member's duties to the same extent as is provided to a state employee for traveling expenses and other expenses under the state travel policies and procedures established by the Indiana department of administration and approved by the budget agency.

Sec. 5. (a) The board shall prepare a comprehensive plan that must include at least one (1) of the following methods of providing legal defense services to indigent persons:

A court may also appoint counsel to assist counsel provided for under the board's plan as co-counsel when the interests of justice require. Expenditures by a county for defense services not provided under the county public defender board's plan are not subject to reimbursement from the public defense fund under IC 33-40-6.

(b) A judge of a court having criminal jurisdiction may make a written request to the state public defender to provide a qualified attorney for the defense of a person charged in the court with a criminal offense and eligible for representation at public expense if the judge determines:

The judge shall attach to the request a copy of the information or indictment. Expenditures for representation under this subsection shall be paid by the county according to a fee schedule approved by the commission. These expenditures are eligible for reimbursement from the public defense fund.

Sec. 11. (a) A county public defender board shall submit a written request for reimbursement to the county auditor. The request must set forth the total of the county's expenditures for indigent defense services to the county auditor and may be limited in a county described in section 1(3) of this chapter to expenditures for indigent defense services provided by a particular division of a court. The county auditor shall review the request and certify the total of the county's expenditures for indigent defense services to the Indiana public defender commission.

(b) Upon certification by the Indiana public defender commission that the county's indigent defense services meet the commission's standards, the auditor of state shall issue a warrant to the treasurer of state for disbursement to the county of a sum equal to forty percent (40%) of the county's certified expenditures for indigent defense services provided in noncapital cases except misdemeanors.

(c) If a county's indigent defense services fail to meet the standards adopted by the Indiana public defender commission, the public defender commission shall notify the county public defender board and the county fiscal body of the failure to comply with the Indiana public defender commission's standards. Unless the county public defender board corrects the deficiencies to comply with the standards not more than ninety (90) days after the date of the notice, the county's eligibility for reimbursement from the public defense fund terminates at the close of that fiscal year.

Sec. 12. A county public defender, a contract attorney, or counsel appointed by the court to provide legal defense services to indigent persons may not be a partner or an employee at the same law firm that employs the county's prosecuting attorney or a deputy prosecuting attorney in a private capacity.

SECTION 73. IC 6-8.1-5-1 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004]: Sec. 1. (a) If the department reasonably believes that a person has not reported the proper amount of tax due, the department shall make a proposed assessment of the amount of the unpaid tax on the basis of the best information available to the department. The amount of the assessment is considered a tax payment not made by the due date and is subject to IC 6-8.1-10 concerning the imposition of penalties and interest. The department shall send the person a notice of the proposed assessment through the United States mail.

(b) If the person has a surety bond guaranteeing payment of the tax for which the proposed assessment is made, the department shall furnish a copy of the proposed assessment to the surety. The notice of proposed assessment is prima facie evidence that the department's claim for the unpaid tax is valid. The burden of proving that the proposed assessment is wrong rests with the person against whom the proposed assessment is made.

(c) The notice shall state that the person has sixty (60) days from the date the notice is mailed to pay the assessment or to file a written protest. If the person files a protest and requires a hearing on the protest, the department shall:

- (1) set the hearing at the department's earliest convenient time; and
- (2) notify the person by United States mail of the time, date, and location of the hearing.

(d) The department may hold the hearing at the location of its choice within Indiana if that location complies with IC 6-8.1-3-8.5.

(e) No later than sixty (60) days after conducting a hearing on a protest, or after making a decision on a protest when no hearing is requested, the department shall issue a letter of findings and shall send a copy of the letter through the United States mail to the person who filed the protest and to the person's surety, if the surety was notified of the proposed assessment under subsection (a). The department may continue the hearing until a later date if the taxpayer presents additional information at the hearing or the taxpayer requests an opportunity to present additional information after the hearing.

(f) A person that disagrees with a decision in a letter of finding may request a rehearing not more than thirty (30) days after the date on which the letter of finding is issued by the department. The department shall consider the request and may grant the rehearing if the department reasonably believes that a rehearing would be in the best interests of the taxpayer and the state.

(g) If a person disagrees with a decision in a letter of finding, the person may appeal the decision to the tax court. However, the tax court does not have jurisdiction to hear an appeal that is filed more than one hundred eighty (180) days after the date on which the letter of finding is issued by the department.

(h) The tax court shall hear an appeal under subsection (g) de novo and without a jury. The tax court may do the following:

- (1) Uphold or deny any part of the assessment that is appealed.

- (1) the person failed to properly respond within the sixty (60) day period;
- (2) the person requested a hearing but failed to appear at that hearing; or
- (3) after consideration of the evidence presented in the protest or hearing, the department finds that the person still owes tax.

(j) The department shall make the demand for payment in the manner provided in IC 6-8.1-8-2.

(k) Subsection (a) does not apply to a motor carrier fuel tax return.

SECTION 74. IC 6-8.1-9-1 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004]: Sec. 1. For purposes of this section, the due date for a return filed for the state gross retail or use tax, the gasoline tax, the special fuel tax, the motor carrier fuel tax, the oil inspection fee, or the petroleum severance tax is the end of the calendar year which contains the taxable period for which the return is filed. The claim must set forth the amount of the refund to which the person is entitled and the reasons that the person is entitled to the refund.

(b) When the department receives a claim for refund, the department shall consider the claim for refund and may hold a hearing on the claim for refund to obtain and consider additional evidence. After considering the claim and all evidence relevant to the claim, the department shall issue a decision on the claim, stating the part, if any, of the refund allowed and containing a statement of the reasons for any part of the refund that is denied. The department shall mail a copy of the decision to the person who filed the claim. If the department allows the full amount of the refund claim, a warrant for the payment of the claim is sufficient notice of the decision.

(c) If the person disagrees with any part of the department's decision, ~~he the person~~ may appeal the decision, regardless of whether or not he protested the tax payment or whether or not the person has accepted a refund. The person must file the appeal with the tax court. The tax court does not have jurisdiction to hear a refund appeal suit, if:

- (1) the appeal is filed more than three (3) years after the date the claim for refund was filed with the department;
- (2) the appeal is filed more than ninety (90) days after the date the department mails the decision of denial to the person; or
- (3) the appeal is filed both before the decision is issued and before the one hundred eighty-first day after the date the person files the claim for refund with the department.

(d) The tax court shall hear the appeal de novo and without a jury, and after the hearing may order or deny any part of the appealed refund. The court may assess the court costs in any manner that it feels is equitable. The court may enjoin the collection of any of the listed taxes under ~~IC 33-3-5-11~~. IC 33-26-6-2. The court may also allow a refund of taxes, interest, and penalties that have been paid to and collected by the department.

(e) With respect to the motor vehicle excise tax, this section applies only to penalties and interest paid on assessments of the motor vehicle excise tax. Any other overpayment of the motor vehicle excise tax is subject to IC 6-6-5.

(f) If a taxpayer's federal income tax liability for a taxable year is modified by the Internal Revenue Service, and the modification would result in a reduction of the tax legally due, the due date by which the taxpayer must file a claim for refund with the department is the later of:

- (1) the date determined under subsection (a); or
- (2) the date that is six (6) months after the date on which the taxpayer is notified of the modification by the Internal Revenue Service.

(g) If an agreement to extend the assessment time period is entered into under IC 6-8.1-5-2(e), the period during which a person may file a claim for a refund under subsection (a) is extended to the same date to which the assessment time period is extended.

(c) If the certificate recommends that the witness be taken into immediate custody and delivered to an officer of the requesting state to assure the attendance of the witness in the requesting state, the judge may, in lieu of notification of the hearing, direct that the witness be immediately brought before the judge for the hearing. If the judge is satisfied of the desirability of the custody and delivery, the judge may, in lieu of issuing a subpoena, order that the witness be immediately taken into custody and delivered to an officer of the requesting state. For this determination, the certificate is prima facie proof of such desirability.

(d) If a witness subpoenaed as provided in this section is paid or tendered a sum for expenses and fails without good cause to attend and testify as directed in the subpoena, the witness shall be punished in the manner provided for the punishment of any witness who disobeys a subpoena issued from a court of record in this state.

The fiscal body of the county shall appropriate money from the county supplemental adult probation services fund:

(g) The probation department or clerk shall collect the administrative fee under subsection (e)(4) before collecting any other fee under subsection (e). All money collected by the probation department or the clerk of a city or town court under this section shall be transferred to the fiscal officer of the city or town for deposit into the local supplemental adult probation services fund. (k) In addition to other methods of payment allowed by law, a probation department may accept payment of fees required under this section and section 1.5 of this chapter by credit card (as defined in IC 14-11-1-7). The liability for payment is not discharged until the probation department receives payment or credit from the institution responsible for making the payment or credit.

However, if there is a vendor transaction charge or discount fee, whether billed to the probation department or charged directly to the probation department's account, the probation department may collect a credit card service fee from the person using the bank or credit card. The fee collected under this subsection is a permitted additional charge to the money the probation department is required to collect under subsection (d) or (e).

(m) The probation department shall forward the credit card service fees collected under subsection (l) to the county treasurer or city or town fiscal officer in accordance with subsection (f) or (g).
